Hopkins Re Constructed:

Re-Constructing the Global Network Economy Andrew Taylor, Adam Bronstone, 2022-10-07 This book looks at how to build more resilience into socio economic networks within local communities Understanding the relationships between attachment to place complex systems and patterns of knowledge creation is not straightforward but these relationships are emerging as the challenges that we face in bridging the gap between the social worlds that we inhabit and an emerging digital world These issues have been brought into even sharper focus through changes resulting from the COVID 19 pandemic On the one hand forced familiarity with communication technologies is driving globalisation forwards whilst on the other the crisis has created awareness of dependencies and heightened desires for more local solutions Plenty of books have been written about the rise of digital networks and the decline of local communities This book takes a radical approach by identifying how these trends fit together and provides examples of how digital networks can be made to work for the local as well as the global economy Using a case study approach the book offers a clear sighted view of the role of relational capital in specific places and organisations and shows the transformational impact that they can have at a micro level The book deliberately seeks to shake up preconceived ideas and is ideal for strategy practitioners and policy makers within governments and NGOs involved in connecting local to wider network economies The Victorian Diary Anne-Marie Millim, 2016-02-17 In her examination of neglected diaristic texts Anne Marie Millim expands the field of Victorian diary criticism by complicating the conventional notion of diaries as mainly private sources of biographical information She argues that for Elizabeth Rigby Eastlake Henry Crabb Robinson George Eliot George Gissing John Ruskin Edith Simcox and Gerard Manley Hopkins the exposure or publication of their diaries was a real possibility that they either coveted or feared Millim locates the diary at the intersection of the public and private spheres to show that well known writers and public figures of both sexes exploited the diary's self reflexive diurnal structure in order to enhance their creativity and establish themselves as authors Their object was to manage rather than to indulge or repress their emotions for the purposes of perfecting their observational and critical skills Reading these diaries as literary works in their own right Millim analyses their crucial role in the construction of authorship By relating these Victorian writers diaries to their publications and to contemporary works of cultural criticism Millim shows the multifarious ways in which diaristic practices emotional management and professional output corresponded to experiences of the literary marketplace and to nineteenth century codes of propriety Victorian Keats J. Najarian, 2002-09-24 This book explores the sexual implications of reading Keats Keats was lambasted by critics throughout the nineteenth century for his sensuousness and his effeminacy The Victorians simultaneously identified with imitated and distrusted the unmanly poet Writers among them Alfred Lord Tennyson Matthew Arnold Gerard Manley Hopkins John Addington Symonds Walter Pater and Wilfred Owen came to terms with Keats's work by creating out of the effeminate poet a sexual and literary ally The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2008-11-28 A Who's

Who of Western culture from Woody Allen to Emile Zola Containing four hundred essay style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture includes artists writers dramatists architects philosophers anthropologists scientists sociologists major political figures composers film makers and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley with John Ruskin is Salman Rushdie alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola Deng Xiaoping rubs shoulders with Jacques Derrida as do Julia Kristeva and Kropotkin With its global reach The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world The entries carry short bibliographies and there is thorough cross referencing as well as an index of names and key terms
