From Water To Worldmaking:

From Water to World-making Gísli Pálsson, 1990 The United Nations World Water Development Report UNESCO World Water Assessment Programme, 2021-03-22 Water is a finite and non substitutable resource As the foundation of life societies and economies it carries multiple values and benefits But unlike most other natural resources it has proven extremely difficult to determine its true value The 2021 edition of the United Nations World Water Development Report titled Valuing Water assesses the current status of and challenges to the valuation of water across different sectors and perspectives and identifies ways in which valuation can be promoted as a tool to help improve its management and achieve global sustainable development Familiar Talks on Science: World-Building and Life; Earth, Air and Water. Elisha Gray, 2021-12-02 World Water Actions Francois Guerquin, 2010-09-23 This text is divided into three parts Part I focuses on the need for management to assess the challenges of water scarcity and plan changes based on proper valuation and financial instruments international co operation and efficient use Part II analyses the problems of water scarcity and the available solutions in each main sector water supply and sanitation energy health agriculture ecosystems and biodiversity Part III assesses the state of the debate following the third World Water Forum and sets out the priorities for action including increased investment institutional reform and capacity building in the water sector Downloadable resources with extensive case studies and statistical data accompanies this text Ways of Worldmaking Nelson Goodman, 1978-01-01 Provides a workable notion of the kinds of skills and capacities that are central for those who work in the arts Design Unbound: Designing for Emergence in a White Water World, Volume 2 Ann M. Pendleton-Jullian, John Seely Brown, 2018-12-04 Tools for navigating today's hyper connected rapidly changing and radically contingent white water world Design Unbound presents a new tool set for having agency in the twenty first century in what the authors characterize as a white water world rapidly changing hyperconnected and radically contingent These are the tools of a new kind of practice that is the offspring of complexity science which gives us a new lens through which to view the world as entangled and emerging and architecture which is about designing contexts In such a practice design unbound from its material thingness is set free to design contexts as complex systems In a world where causality is systemic entangled in flux and often elusive we cannot design for absolute outcomes Instead we need to design for emergence Design Unbound not only makes this case through theory but also presents a set of tools to do so With case studies that range from a new kind of university to organizational and even societal transformation Design Unbound draws from a vast array of domains architecture science and technology philosophy cinema music literature and poetry even the military It is presented in five books bound as two volumes Different books within the larger system of books will resonate with different reading audiences from architects to people reconceiving higher education to the public policy or defense and intelligence communities The authors provide different entry points allowing readers to navigate their own pathways through the system of books A World of Water P.

Boomgaard,2007-01-01 Water in its many guises has always played a powerful role in shaping Southeast Asian histories cultures societies and economies This volume the rewritten results of an international workshop with participants from eight countries contains thirteen essays representing a broad range of approaches to the study of Southeast Asia with water as the central theme As it was exposed to the sea the region was more accessible to outside political economic and cultural influences than many landlocked areas Easy access through sea routes also stimulated trade from an early age However the same easy access made Southeast Asia vulnerable to political control by strong outsiders The sea is moreover a source of food but also of many hazards At the same time Southeast Asian societies and cultures are confronted with and permeated by water from heaven in the form of rain flash floods irrigation water water in rivers brooks and swamps water driven power plants and pumped or piped water in addition to water as a carrier of sewage and pollution Finally the volume deals with the role of water in classification systems beliefs myths illness and healing World Making Samuel Phelps Leland,1901

World-Making Stories M. Eleanor Nevins,2017-08 Published through the Recovering Languages and Literacies of the Americas initiative supported by the Andrew W Mellon Foundation World Making Stories is a collection of Maidu creation stories that will help readers appreciate California's rich cultural tapestry At the beginning of the twentieth century renowned storyteller Hancy Jim Tom Young performed Maidu and Atsugewi stories for anthropologist Ronald B Dixon who published these stories in 1912 The resulting Maidu Texts presented the stories in numbered block texts that while serving as a source of linguistic decoding also reflect the state of anthropological linguistics of the era by not conveying a sense of rhetorical or poetic composition Sixty years later noted linguist William Shipley engaged the texts as oral literature and composed a free verse literary translation which he paired with the artwork of Daniel Stolpe and published in a limited edition four volume set that circulated primarily to libraries and private collectors Here M Eleanor Nevins and the Wejebis Keep Speaking Jamani Maidu Language Revitalization Project team illuminate these important tales in a new way by restoring Maidu elements omitted by William Shipley and by bending the translation to more closely correspond in poetic form to the Maidu original The beautifully told stories by Hancyjim are accompanied by Stolpe's intricate illustrations and by personal and pedagogical essays from scholars and Maidu leaders working to revitalize the language The resulting World Making Stories is a necessity for language revitalization programs and an excellent model of indigenous community university collaboration

Conflict, Heritage and World-Making in the Chaco Esther Breithoff, 2020-08-06 Conflict Heritage and World Making in the Chaco documents and interprets the physical remains and afterlives of the Chaco War 1932-35 known as South America's first modern armed conflict in what is now present day Paraguay It focuses not only on archaeological remains as conventionally understood but takes an ontological approach to heterogeneous assemblages of objects texts practices and landscapes shaped by industrial war and people's past and present engagements with them These assemblages could be understood to constitute a dark heritage the debris of a failed modernity Yet it is clear that they are not simply dead memorials to this bloody war but have been and continue to be active in making unmaking and remaking worlds both for the participants and spectators of the war itself as well as those who continue to occupy and live amongst the vast accretions of war material which persist in the present

Affective World-Making Simi Malhotra, Sakshi Dogra, Jubi C. John, 2023-12-05 This volume fosters a re-imagining of the planet where it is seen not only as a resource but also as an entity that must not be excluded from the political imperative of care and kinship The authors go beyond the normative understanding of space by recognizing the potency of touch where they look at somatic experiences that invite the intensity of affect This book questions the dominance of the capitalocene through the existence of social aesthetic and records the affective encounters that facilitate the creation of planetary identity affinity and entanglements With discussions on architecture poetry rap music romantic literature performance art digital fashion Instagram Netflix shows YouTube videos moving image practices eco sexual movements and graphic narratives the chapters in this volume initiate a conversation on what it means to inhabit the world today An important contribution this book will be of interest to students and researchers of environmental humanities planetary humanities affect studies digital humanities and media studies besides also being of interest to those studying interdisciplinary critical cultural theory Television and film studies philosophy and architectural theory
