The Art of Investing in Film Maria Johnsen, 2023-04-26 In this book I provided a comprehensive guide to film investment including the history of film investment in Europe and North America the structure of the film industry current trends and the art of investing in film I covered the various types of investments such as equity investments debt investments gap financing and tax incentives and explained the risks and rewards of film investing along with case studies I have also discussed building a film investment portfolio due diligence working with producers agents managers and talents evaluating film projects negotiating deals legal considerations distribution and marketing and the international market Additionally I included case studies of successful and failed investments as well as real estate and crowdfunding options for film investment Finally I concluded with a discussion of the future of the film industry and the role of investors in shaping up the movie industry I wrote this book out of my deep passion for the film industry and a desire to share my knowledge and experience as a film investor and filmmaker with aspiring investors in this field My ultimate goal is to inspire and motivate readers to pursue their passion and make a positive impact in the film industry In addition I aim to challenge prevalent myths and misconceptions that surround film investment and encourage critical thinking among my audience and readers I also wrote this book with investors filmmakers and academics in mind as there is currently a lack of practical literature on film investment for higher education The existing books on the market are outdated and do not provide relevant information for today's industry Reading Capitalist Realism Leigh Claire La Berge, 2014-04-01 As the world has been reshaped since the 1970s by economic globalization neoliberalism and financialization writers and artists have addressed the problem of representing the economy with a new sense of political urgency Anxieties over who controls capitalism have thus been translated into demands upon literature art and mass media to develop strategies of representation that can account for capitalism's power Reading Capitalist Realism presents some of the latest and most sophisticated approaches to the question of the relation between capitalism and narrative form partly by questioning how the realism of austerity privatization and wealth protection relate to the realism of narrative and cultural production Even as critics have sought to locate a new aesthetic mode that might consider and move beyond theorizations of the postmodern this volume contends that narrative realism demands renewed scrutiny for its ability to represent capitalism's latest scenes of enclosure and indebtedness Ranging across fiction nonfiction television and film the essays collected here explore to what extent realism is equipped to comprehend and historicize our contemporary economic moment and what might be the influence or complicity of the literary in shaping the global politics of lowered expectations Including essays on writers such as Mohsin Hamid Lorrie Moore Jess Walter J M Coetzee James Kelman Ali Smith Russell Banks William Vollmann and William Gibson as well as examinations of Hollywood film productions and The Wire television series Reading Capitalist Realism calls attention to a resurgence of realisms across narrative genres and questions realism's ability to interrogate the crisis driven logic of political and economic common sense

Risk in the Film Business Michael Franklin, 2022-07-25 This book explores the complex multifaceted and contested subject of risk in the film business How risk is understood and managed has a substantial impact upon which films are financed produced and seen Founded on substantial original research accessing the highest level of industry practitioners this book examines the intertwined activity of independents large media companies including major studios the international marketplace and related audio visual sectors such as high end television The book shows how risk is generally framed or even intuited rather than calculated and that this process occurs across a sliding scale of formality This work goes beyond broad creative industries characterisations of a risky sector and concentrations on Box Office return modelling to provide a missing middle This means a coherent analytic coverage of business organisation and project construction to address the complex practicalities that mobilise strategic operations in relation to risk often in unseen business to business contexts Informed by economic sociology's concepts addressing market assemblage and valuation alongside applications of science and technology studies to media and communications the book respects both the powerful roles of social and institutional actors and affordances of new technologies in dealing with the persistent known unknown the audience Examining a persistent business issue in a new way this book analyses top level industry practice through established mechanisms and innovations like data analytics The result is a book that will be essential reading for scholars with an interest in the film business as well as risk management more broadly

A Companion to Latin American Cinema Maria M. Delgado, Stephen M.

Hart, Randal Johnson, 2017-04-24 A Companion to Latin American Cinema offers a wide ranging collection of newly commissioned essays and interviews that explore the ways in which Latin American cinema has established itself on the international film scene in the twenty first century. Features contributions from international critics, historians and scholars along with interviews with acclaimed Latin American film directors. Includes essays on the Latin American film industry as well as the interactions between TV and documentary production with feature film culture. Covers several up and coming regions of film activity such as nations in Central America. Offers novel insights into Latin American cinema based on new methodologies such as the quantitative approach and essays contributed by practitioners as well as theorists. Culture and International Trade Law Juneyoung Lee, 2023-03-20 How can policies on trade and culture be coordinated in such a way that both are enabled to flourish? This book makes the argument for moving from viewing trade and culture as in conflict to assessing the two fields in coordination at the domestic, regional and international levels. Juneyoung Lee makes the case for a preference for negotiations and monitoring as opposed to legalized dispute settlement. Informal law making processes and preferential trade agreements are also addressed. Critical Cultural Policy Studies Justin Lewis, Toby Miller, 2008-04-15 Critical Cultural Policy Studies: A Reader brings together classic statements and contemporary views that illustrate how everyday culture is as much a product of policy and economic determinants as it is of creative and consumer impulses.

