A. Gowel, 2013-12 A Hollywood California resident a low keyed yet aristocratic man was cherry picking high profile private investigations as he followed in his grandfather's footsteps. With the passing of his not so famous parents he inherited a great deal of money which made his driven ambition to obtain greatness in the world as a private eye only an egotistical goal as opposed to one of any financial return. As it turned out the twisted hand of fate dealt the celebrated Thin Man third generation offspring a fatal financial blow. From the glitz and glamour of Hollywood to the blue collar life in Detroit, The Son of a Son of the Thin Man, Nicholas Charles III made the transition from millionaire to barkeep. Left with only a small checking account, his health plus a dilapidated beer garden in Detroit, Michigan, Nick made his way to the Motor City to start life anew. Up against the likes of Detroit's notorious Purple Gang, revitalized after over eighty years, Nick teamed up with a hodgepodge group of amateur sleuths to battle the guerilla tactics of his nemesis but who is he or she or they? In the process Nick allies himself with ghosts, hookers, detectives, murderers, accountants, a lawyer, a few common folk and several dirty filthy stinking two legged rats to uncover an abominable terrorist attack on America's youth. As one murder after another is committed, the Spirit of Detroit, a Detroit Icon for over 50 years, almost gives up hope on Detroit. The Spirit is put to the task of guiding the city back to prosperity by a second grade inner city school student named Anna. Her ideals combined with a spattering of urban renewal entrepreneurs inspire the Spirit of Detroit to take his place back as Detroit's guardian with a renewed vigor for another 50 years.

Swipe Right for Murder Derek Milman, 2019-08-06 An epic case of mistaken identity puts a teen looking for a hookup on the run from both the FBI and a murderous cult in this compulsively readable thriller. EndFragment Finding himself alone in a posh New York City hotel room for the night, Aidan does what any red blooded seventeen year old would do: tries to hook up with someone new. But that lapse in judgement leads him to a room with a dead guy and a mysterious flash drive, two things that spark an epic case of mistaken identity that puts Aidan on the run from the authorities, his friends, his family, the people who are out to kill him, and especially from his own troubled past. Inspired by a Hitchcock classic, this whirlwind mistaken identity caper has razor sharp humor, devastating emotional stakes, and a thrilling storyline with an explosive conclusion to make this the most compelling YA novel of the year.

Dressed Up 4 Murder J.C. Eaton, 2020-02-25 A Mystery Tribune's Best Books of the Month. Last one standing is the winner. The holiday season has arrived and bookkeeper amateur sleuth Sophie Phee Kimball would love nothing more than to enjoy the comforts of her new home with her detective boyfriend near Arizona's Sun City West. Instead, her mother Harriet wants to showcase her chiweenie chihuahua dachshund Streetman in the Precious Pooches Holiday Extravaganza costume events. The festivities begin in October and end on St. Patrick's Day with the winner starring in the St. Pat's Day parade. But things quickly turn an awful shade of green when Streetman uncovers a dead body under a tarp covered grill in the neighbor's yard. The victim is Cameron Tully, a seafood distributor working out of Phoenix who died from ingesting a toxic sago palm leaf. Before the police can even find a motive and suspect another Precious Pooch owner nearly dies from the same poison. With Harriet believing someone's targeting her and Streetman because of the costume contests, Phee will need a potful of Irish luck to sniff out a killer. Praise for the Sophie Kimball Mysteries: An eclectic cast of entertaining characters that will keep you wondering whodunit.
