Encountering The Self Transformation And Destiny In The Ninth Year:

Encountering the Self Hermann Koepke, 1989-12 Addresses Essays Discussions and Reports 1920 1924 CW 217a Young people today turn away from older people not because the latter have grown old but because they have remained young that is because they don't understand how to grow old in the right way Older people today lack this self knowledge Growing old in the right way means allowing the spirit to unfold in our souls as befits an aging body When we do this we show young people not only what time has done to the body but also what eternity reveals through the spirit Young people will find their way to older people who seriously attempt to experience spirit To say that we must act young when we are with young people is just an empty phrase As older people we must understand and demonstrate to young people how to be old in the right way Rudolf Steiner Mar 9 1924 Youth and the Etheric Heart which comes to twenty first century readers in the somewhat deceptive wrapping of a historical document of Rudolf Steiner's addresses to young people during 1920 to 1924 is at least for those concerned with the future of Anthroposophy or with the future of spiritual life in general one of the most extraordinary and prophetic volumes in the collected works This book is intended by its editors to be supplementary to the central turning point of the movement the 1922 Pedagogical Youth Course published as Becoming the Archangel Michael's Companions Together they present Steiner's vision for Anthroposophy as he hoped it would permeate culture through young people able to take it up as a spiritual intellectual and socially transforming path The task which underlies the whole volume and to which we too are called by service to the Archangel Michael is to open to the etheric heart in humanity This becomes clear in Rudolf Steiner's final address to the young people attending a teachers conference in Arnheim on July 20 1924 What is needed is not thinking about what should happen People should feel that the spirit outside of us speaks in the flames of nature The sunrise has changed But also our heart has changed we no longer bear the same heart in our chest Our physical heart has grown harder and our etheric heart more mobile We must find access to our suprasensory hearts This is the way we must understand spiritual science In this respect young people have hearts ideally suited to feeling when something is right It simply requires courage to really think it It is in the light of our suprasensory heart that we should approach this volume and indeed Anthroposophy as a whole Youth and the Etheric Heart is a great companion volume to Becoming the Archangel Michael's Companions CW 217 During the early 1920s following the disaster of World War I the youth of Europe faced many hardships and questions about their destiny in the world The situation today is certainly different but the questions are no less urgent This volume is the first complete English translation from the German of Die Erkenntnis Aufgabe der Jugend GA 217a Encountering the Self Hermann Koepke, 1989 Provides a lucid explanation of the events happening in the life of a child between the ninth and tenth years This is the time when the child's ego incarnates more deeply As a result children at that age often experience themselves for the first time as separate individuals different from their parents and peers and essentially alone As Koepke points out this inner experience is often accompanied by a first encounter with death in the child s environment a first inkling that life is fragile and does not go on forever Rudolf Steiner Bo Dahlin, 2017-06-22 This book covers Rudolf Steiner's biography presented from an educational point of view and also unfolds the different aspects of Steiner's educational thought in Waldorf Education. His point of view is unique in that it relates education to a wide horizon of different contexts such as social, pedagogical, evolutionary and spiritual aspects. His ideas are philosophical, ethical, epistemological, ontological. However, above all, they are based on spiritual understanding of the human being and the world. In many ways, they stand in stark contrast to the views that inform present mainstream educational thought and practice. Nevertheless, there are points where Steiner's ideas can find a resonance in more recent educational thought. Steiner was in many ways ahead of his time and his educational ideas are still relevant to many present-day educational issues and problems.

Human Encounters and Karma Athys Floride, 1990-10 This marvelous book begins to unfold a path of community and interhuman spiritual path and shows how we can begin to regain the sacred in our everyday lives through an awareness of past and future karma, our full humanity in our relationships with those around us. Beginning with the moment before the encounter, the author shows how from that moment on we can enter a process that parallels the Mass, annunciation, sacrifice, transubstantiation and communion. Drawing on Rudolf Steiner's many insights, Floride shows us this social ritual as a profoundly spiritual path, one perhaps closer to us than any other. The second half of the book deals with this process of encountering a poet through his work. Taking Victor Hugo as his example, Floride shows how profound such a meeting can be.

Autism Marga Hogenboom, 2013-08-22 Educating and caring for an autistic child is a severely difficult task, too often associated with frustration and disappointment. As a result, the inner development of children with autism is at times considered to be beyond the reach of parents and carers. This book challenges that assumption, exploring case studies where therapy based on a holistic approach has resulted in marked improvements in the autistic child's behaviour and social integration. With an extended holistic programme, autistic children discover inner self-awareness and self-recognition, leading to first steps in relationships and social skills. The authors describe in detail their own practical experiences as well as the findings of other experts in the field. This new third edition covers recent developments in diagnostic methods and approaches to treatment, including new case studies and a new chapter looking at the sensory aspect of autism and Sensory Integration Therapy. Well researched and movingly written, this book has an essential positive message for all those involved in the care and education of autistic children. School as a Journey Torin M.
