My Adventure: an Encounter with Life William Millard, 2020-03-10

Bill Millard is a commercial attorney with an international law firm in Dallas, Texas, and life could not be better. On top of his lucrative job, he is married with two wonderful children, lives in a nice neighborhood with great schools, and is a proud Texan. But his world comes crashing down as his health starts to decline. At first, it's not clear what is wrong, but then he is diagnosed with several near-fatal diseases, including amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), which is a progressive nervous system disease that causes a loss of muscle control. He loses his family, career, home, and health. After a period in a comatose state, he wakes up as a quadriplegic, suffering severe seizures. He is unable to eat, drink, swallow, speak, stand, breathe, or carry on life as he knew it. In this inspiring memoir, Millard reveals how he coped with his diagnosis and made a miraculous recovery, spending seven-plus years fighting for his life in long-term health care facilities, physical rehabilitation facilities, and other centers. Millard's story also offers a unique, first-hand patient's perspective as to what it is like to live in skilled and senior healthcare facilities today, containing many observations on what he thinks makes a better facility for patients and their families.

A. Nieveen,2023-02-08 The EPA came to numerous towns in the mining west armed with a computer program that they were certain was more accurate than any testing method for determining blood lead that was currently known to man The EPA accepted the computer output as near sacred while they mocked real life raw data This resulted in declaring a phony health hazard followed by the labeling of properties with the death kiss of Superfund

Complaints ensued with the most legitimate protests coming from innocent victims Congress had created this legal mutant but could not or would not fix it Meanwhile the courts were of little remedy since judges jumped from their lonely intellectual orientation onto the chummy buffoonery chessboard of Democrats and Republicans That platform that has lost its own moral up and down all the while the courts get to dissect laws so far beyond sunlight that the consideration of common sense is beyond the pale This is the story of several communities battle with an immoral misguided law Sherlock Holmes and the Adventure of the Grinning Cat Joseph W. Svec III, 2015-12-21 Time is running out When the Cheshire Cat the White Rabbit and The Mad Hatter turn up at 221 B Baker Street to enlist the help of Sherlock Holmes in locating Alice who is missing from Wonderland and Lewis Carroll himself who is also nowhere to be found there begins an adventure more stranger and curious than anything Sherlock has ever encountered A Unicorn the Jabberwocky the time traveling author H G Wells trips to Wonderland and beyond and even a journey outside of time itself where awaits the ultimate enigma of logic all are a part of this incredible tale Europe, America, and Technology: Philosophical Perspectives P.T. Durbin, 2012-12-06 As Europe moves toward 1992 and full economic unity and as Eastern Europe tries to find its way in the new economic order the United States hesitates Will the new European economic order be good for the U S or not Such a question is exacerbated by world wide changes in the technological order most evident in Japan s new techno economic power As might be expected philosophers have been slow to come to grips with such issues and lack of interest is compounded by different philosophical styles in different parts of the world What this volume addresses is more a matter of conflicting styles than a substantive confrontation with the real world issues But there is some attempt to be concrete The symposium on Ivan Illich with contributions from philosophers and social critics at the Pennsylvania State University where Illich has taught for several years may suggest the old cliché of Old World vs New World Illich s fulminations against technology are often dismissed by Americans as old world style prophecy while Illich seems largely unknown in his native Europe But Albert Borgmann born in Germany though now settled in the U S shows that this old dichotomy is difficult to maintain in our technological world Borgmann s focus is on urgent technological problems that have become almost painfully evident in both Europe and America Words on Cassette, 2002 R R Bowker Publishing, 2002 All Strangers Are Kin Zora O'Neill, 2016-06-14 An American woman determined to learn the Arabic language travels to the Middle East to pursue her dream in this witty memoir Us Weekly The shadda is the key difference between a pigeon hamam and a bathroom hammam Be careful our professor advised that you don t ask a waiter Excuse me where is the pigeon or conversely order a roasted toilet If you ve ever studied a foreign language you know what happens when you first truly and clearly communicate with another person As Zora O'Neill recalls you feel like a magician If that foreign language is Arabic you just might feel like a wizard They say that Arabic takes seven years to learn and a lifetime to master O'Neill had put in her time Steeped in grammar tomes and outdated textbooks she faced an increasing certainty that she was not only failing to master Arabic but also driving herself crazy She took a decade long hiatus but couldn't shake her fascination with the language or the cultures it had opened up to her So she decided to jump back in this time with a new approach In this book she takes us along on her grand tour through the Middle East from Egypt to the United Arab Emirates to Lebanon and Morocco She's packed her dictionaries her unsinkable sense of humor and her talent for making fast friends of strangers From quiet bougainvillea lined streets to the lively buzz of crowded medinas from families homes to local hotspots she brings a part of the world thousands of miles away right to your door and reminds us that learning another tongue leaves you rich with so much more than words You will travel through countries and across centuries meeting professors and poets revolutionaries nomads and nerds A warm and hilarious book Annia Ciezadlo author of Day of Honey Her tale of her Year of Speaking Arabic Badly is a genial and revealing pleasure The Seattle Times
