Horns And Halos Towards The Blessing Of Darkness:

Horns and Halos Michael DeMaria,1992 This book explores the roots of human hatred which emerges from the soil of intimacy Michael DeMaria in the process of revealing traditional psychology's failure to articulate a meaningful understanding of human emotion and in particular hate moves towards an existential phenomenological description of hating in intimacy He fleshes out this description with a case study that shows the paralyzing effects of self hate Finally by pulling together findings in philosophy anthropology and feminism DeMaria opens the door to a new vision of human becoming and a psychology of good and evil
