Academics Engaging with Student Writing Jackie Tuck, 2017-07-14. Student writing has long been viewed as a problem in higher education in the UK. Moreover, the sector has consistently performed poorly in the National Student Survey with regard to assessment and feedback. Academics Engaging with Student Writing tackles these major issues from a new and unique angle, exploring the real-life experiences of academic teachers from different institutions as they set, support, read, respond to, and assess assignments undertaken by undergraduate students. Incorporating evidence from post-1992 universities, Oxbridge members of the Russell Group, and others, this book examines working practices around student writing within the context of an increasingly market-oriented mass higher education system. Presenting a wealth of relevant examples from disciplines as diverse as History and Sports Science, Tuck makes extensive use of interviews, observations, texts, and audio recordings in order to explore the perspectives of academic teachers who work with student writers and their texts. This book will be of interest to researchers, academics, and postgraduate students in the fields of academic literacies, higher education language, and literacy language in higher education. English for academic purposes and assessment. Furthermore, academic teachers with experience of this crucial aspect of academic labour will welcome Tuck's pioneering work as an indispensable tool for making sense of their own engagement with student writers.

Engaging Research Communities in Writing Studies Johanna Phelps, 2021-04-20. This book invites readers to reconsider how writing studies researchers work with Institutional Review Boards (IRBs) on behalf of their communities and argues that engaging with IRBs during the research design process helps practitioners conduct research more quickly and effectively. Using empirical data from both writing studies and extra-disciplinary contexts, Dr. Johanna Phelps presents findings from two discipline-wide studies as well as metadata from two IRBs to develop a principled engagement framework for writing studies researchers to interact with their communities. Phelps further examines the many facets of conducting research with human participants from comprehending federal policy updates to pondering specific ethical issues to developing detailed research designs and explores the confluence of ethics policy and methodology in a thoroughgoing philosophical investigation of writing studies as a public good This engaging and timely exploration of research design will be an important resource for scholars and students of writing studies rhetoric and composition technical and professional communication cultural rhetoric literacy studies research design research methodologies research ethics IRBs justice and critical theory Chapter 4 and Interchapter 4 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <https://www.taylorfrancis.com/chapters/oa-mono/10.4324/9781003082002.9> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Chapter 6 and Interchapter 6 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <https://www.taylorfrancis.com/chapters/oa-mono/10.4324/9781003082002.13> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Engaging Ideas John C. Bean, Dan Melzer, 2021-06-03 Use your course's big ideas to accelerate students' growth as writers and critical thinkers The newly revised third edition of Engaging Ideas delivers a step-by-step guide for designing writing assignments and critical thinking activities that engage students with important subject matter questions This new edition of the celebrated book now written by the co-author team of Bean and Melzer uses leading and current research and theory to help you link active learning pedagogy to your courses' subject matter You'll learn how to Design formal and informal writing assignments that guide students toward thinking like experts in your discipline Use time-saving strategies for coaching the writing process and handling the paper load including alternatives to traditional grading such as portfolio assessment and contract grading Help students use self-assessment and peer response to improve their work Develop better ways than the traditional research paper to teach undergraduate reading and research Integrate social media, multimodal genres, and digital technology into the classroom to promote active learning This book demonstrates how writing can easily be integrated with other critical thinking activities such as inquiry discussions, simulation games, classroom debates, and interactive lectures The reward of this book is watching students come to class better prepared, more vested in the questions your course investigates, more apt to study purposefully, and more likely to submit high-quality work Perfect for higher education faculty and curriculum designers across all disciplines Engaging Ideas will also earn a place in the libraries of graduate students in higher education
