Hong Kong; an Impossible Journey Through History Trea Wiltshire, 1971 Hong Kong an Impossible Journey Through History Trea Wiltshire, 1977 Hong Kong and British culture, 1945-97 Mark Hampton, 2015-11-01 This book examines the British cultural engagement with Hong Kong in the second half of the twentieth century It shows how the territory fit unusually within Britain's decolonisation narratives and served as an occasional foil for examining Britain's own culture during a period of perceived stagnation and decline Drawing on a wide range of archival and published primary sources Hong Kong and British culture 1945-97 investigates such themes as Hong Kong as a site of unrestrained capitalism modernisation and good government as well as an arena of male social and sexual opportunity It also examines the ways in which Hong Kong Chinese embraced British culture and the competing predictions that British observers made concerning the colony's return to Chinese sovereignty An epilogue considers the enduring legacy of British colonialism This book will be essential reading for historians of Hong Kong British decolonisation and Britain's culture of declinism Hong Kong Tzong-Biau Lin, Lily Xiao Hong Lee, Udo Ernst Simonis, 2017-09-29 This title was first published in 1979 Hong Kong's successful transformation from traditional entrepot economy into a major industrial city state and an important financial centre in the Far East has often been acclaimed as one of the economic miracles in the history of the modern world Within the thirty years the per capita income has increased about 13 times reaching nearly US 3 000 in 1978 and ranked third in the entire Far East region second only to Japan and Singapore while Hong Kong's total exports multiplied 11 times ranking 20th in the whole world in A collection of essays exploring the economic growth and structural change including features of the Chinese family population and housing problems a study of material gains and impact on life satisfaction Hong Kong's Journey to Reunification Sze Yuen Chung, 2001 Sze Yuen Chung is a veteran Hong Kong politician and an important figure in the development of Hong Kong over the past forty years He has played a significant role in Hong Kong's political economic educational and social development from its time as a British colony to its designation as a Special Administrative Region of China Indeed he is probably the only native son of Hong Kong who was closely and actively involved in the entire process of transferring Hong Kong's sovereignty back to China These memoirs record Chung's personal experiences in Hong Kong's political scene in the two decades between 1979 and 1999 and his role in the Sino British negotiations that led to the transition from British colonial rule to a position of autonomy under Chinese sovereignty Chung's reflections much of which are published here for the first time are a valuable source of information on this important period in the history of Hong Kong It will be of interest to all those who wish to know what actually happened during those pivotal years when the future course of Hong Kong was determined The Foundation of the Catholic Mission in Hong Kong, 1841-1894 Ha Keloong Louis, 2018-06-02 The Catholic Church is one of the few institutions that have survived since the inception of the British colony She has contributed much during its development As early as 1841 she set up a mission in Hong Kong She and her various religious orders and congregations engaged in charitable works for the poor and the elderly in the early days of Hong Kong greatly relieving the burden on the newly established colonial government Today apart from religious services the Catholic Church still plays an important role in providing Hong Kong with diversified and professional services in medical care education and social welfare Historical studies on the Catholic Church in Hong Kong of a comprehensive nature are rare in comparison with other religions The reasons of this may include the complicated organizational structure of the Catholic Church and the multiple languages used in the archival documents such as Latin French Italian and Portuguese As a Catholic clergy the author of this book Fr Louis Ha is knowledgeable about the internal operation of the Church He is also familiar with many European languages which help him master the original records and guarantee the credible result of his research The contents of this book are based on the large number of documents provided by the Hong Kong Diocesan Archives Office by archives in the Vatican and in various religious orders in Europe As an objective and impartial historian Fr Louis Ha honestly pointed out the power struggle in the Church the confrontation with the government the competition between Chinese and foreign clerics In fact a candid description of the Catholic Church in Hong Kong is shown in front of the readers Definitely it is a precious reference book for the study of the local society religion education and charitable work in early Hong Kong
