Flashbacks Bennie Williams,2006-02-01 Williams recounts the story of her tortured youth with clarity Her childhood of physical and mental savagery left psychological scars that she is still learning to overcome Domestic Violence in Hollywood Film Diane L. Shoos,2017-12-19 This is the first book to critically examine Hollywood films that focus on male partner violence against women These films include Gaslight Sleeping with the Enemy What s Love Got to Do with It Dolores Claiborne Enough and Safe Haven Shaped by the contexts of postfeminism domestic abuse post awareness and familiar genre conventions these films engage in ideological gaslighting that reaffirms our preconceived ideas about men as abusers women as victims and the racial and class politics of domestic violence While the films purport to condemn abuse and empower abused women this study proposes that they tacitly reinforce the very attitudes that we believe we no longer tolerate Shoos argues that films like these limit not only popular understanding but also social and institutional interventions

Shattered Lives Camila Batmanghelidjh,2007-08-01 Shattered Lives bears witness to the lives of children who have experienced abuse and neglect and highlights the effects of early traumatic episodes Chapters take the form of letters to a child capturing their life experiences hugely impacted by sexual abuse parental substance misuse and loss leading to feelings of shame and worthlessness The Violence Project Jillian Peterson,James Densley,2021-09-07 An examination of the phenomenon of mass shootings in America and an urgent call to implement evidence based strategies to stop these tragedies Groundbreaking Rachel Louise Snyder bestselling author of No Visible Bruises Winner of the 2022 Minnesota Book Award Using data from the writers groundbreaking research on mass shooters including first person accounts from the perpetrators themselves The Violence Project charts new pathways to prevention and innovative ways to stop the social contagion of violence Frustrated by reactionary policy conversations that never seemed to convert into meaningful action special investigator and psychologist Jill Peterson and sociologist James Densley built the Violence Project the first comprehensive database of mass shooters Their goal was to establish the root causes of mass shootings and figure out how to stop them by examining hundreds of data points in the life histories of more than 170 mass shooters from their childhood and adolescence to their mental health and motives They ve also interviewed the living perpetrators of mass shootings and people who knew them shooting survivors victims families first responders and leading experts to gain a comprehensive firsthand understanding of the real stories behind them rather than the sensationalized media narratives that too often prevail For the first time instead of offering thoughts and prayers for the victims of these crimes Peterson and Densley share their data driven solutions for exactly what we must do at the individual level in our communities and as a country to put an end to these tragedies that have defined our modern era For the first time instead of offering thoughts and prayers for the victims of these crimes Peterson and Densley share their data driven solutions for exactly what we must do at the individual level in our communities and as a country to put an end to these tragedies that have defined our modern era Contemporary North
