Hooligans Return A Memoir:

Hooligan's Return ,2005 The Hooligan's Return Norman Manea,2013-10-22 At the center of The Hooligan's Return is the author himself always an outcast on a bleak lifelong journey through Nazism and communism to exile in America But while Norman Manea's book is in many ways a memoir it is also a deeply imaginative work traversing time and place life and literature dream and reality past and present Autobiographical events merge with historic elements always connecting the individual with the collective destiny Manea speaks of the bloodiest time of the twentieth century and of the emergence afterward of a global competitive and sometimes cynical modern society Both a harrowing memoir and an ambitious epic project The Hooligan's Return achieves a subtle internal harmony as anxiety evolves into a delicate irony and a burlesque fantasy Beautifully written and brilliantly conceived this is the work of a writer with an acute understanding of the vast human potential for both evil and kindness obedience and integrity Local History, Transnational Memory in the Romanian Holocaust V. Glajar,J. Teodorescu,2011-04-25 This book explores the memory of the Romanian Holocaust in Romanian German Israeli and French cultural representations The essays in this volume discuss first hand testimonial accounts letters journals drawings literary texts and films by Elie Wiesel Paul Celan Aharon Appelfeld Norman Manea Radu Mihaileanu among others The Writer Uprooted Alvin H. Rosenfeld,2008-06-18 The Writer Uprooted is the first book to examine the emergence of a new generation of Jewish immigrant authors in America most of whom grew up in formerly communist countries In essays that are both personal and scholarly the contributors to this collection chronicle and clarify issues of personal and cultural dislocation and loss but also affirm the possibilities of reorientation and renewal Writers poets translators and critics such as Matei Calinescu Morris Dickstein Henryk Grynberg Geoffrey Hartman Eva Hoffman Katarzyna Jerzak Dov Ber Kerler Norman Manea Zsuzsanna Ozsvath Lara Vapnyar and Bronislava Volkova describe how they have coped creatively with the trials of displacement and the challenges and opportunities of resettlement in a new land and for some authorship in a new language Discourses on Nations and Identities Daniel Syrov,2021-01-18 The third volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes contributions that focus on the interplay between concepts of nation national languages and individual as well as collective identities Because all literary communication happens within different kinds of power structures linguistic economic political it often results in fascinating forms of hybridity In the first of four thematic chapters the papers investigate some of the ways in which discourses can establish modes of thinking or how discourses are in turn controlled by active linguistic interventions whether in the context of the patriarchy war colonialism or political factions The second thematic block is predominantly concerned with hybridity as an aspect of modern cultural identity and the cultural and linguistic dimensions of domestic life and in society at large Closely related a third series of papers focuses on writers and texts analysed from the vantage points of exile and exophony as well as theoretical contributions to issues of terminology and what it means to talk about transcultural phenomena Finally a group of papers sheds light on more overtly violent power structures mechanisms of exclusion Totalitarianism torture and censorship but also resistance to these forms of oppression In addition to these chapters the volume also collects a number of thematically related group sections from the ICLA congress preserving their original context

European Writers in Exile Robert C. Hauhart, Jeff Birkenstein, 2018-10-26 European Writers in Exile collects a series of original essays that address the writers universal existential dilemma when viewed through the lens of exile who am I where am I from and what do I write and to whom While we often understand the term exile to refer to writers who have either been forced to leave their home country or region or chosen self exile this term need not be defined so narrowly and the contributors to this volume explore a range of interesting and evolving definitions Various countries in Europe have long been both a refuge for people and writers from many countries and a strife torn region which has forced many to flee within the continent or beyond it The phrase in exile involves writers moving across borders in multiple directions and for multiple reasons including for reasons of duress or personal quest and these themes are addressed and critiqued in these essays This volume naturally examines the cataclysmic and near universal exilic experiences relating to the world wars including essays on Thomas Mann Vladimir Nabokov Hannah Arendt and Leo Strauss Additionally essays address the unique early twentieth century experiences of Emile Zola Franz Kafka Joseph Conrad and James Joyce More contemporary essay subjects include Milan Kundera Norman Manea Eva Hoffman Caryl Phillips and W G Sebald This collection of transnational globalized European literature studies envisions understanding the intersection of our contemporary world and various writers in exile in new cultural historical spatial and epistemological frameworks How does literary production in an increasingly globalized world when seen from exile affect a view back towards a country or region left behind Or conversely how does exile push a writer to look outward to new trans nationalized space s These and other questions are important to investigate Taken in sum European Writers in Exile offers an academically rigorous important and cohesive volume

The Future of Memory Richard Crownshaw, Jane Kilby, Antony Rowland, 2010-11-01 Memory studies has become a rapidly growing area of scholarly as well as public interest This volume brings together world experts to explore the current critical trends in this new academic field It embraces work on diverse but interconnected phenomena such as twenty first century museums shocking memorials in present day Rwanda and the firsthand testimony of the victims of genocidal conflicts The collection engages with pressing real world issues such as the furor around the recent 9 11 memorial and what we really mean when we talk about trauma

Understanding Multiculturalism Johannes Feichtinger, Gary B. Cohen, 2014-03-01 Multiculturalism has long been linked to calls for tolerance of cultural diversity but today many observers are subjecting the concept to close scrutiny After the political upheavals of 1968 the commitment to multiculturalism was perceived as a liberal manifesto but in the post 9 11 era it is under attack for its relativizing particularist and essentializing implications The essays in this collection offer a nuanced analysis of the multifaceted cultural experience of Central Europe under the late Habsburg monarchy and beyond

