The Historic Note-book Ebenezer Cobham Brewer, 1899 , The Architecture of European Codes and Contract Law Stefan Grundmann, Martin Schauer, 2006-01-01 The nineteen outstanding contributors to this deeply insightful book concur in envisioning a fundamentally new systematic concept of contract law that while preserving the essential and architecture and of the existing European codes would nonetheless find cogent ways to integrate such modern developments as mass transactions chains and networks of contracts regulation of markets and contracts to protect consumers and service and long term contracts into an optional European code The book is organised along three major avenues and the systematic arrangement of a contract law code how it deals with core questions of formation and performance or breach of contract such as mistake and misrepresentation standard contract terms and remedies in the case of breach of contract and the apparent necessity to merge consumer contract law i e such issues as product safety and liability warranties and consumer debt and insolvency with traditional core contract law concepts and and the importance to substantive contract law of the pre contractual phase in which information duties are becoming steadily more paramount The authors perspectives cover a wide range of jurisdictions including new EU Member States The book and s commitment to an integration of comparative law EC law and the debate on European codification offers practitioners and academics fertile ground for the development of a new model of contract law that is more than a common denominator of what has been in force so far This model may serve as a basis for Europe wide and perhaps even worldwide discussion Beweisrecht in Der Europäischen Union José Lebre de Freitas, 2004-01-01 This important book the fifth in the Civil Procedure in Europe series provides a comparative overview of 13 EU countries and Switzerland on the law of evidence Each country s practice in this area is described and analysed by a national expert distinguished in the field of civil procedural law The contributions are written in either English French or German and are followed by summaries in both remaining languages Bibliographies are included to enable the reader to locate material for further study A comparative contribution by the editor Professor Jose Lebre de Freitas analyses the similarities and differences between the various European systems Furthermore the editor discusses attempts to harmonise the law of evidence in Europe and provides concrete suggestions for a future harmonisation or unification of this area of law The countries covered are Austria Belgium Finland France Germany Greece Ireland Italy Luxembourg The Netherlands Portugal Spain Sweden and Switzerland Legal Language and the Search for Clarity Anne Wagner, Sophie Cacciaguidi-Fahy, 2006 This interdisciplinary collection with contributions in English and French explores how the various disciplines of law and linguistics appreciate and work towards improving the nature of clarity and obscurity in legal language For the first time it brings together legal academics and practitioners jurilinguists and linguists from the common law and civil law with the specific aim to understand the complex nature practice and tools of clarity and obscurity in legal drafting Topics addressed include how the Clarity framework has been put into practice through the use of plainer

Information Obligations and Disinformation of Consumers Gert Straetmans, 2019-09-05 This book focuses on recent developments in consumer law specifically addressing mandatory disclosures and the topical problem of information overload It provides a comparative analysis based on national reports from countries with common law and civil law traditions in Asia America and Europe and presents the reports in the form of chapters that have been drafted on the basis of a questionnaire and which use the same structure as the questionnaire to allow them to be easily compared The book starts with an analysis of the basic assumptions underlying the current consumer protection models and examines whether and how consumer models adapt to the new market conditions The second part addresses the information obligations themselves first highlighting the differences in the reported countries before narrowing the analysis down to countries with a general pre contractual information duty particularly the transparency requirements that often come with such a duty The next part examines recent developments in the law on food labelling commercial practices and unfair contract terms in order to identify whether similar traits can be found in European and non European jurisdictions The fourth part of the book focuses on specific information obligations in the financial services and e commerce sectors discussing the fact that legislators are experimenting with different forms of summary disclosures in these sectors The final part provides a critical appraisal of the recent developments in consumer information obligations addressing the question of whether the multiple criticisms from behavioural sciences necessitate abandonment or refinement of current consumer information models in favour of new more adequate forms of consumer protection and providing suggestions The Canada Gazette Canada, 1910 Acts Passed at the ... Collective Agreements and Individual Contracts of Employment Micha? Sewery?ski, 2003-01-01 While it can be said that the use of collective labour agreements has greatly expanded during the last decade it is hard to deny that their power to protect employees has diminished considerably and continues to weaken An understanding of the factors that have contributed to this fundamental change in economic and social conditions is of crucial significance if we are to preserve an equitable balance in the employer employee relationship The eleven papers reprinted here were originally presented at the 16th Congress of the International Academy of Comparative Law held in Brisbane in July 2002 Each paper is organized around the following considerations for the particular country in question factors determining the role of collective agreements factors determining the regulatory power of collective agreements toward the employment contract factors limiting the regulatory power of collective agreements degree of freedom of the parties to shape the employment contract and future prospects for collective agreements as a means of regulating the employment contract Underlying issues of decentralization minimum standards decreasing unionization unemployment and the growing individualization of the employment contract are addressed by all the authors The countries covered are Australia Belgium Canada Quebec Greece Italy Japan The Netherlands Poland South Africa and Switzerland ChemSUPPLIERSdirectory Friedrich W. explores the key players and objectives behind codification revealing that traditional notions of codification are far removed from reality Following the deconstruction of some universal truths about codifications this volume offers fresh insights into the behind the scenes of the lawmaking machinery and an empirically based definition of codification
