AN old house crumbling half away all barnacled and lichen grown
Of saddest mellowest softest grey with a grand history of its own
Grand with the work and strife and tears of more than half a thousand years
Such delicate tender russet tones of colour on its gables slept
With streaks of gold betwixt the stones where wind sown flowers and mosses crept
Wild grasses waved in sun and shade o'er terrace slab and balustrade
Around the clustered chimneys clung the ivy's wreathed and braided threads
And dappled lights and shadows flung across the sombre browns and reds
Where'er the graver's hand had been it spread its tendrils bright and green
Far stretching branches shadowed deep the blazoned windows and broad eaves
And rocked the faithful rooks asleep and strewed the terraces with leaves
A broken dial marked the hours amid damp lawns and garden bowers
An old house silent sad forlorn yet proud and stately to the last
Of all its power and splendour shorn but rich with memories of the past
And pitying from its own decay the gilded piles of yesterday
Pitying the new race that passed by with slighting note of its grey walls
And entertaining tenderly the shades of dead knights in its halls
Whose blood that soaked these hallowed sods came down from Scandinavian gods
I saw it first in summer time The warm air hummed and buzzed with bees
Where now the pale green hop vines climb about the sere trunks of the trees
And waves of roses on the ground scented the tangled glades around
Some long fern plumes drooped there below the heaven above was still and blue
Just here between the gloom and glow a cedar and an aged yew
Parted their dusky arms to let the glory fall on Margaret
She leaned on that old balustrade her white dress tinged with golden air
Her small hands loosely clasped and laid amongst the moss and maidenhair
I watched her hearing as I stood a turtle cooing in the wood
Hearing a mavis far away piping his dreamy interludes
While gusts of soft wind sweet with hay swept through those garden solitudes
And thinking she was lovelier even than my young ideal love had been Tall with that subtle sensitive grace which made so plainly manifest
That she was born of noble race a cool hushed presence bringing rest
Of one who felt and understood the dignity of womanhood
Tall with a slow proud step and air with skin half marble and half milk
With twisted coils of raven hair blue tinged and fine and soft as silk
With haughty clear cut chin and cheek and broad brows exquisitely Greek
With still calm mouth whose dreamy smile possessed me like a haunting pain
So rare so sweet so free from guile with that slight accent of disdain
With level liquid tones that fell like chimings of a vesper bell
With large grave stag eyes soft yet keen with slumbering passion hazel brown

Long lashed and dark whose limpid sheen my thirsty spirit swallowed down O poor pale words wherewith to paint my queen
