Kenneth Burke And Contemporary European Thought Rhetoric In Transition:

Kenneth Burke and Contemporary European Thought Bernard L. Brock, 1995 Kenneth Burke and Contemporary European Thought reflects the present transitory nature of rhetoric and society Its purpose is to relate the rhetorical theory and critical approaches of American critic Kenneth Burke to four major European philosophers Jurgen Habermas Ernesto Grassi Michel Foucault and Jacques Derrida as they discuss the nature of language and its central role in society Supporting transitory forces in society all these thinkers reject traditional scientific objective reductionist thought and point to language or symbols as the basis for understanding experience and knowledge Burke Habermas and Grassi approach language by establishing global theories In contrast to these global approaches Foucault and Derrida attack language and the human situation microscopically Michel Foucault examines discursive practices to discover relationships among the concepts of rhetoric knowledge and power Derrida focuses on the methods of difference and deconstruction because he believes human beings are trapped by their own language which inherently carries multiple meanings that need to be unpacked or deconstructed

International Law and Ethics after the Critical Challenge Euan MacDonald, 2011-03-05 Around twenty years ago a challenge was laid down to international law by those writing at the critical periphery of the discipline a challenge that has yet to find satisfactory response Although often mistakenly characterised as nihilist this book seeks to recast it in positive terms to pose the question of what if anything is left of international law and ethics if we accept both that apolitical rules are impossible and that the values that must inevitably be used to justify them are irreducibly radically subjective After detailed analyses of different political and international legal philosophers who have confronted this issue the answer is located in a turn to literature and a rehabilitation of the ancient notion of rhetoric

Kenneth Burke and the 21st Century Bernard L. Brock, 1999-01-01 Kenneth Burke was an influential thinker literary critic and rhetorician in the transition between the 20th and 21st centuries This volume edited by an influential Burkean scholar addresses the question

Who was Burke and how can his work be helpful to those who must face new problems and challenges Contemporary Perspectives on Rhetoric Sonja K. Foss, Karen A. Foss, Robert Trapp, 2014-04-04 The anniversary edition marks thirty years of offering an indispensable review and analysis of thinkers who have exerted a profound influence on contemporary rhetorical theory I A Richards Ernesto Grassi Cha m Perelman and Lucie Olbrechts Tyteca Stephen Toulmin Richard Weaver Kenneth Burke J rgen Habermas bell hooks Jean Baudrillard and Michel Foucault The brief biographical sketches locate the theorists in time and place showing how life experiences influenced perspectives on rhetorical thought The concise explanations of complex concepts are clear engaging insightful and highly accessible serving as an excellent primer for reading the major works of these scholars The critical commentary is carefully chosen to highlight implications and to place the theories within a broader rhetorical context Each chapter ends with a complete bibliography of works by the theorists Kenneth Burke Laurence Coupe, 2013-05-16 KENNETH BURKE FROM MYTH TO ECOLOGY is the first full length study of a remarkable thinker s approach to those founding narratives those essential structures of thought which cannot be credited to any one individual but rather belong to the whole community Kenneth Burke on Myth Lawrence Coupe, 2013-10-18 Kenneth Burke rhetorician philosopher linguist sociologist literary and music critic crank was one of the foremost theorists of literary form He did not fit tidily into any philosophical school nor was he reducible to any simple set of principles or ideas He published widely and is probably best known for two of his classic works A Rhetoric of Motive and Philosophy of Literary Form His observations on myth however were never systematic and much of his writing on literary theory and other topics cannot be fully understood without fleshing out his thoughts on myth and mythmaking Rhetoric in the Twenty-First Century Nicholas J. Crowe, David A. Frank, 2016-04-26 This book arises from a symposium held in Oxford to consider the most fruitful trajectories of rhetoric in the 21st century The gathering comprised an international delegation of leading scholars convened to assess from an array of perspectives the various possible futures of the ancient discipline of rhetoric as it responds vitally to the evolving contexts of the new millennium This collection commemorates that event by extending its scrutiny into a number of specific fields of inquiry It includes a foreword by Prof James J Murphy an introductory article by the editors and six further articles commissioned from among the participants The introduction provides a detailed account of the symposium and foregrounds the delegates articles with a r sum of their arguments and consequent relevance to the overarching theme Each contribution is a freshly minted and original piece of scholarship true to the generative and interactive spirit of the enterprise and speaking pertinently to the field of international rhetoric studies at the present time Rhetoric in the Twenty First Century addresses a spectrum of concerns Scholars and students of rhetoric and language use will naturally find much of interest here and the inclusive ambit of the work will also appeal to students of ethics religion comparative literature intercultural studies and the growing field of communication studies Late Poems, 1968-1993 Kenneth Burke, 2005 Recognized as one of the most influential critics and rhetoricians of the twentieth century Kenneth

