Ghostly Demarcations Michael Sprinker,2020-05-05 With the publication of Specters of Marx in 1993 Jacques Derrida redeemed a longstanding pledge to confront Marx's texts directly and in detail His characteristically bravura presentation provided a provocative re-reading of the classics in the Western tradition and posed a series of challenges to Marxism In a timely intervention in one of today's most vital theoretical debates the contributors to Ghostly Demarcations respond to the distinctive program projected by Specters of Marx The volume features sympathetic meditations on the relationship between Marxism and deconstruction by Fredric Jameson Werner Hamacher Antonio Negri Warren Montag and Rastko Mcnik brief polemical reviews by Terry Eagleton and Pierre Macherey and sustained political critiques by Tom Lewis and Aijaz Ahmad The volume concludes with Derrida's reply to his critics in which he sharpens his views about the vexed relationship between Marxism and deconstruction

Ghost Criminology Michael Fiddler,Theo Kindynis,Travis Linnemann,2022-01-18 Bringing together prominent early contributions from this emergent perspective the volume traces the origins theory and methodology of a nascent ghost criminology From the powers of exorcism and erasure marshaled by state agents street level struggles over memorialization and memory to the lingering violence of crime scenes and the ghostly traces of outlaw artists Ghost Criminology is a book attuned to that which is well theorized in other disciplines the spectral hauntological apparitional Each of the writers assembled here shares as Mark Fisher 2017 put it a fascination for the outside that which lies beyond standard perception cognition and experience As such this collection uses cutting edge social and cultural theory to tangle with some of criminology's most stubborn revenants the politics of criminalization the commodification of crime and violence the haunting power of the image as well as the unheard and disregarded cries of the dead

Cryptomimesis Carla Jodey Castricano,2001 In the last thirty years the living dead the revenant the phantom and the crypt have appeared with increasing frequency in Jacques Derrida's writings and for the most part have gone unaddressed In Cryptomimesis Jodey Castricano examines the intersection between Derrida's writing and the Gothic to theorize what she calls Derrida's poetics of the crypt

The Living Age ,1857      The Fabulous Imagination

Lawrence D. Kritzman, 2009-08-22 More than three hundred years before the advent of psychoanalysis Michel de Montaigne 1533-1592 embarked on a remarkable quest to see and imagine the self from a variety of vantages He explored the significance of monsters nightmares and traumas the fear of impotence the fragility of gender and the anticipation of death For Montaigne imagination lies at the core of an internal universe influencing both the body and the mind The fabulous imagination can be curative enabling the mind to sustain itself in the face of hardship Tracing Montaigne's development of the Western concept of the self Lawrence D Kritzman begins with his study of the fragility of gender and its relationship to the peripatetic movement of a fabulous imagination He then follows with the essayist's examination of the act of mourning and the power of the imagination to overcome the fear of death and Montaigne's views on philosophy experience and the connection between self-portraiture ethics and oblivion An Impossible Inheritance Katie Kilroy-Marac, 2019-05-14

Weaving sound historical research with rich ethnographic insight An Impossible Inheritance tells the story of the emergence, disavowal and afterlife of a distinctive project in transcultural psychiatry initiated at the Fann Psychiatric Clinic in Dakar Senegal during the 1960s and 1970s Today's clinic remains haunted by its past and Katie Kilroy-Marac brilliantly examines the complex forms of memory work undertaken by its affiliates over a sixty-year period Through stories such as that of the ghost said to roam the clinic's halls the mysterious death of a young doctor sometimes attributed to witchcraft and the spirit possession ceremonies that may have taken place in Fann's courtyard Kilroy-Marac argues that memory work is always an act of the imagination and a moral practice with unexpected temporal affective and political dimensions By exploring how accounts about the Fann Psychiatric Clinic and its past speak to larger narratives of postcolonial and neoliberal transformation An Impossible Inheritance examines the complex relationship between memory history and power within the institution and beyond Difficult Mothers: Understanding and Overcoming Their Power Terri Apter, 2012-05-07

An essential work for readers seeking compassionate wise guidance about the powerful relationship between mothers and their sons and daughters Mother love is often seen as sacred but for many children the relationship is a painful struggle Using the newest research on human attachment and brain development Terri Apter an internationally acclaimed psychologist and writer unlocks the mysteries of this complicated bond She showcases the five different types of difficult mother the angry mother the controlling mother the narcissistic mother the envious mother and the emotionally neglectful mother and explains the patterns of behavior seen in each type Apter also explores the dilemma at the heart of a difficult relationship why a mother has such a powerful impact on us and why we continue to care about her responses long after we have outgrown our dependence She then shows how we can conduct an emotional audit on ourselves to overcome the power of the complex feelings a difficult mother inflicts In the end this book celebrates the great resilience of sons and daughters of difficult mothers as well as acknowledging their special challenges The Late Victorian Gothic Hilary Grimes, 2016-03-03

