Kennedy Square (1911) by Francis Hopkinson Smith (World's Classics) Francis Hopkinson Smith, 2016-01-31
Francis Hopkinson Smith October 23 1838 April 7 1915 was a United States author artist and engineer He built the foundation for the Statue of Liberty wrote many famous stories and received awards for his paintings Smith was born in Baltimore Maryland a descendant of Francis Hopkinson one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence He graduated from the Boys Latin School of Maryland Smith became a contractor in New York City and did much work for the federal government including the stone ice breaker at Bridgeport Connecticut the jetties at the mouth of the Connecticut River the foundation for the Bartholdi Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor the Race Rock Lighthouse southwest of Fishers Island New York and many life saving stations His vacations were spent sketching in the White Mountains in Cuba and in Mexico He also visited and sketched in Venice Constantinople and the Netherlands Baltimore Letitia Stockett, 1997-06-24 A charming and anecdotal account of Baltimore history as fresh today as it was when first published in 1928 A teacher of English and English History at the Friends School in Baltimore Letitia Stockett was inspired to write her whimsical history of the city when a friend told her that nothing much had been done in the way of a history of Baltimore since J Thomas Scharf's The Chronicles of Baltimore 1874 Rising to the challenge she spent all of her spare time on the book telling curious friends and family merely that she had work to do Baltimore A Not Too Serious History was the result a charming and anecdotal account of the city's history that is as fresh today as it was when first published in 1928 Would you know Baltimore Then put deliberately out of your mind the fact that the town makes more straw hats than any other city in the world Aesthetically speaking that is a fearsome thought Forget too that Baltimore is the centre of the oyster packing industry Worse far worse than a straw hat is a packed oyster Baltimoreans ought to know better In truth they do they export the tinned bivalve to the unsuspecting unsophisticated Westerner These two enterprises are worthy and profitable but a knowledge of these facts will not help you understand this city any more truly than the study of those long lists of products once diligently conned in school gave you an inkling of Tunis Singapore and Wilkes Barre from Baltimore A Not too Serious History Kennedy Square/Harvard Square Mixed Use Development, Final EIR. , 1981 Kennedy Square Francis Hopkinson Smith, 2017-12-05 Southern romance of a double estrangement between father and son and two lovers kennedy square f. hopkinson smith , 1911 Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith, Francis Walton, 1911 Shattered Spaces Michael Meng, 2011-11-29 After the Holocaust the empty silent spaces of bombed out synagogues cemeteries and Jewish districts were all that was left in many German and Polish cities with prewar histories rich in the sights and sounds of Jewish life What happened to this scarred landscape after the war and how have Germans Poles and Jews encountered these ruins over the past sixty years In the postwar period city officials swept away many sites despite protests from Jewish leaders But in the late 1970s church groups local residents political dissidents and tourists demanded the preservation of the few ruins still standing Since the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989 this desire to preserve and restore has grown stronger In one of the most striking and little studied shifts in postwar European history the traces of a long neglected Jewish past have gradually been recovered thanks to the rise of heritage tourism nostalgia for ruins international discussions about the Holocaust and a pervasive longing for cosmopolitanism in a globalizing world Examining this transformation from both sides of the Iron Curtain Michael Meng finds no divided memory along West East lines but rather a shared memory of tensions and paradoxes that crosses borders throughout Central Europe His narrative reveals the changing dynamics of the local and the transnational as Germans Poles Americans and Israelis confront a built environment that is inevitably altered with the passage of time Shattered Spaces exemplifies urban history at its best uncovering a surprising and moving postwar story of broad contemporary interest The Bookman ,1903