British Cinema of the 90s Robert Murphy, 2019-07-25 This work examines major box office hits like The Full Monty as well as critically acclaimed films like Under the Skin. It explores the role of distribution and exhibition, the Americanisation of British film culture, Hollywood and Europe, changing representations of sexuality and ethnicity. Screen Digest, 2000.

Hollywood Math and Aftermath J.D. Connor, 2018-08-23 Money is Hollywood's great theme but money laundered into something else, something more. Money can be given a particular occasion and career as box office receipts, casino winnings, tax credits, stock prices, lotteries, inheritances. Or money can become number and numbers can be anything: pixels, batting averages, votes, likes. Through explorations of all these and more, J.D. Connor's Hollywood Math and Aftermath provides a stimulating and original take on the equation of pictures, the relationship between Hollywood and economics since the 1970s. Touched off by an engagement with the work of Gilles Deleuze, Connor demonstrates the centrality of the economic image to Hollywood narrative. More than just a thematic study, this is a conceptual history of the industry that stretches from the dawn of the neoclassical era through the Great Recession and beyond. Along the way, Connor explores new concepts for cinema studies: precession and recession, pervasion and staking, ostension and deritualization. Enlivened by a wealth of case studies from The Big Short and The Wolf of Wall Street to Equity and Blackhat, from Moneyball to 12 Years a Slave, Titanic to Lost, The Exorcist to WALL-E, D.J. Vu to Upstream Color, Contagion to The Untouchables, Ferris Bueller to Pacific Rim, The Avengers to The Village, Hollywood Math and Aftermath is a bravura portrait of the industry coming to terms with its own numerical underpinnings. Hastings Communications and Entertainment Law Journal (Comm/Ent), 2014 Cultural Policy

Toby Miller, George Yudice, 2002-11-19 Hitherto cultural theory and empirical work on culture have outstripped cultural policy. This book rectifies the peculiar imbalance in the field of Cultural Studies by offering the first comprehensive and international work on cultural policy. Fully alive to the challenges posed by globalization it addresses a wide range of central topics including cinema, television, museums, international organizations, art, public history, drama, and performance art. The result is a landmark work in the emerging field of cultural policy. Rigorous in its field of survey and astute in its critical commentary, it enables students to gain a global grounding in cultural policy. It will be essential reading for students of cultural studies and cultural sociology.

Canadian Film and Video Loren R. Lerner, 1997-01-01 This extensive bibliography and reference guide is an invaluable resource for researchers, practitioners, students, and anyone with an interest in Canadian film and video. With over 24 500 entries, of which 10 500 are annotated, it opens up the literature devoted to Canadian film and video at last, making it readily accessible to scholars and researchers. Drawing on both English and French sources, it identifies books, catalogues, government reports, theses, and periodical and newspaper articles from Canadian and non-Canadian publications from the first decade of the twentieth century to 1989. The work is bilingual; descriptive annotations are presented in the language(s) of the original publication. Canadian Film and Video Film et vidéo canadiens provides an in-depth guide to the work of over 4000 individuals working in film and video and 5000 films and videos. The entries in Volume I cover topics such as film types, the role of government, laws and legislation, censorship, festivals, and awards, production and distribution, companies, education, cinema buildings, women and film and video art. A major section covers filmmakers, video artists, cinematographers, actors, producers, and various other film people. Volume II presents an author index, a film and video title index, and a name and subject index. In the tradition of the highly acclaimed publication Art and Architecture in Canada, these volumes fill a long-standing need for a comprehensive reference tool for Canadian film and video. This bibliography guides and supports the work of film historians and practitioners, media librarians, and visual curators, students, and researchers, and members of the general public with an interest in film and video.

The European Film Production Guide Arthur Andersen, 2013-09-13 The European Film Production Guide sets out in one comprehensive volume the major economic, financial, and business considerations which independent producers need to bear in mind when making films in or with other countries within Europe. Arthur Andersen provides creative solutions for its clients through audit, tax, business advisory, and speciality consulting services. Its professionals combine extensive technical competence and industry experience with innovative and progressive thought, enabling Arthur Andersen to exceed client expectations.

Handbook of State Aid for Film Paul Clemens Murschetz, Roland Teichmann, Matthias Karmasin, 2018-04-01 This book is an analysis of the specificities of public film funding on an international scale. It shows how public funding schemes add value to film making and other audio-visual productions and provides a comprehensive analysis of today's global challenges in the film industry, such as industry change, digital transformation, and shifting audience tastes. Based on insights from fields such as cultural economics media economics media management and media governance studies the authors illustrate how public spending shapes the financial fitness of national and international film industries This highly informative book will help both scholars and practitioners in the film industry to understand the complexity of issues and the requirements necessary to preserve the social benefits of film as an important cultural good Market Research British Library, Alan Gomersall, 2002

This 9th edition of Market Research lists all the market research reports from 14 top market research journals up to December 2000 All are available for free consultation in the British Library Business Information Service Market research can be the most expensive type of business information to acquire and previous editions of the guide have been used by companies to find out what has been published and in choosing which reports to refer to and buy It lists over 8000 reports covering hundreds of industries from accountancy to the yoghurt industry The guide includes a subject index with comprehensive cross referencing and a geographic index to all reports concerning markets overseas