The authors examine how culturally coded social spaces can be described and understood historically without adopting categories formerly employed to justify the definition and separation of groups into nations ethnicities or homogeneous cultures As we consider the issues of multiculturalism today this volume offers new approaches to understanding multiculturalism in Central Europe freed of the effects of politically exploited concepts of social spaces Romania Since 1989 Henry F. Carey, 2004-01-01 The most comprehensive study of Romanian politics ever published abroad this volume represents an effort to collect and analyze data on the complex problems of Romania's journey from sultanistic national communism to a yet unreached democratic government

Relational Designs in Literature and the Arts, 2012-01-01 This collection focuses on texts that address the other arts from painting to photography from the stage to the screen and from avant garde experiments to mass culture Despite their diversity of object and approach the essays in Relational Designs coalesce around the argument that representations are defined by relations and dynamics rather than intrinsic features This rationale is supported by the discourses and methodologies favoured by the book's contributors their approaches offer a cross section of the intellectual and critical environment of our time The book illustrates the critical possibilities that derive from the broad range of modes of inquiry poststructuralist criticism gender studies postcolonial studies new historicism that the book's four sections bring to bear on a wealth of intermedial practices But Relational Designs compounds such critical emphases with the voice of the practitioner the book is rounded off by an interview in which a contemporary novelist discusses her attraction to the other arts in terms that extend the book's insights and bridge the gap between academic discourse and artistic practice

Memorious Discourse Christian Moraru, 2005 While other types of discourse cover up gloss over or play down what they have borrowed and therefore owe the postmodern eagerly acknowledges its textual and cultural debt Moreover it turns this indebtedness into an unexpected source of creativity and originality In his wide ranging discussion of contemporary writers and theorists Moraru notes that postmodernism characteristically re presents That is it actively remembers and to use a musical term reprises former representations These need not be infinite in number as in Borges but must be and usually are retrieved with sufficient obviousness Jacket

Masculinities Ageing between Cultures Heike Hartung, Roberta Maierhofer, Christian Schmitt-Kilb, 2024-04-02 Global mobility is one of the crucial phenomena of our time Combining the theoretical frameworks of masculinity studies and age studies the contributors to this volume examine the intersection of cultural exchange gender and age exploring ageing masculinities with reference to the key concepts of relationality kinship and care The essays analyze transcultural experiences of ageing men from European relationships including the Indian diaspora in the US Chinese father images in the US American context and Black British queer kinship drawing its examples also from Brazilian society and African European contexts

Israel in Exile Ranen Omer-Sherman, 2010-10-01 Israel in Exile is a bold exploration of how the ancient desert of Exodus and Numbers as archetypal site of human liberation forms a template for modern political identities radical skepticism and questioning of official narratives of the nation that appear in the works of contemporary Israeli authors including David Grossman Shulamith Hareven and Amos Oz as well as diasporic writers such as Edmund Jab s and Simone Zelitch In contrast to other ethnic and national representations Jewish writers since antiquity have not constructed a neat antithesis between the desert and the city or nation rather the desert becomes a symbol against which the values of the city or nation can be tested measured and sometimes found wanting This book examines how the ethical tension between the clashing Mosaic and Davidic paradigms of the desert still reverberate in secular Jewish literature and produce fascinating literary rewards Omer Sherman ultimately argues that the ancient encounter with the desert acquires a renewed urgency in response to the crisis brought about by national identities and territorial conflicts

Imagining Home Anamaria Falaus, 2014-08-11 In an age of shifting social and political landscapes there is one constant challenge individuals and groups have to face that of internalizing the tension between the two opposing tendencies that rule the world today homogenization and heterogenization People transgress the limits of nationality ethnicity and culture in order to become citizens of the world while at the same time longing for stability and certainty Imagining Home Exilic Reconstructions in Norma Manea and Andrei Codrescu s Diasporic Narratives interprets the polymorphous development of two exiled writers identities from the point of view of their migrant condition Their restless nomadic existence perfectly reflected in the geographical territories mapped by the books under discussion involves crossing boundaries negotiating difference and the colonizing imposition of a foreign culture The outcome provides an insight into the concepts of Romanianness and Americanness analysing them through the notions of alo images and infra images while at the same time developing a context and a reading approach for Eastern European immigrant narratives

The Changing Role of the Public Intellectual Dolan Cummings, 2013-09-27 Ideas can define and transform society but how healthy is intellectual life today In a period when Big Brother refers not to George Orwell but to a reality TV show and when bright young things are developing gameshow formats rather than scribbling essays when thinkers join think tanks to design short term government policy rather than reflecting on and challenging the status quo and when the ever growing number of graduates seem more interested in job prospects than academic endeavour is intellectual life in terminal decline This book looks at the idea of the public intellectual considering whether such thinkers are becoming an endangered species It also looks at the legacy of relativism and ethical doubts about the pursuit of knowledge and the effect of such developments on intellectual life The final section considers the expansion of higher education and the changing role of the academic Taken together the essays in this collection form a comprehensive overview of the intellectual climate today and the possibilities for the future This volume was previously published as a special issue of the journal Critical Review of International Social and Political Philosophy