Examining the automatic writing of the spiritualist's ancient discursive technologies like the telegraph and the photograph

various genres and late nineteenth century mental science this book shows the failure of writers attempts to use technology as a way of translating the supernatural at the fin de si cle Hilary Grimes shows that both new technology and explorations into the ghostly aspects of the mind made agency problematic When notions of agency are suspended Grimes argues authorship itself becomes uncanny Grimes s study is distinct in both recognizing and crossing strict boundaries to suggest that Gothic literature itself resists categorization not only between literary periods but also between genres Treating a wide range of authors Henry James Rudyard Kipling Arthur Conan Doyle George Du Maurier Vernon Lee Mary Louisa Molesworth Sarah Grand and George Paston Grimes shows how fin de si cle works negotiate themes associated with the Victorian and Modernist periods such as psychical research mass marketing and new technologies With particular attention to texts that are not placed within the Gothic genre but which nevertheless conceal Gothic themes The Late Victorian Gothic demonstrates that the end of the nineteenth century produced a Gothicism specific to the period Creativity, Madness

and Civilisation Richard Pine,2021-04-16 What is creativity And what is madness How far can we interpret an artist s work through our knowledge of his or her mental state and how far can we infer a mental state from a work of art When does a work of art cease to be a personal statement by the artist and become a matter of public concern The contributions to this book attempt to answer some of these questions They come from a wide range of disciplines and experiences a practising psychiatrist a practising artist suffering from reactive depression and critics working in literature film music and the visual arts The essays include discussions of the myth of creativity the music of Robert Schumann the borders of sanity in the writing of Lawrence Durrell the insane truth of Virginia Woolf the meeting of doctor and patient in the poetry of Anne Sexton mood disorders in the fiction of David Foster Wallace love and madness in the poetry of Hafiz of Shiraz and the paintings of Adolf W lfl Central to this discussion of creativity madness and civilisation is the difficulty of establishing an appropriate and effective vocabulary and mindset between critics and clinical psychiatrists which would enable them to work together in understanding mental disturbance in creative artists Echoes in the Genome Dr. Nilesh Panchal,2024-10-31 Echoes in the

Hebrew Gothic Karen Grumberg, 2019-09-01 Makes a persuasive argument that gothic ideas play a vital role in how Hebrew writers have confronted history culture and politics Robert Alter author of Hebrew and Modernity Sinister tales written since the early twentieth century by the foremost Hebrew authors including S Y Agnon Leah Goldberg and Amos Oz reveal a darkness at the foundation of Hebrew culture The ghosts of a murdered Talmud scholar and his kidnapped bride rise from their graves for a nocturnal dance of death a girl hidden by a count in a secret chamber of an Eastern European castle emerges to find that unbeknownst to her World War II ended years earlier a man recounts the act of incest that would shape a trajectory of personal and national history Reading these works together with central British and American gothic texts Karen Grumberg illustrates that modern Hebrew literature has regularly appropriated key gothic ideas to help conceptualize the Jewish relationship to the past and more broadly to time She explores why these authors were drawn to the gothic originally a European mode associated with antisemitism and how they use it to challenge assumptions about power and powerlessness vulnerability and violence and to shape modern Hebrew culture Grumberg provides an original perspective on Hebrew literary engagement with history and sheds new light on the tensions that continue to characterize contemporary Israeli cultural and political rhetoric

Subversive Property Sarah Keenan, 2014-08-13 This book explores the relationship between space subjectivity and property in order to invert conventional socio legal understandings of property Sarah Keenan demonstrates that new political possibilities for property may be unveiled by thinking about property in terms of space and belonging rather than exclusion Drawing on feminist and critical race theory this book shifts focus away from the propertied subject and on to the broader spaces in and through which the propertied subject is located Using case studies such as analyses of compulsory leases under Australia's Northern Territory Intervention and lesbian asylum cases from a range of jurisdictions Keenan argues that these spaces consist of networks of relations that revolve around belonging not just belonging between subject and object as property is traditionally understood but also the less explored relation of belonging between the part and the whole This book therefore offers a conceptually useful way of analysing a wide range of socio legal issues It will be of relevance to those working in the area of property and legal geography but also to those with more general interests in socio legal studies social and political theory postcolonial studies critical race studies and gender and sexuality studies