Burke 1897 1993 wrote poetry short stories and a novel in addition to more than a dozen books of critical theory The poetry from the last quarter century of his life has remained largely unpublished until now This collection of more than 150 poems provides new evidence that Burke continued dancing an attitude until the end of his life After the Fall Noemi Marin,2007 Noemi Marin analyzes famous writers from the area as critical intellectuals and exiles in order to explore the role of rhetoric and identity in writers own experiences during the long history of communism Along with examinations of discursive relationships among power culture and resistance in works by George Konrad Andrei Codrescu and Siavenka Drakulic before and after the fall of communism Marin proposes specific dimensions for a rhetoric of exile pertinent to communist Eastern and Central Europe After the Fall shows how critical works on identity culture and communist history by the writers studied aid in reconstituting a rhetoric of dissidence identity and legitimation in the public discourse of a changing Europe The book offers a unique perspective on the complex contexts of political transition in which competing public discourse on freedom and democracy intersect with totalitarian regimes unsettled societies and issues of resistance Rhetoric and Scripture Thomas H. Olbricht,2021-03-31 This book offers a unique overview of the development of rhetorical criticism both in North America and internationally through the work of pioneering New Testament scholar Thomas H Olbricht Lauri Thur n has gathered nineteen of Olbricht s essays as a guidebook to rhetorical criticism for students clergy and scholars The range of essays from throughout Olbricht s career illuminate the history of rhetorical criticism and reflect the different motivations of ancient and contemporary rhetorical approaches Essays focus on the history of biblical rhetorical analysis the rhetorical analysis of biblical texts the characteristics of rhetorical analysis and types of biblical rhetorical criticism A foreword by Thur n and a memorial essay by Carl R Holladay contextualize Olbricht s work Anyone interested in the rhetorical study of the New Testament will find this volume inspiring and informative The Cambridge Companion to Foucault Gary Gutting,2005-07-18 For Michel Foucault philosophy was a way of questioning the allegedly necessary truths that underpin the practices and institutions of modern society He carried this out in a series of deeply original and strikingly controversial studies on the origins of modern medical and social scientific disciplines These studies have raised fundamental questions about the nature of human knowledge and its relation to power structures and have become major topics of discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences The essays in this volume provide a comprehensive overview of Foucault s major themes and texts from his early work on madness through his history of sexuality Special attention is also paid to thinkers and movements from Kant through current feminist theory that are particularly important for understanding his work and its impact This revised edition contains five new essays and revisions of many others and the extensive bibliography has been updated Rhetorical Theory Timothy Borchers,Heather Hundley,2018-03-30 From the moment we begin to understand the meanings of words and symbols we have used rhetoric It is how we determine perceptions of who we are those around us and the social structure in which we operate Rhetorical Theory Second Edition introduces a broad selection of classical and contemporary theoretical approaches to understanding and using rhetoric Historical context reveals why rhetorical theories were created while present day examples demonstrate how they relate to the world in which we live Borchers and Hundley present conceptual topics in a succinct and approachable manner The text is organized topically rather than chronologically so similarities and differences are easily detected in central ideas Each chapter is enhanced by the inclusion of theorist biographies applications of theory to practice and Internet exercises The Second Edition expands coverage on mediated rhetoric feminist rhetoric alternative rhetorical theories including Afrocentricity and intersectionality cultural and critical rhetoric and postmodern implications of rhetoric Jean Baudrillard Brian Gogan, 2017-11 This work is the first book length treatment of Jean Baudrillard as a rhetorical theorist Race and Reconciliation John B. Hatch, 2009-12-01 Hatch develops a robust rhetorical theory of reconciliation and applies it to contemporary national and global efforts to redress the racialized wounds and injustices created by slavery What emerges from this work is a profound vision for the prospects of meaningful reparation forgiveness and reconciliation in American race relations Theories of Human Communication Stephen W. Littlejohn, Karen A. Foss, 2010-11-04 For almost four decades Theories of Human Communication has offered readers an engaging and informative guide to the rich array of theories that influence our understanding of communication The first edition broke new ground with its comprehensive discussion of theorizing by communication scholars Since that time the field has expanded tremendously from a small cluster of explanations and relatively unconnected theories to a huge body of work from numerous traditions or communities of scholarship The tenth edition covers both classic and recent theories created by communication scholars and informed by scholars in other fields Littlejohn and Foss organize communication theory around two intersecting elements contexts and theoretical traditions and emphasize the connections trajectories and relationships among the theories They provide clear accessible explanations that synthesize without oversimplifying Their extensive use of examples presents theorizing as a natural process and invites readers to reflect on their own experiences and to become active participants in continuing the conversation In addition to the authors lucid explanations of theories the text includes From the Source boxes in which the theorists share their perspectives on communication The extensive bibliography almost 1 200 entries and chapter citations are invaluable resources for more in depth study Kenneth Burke and the 21st Century Bernard L. Brock, 1998-11-05 This book contributes to the ongoing debate over the future of rhetorical theory and criticism by presenting the stands taken by a variety of prominent Burkean scholars on the following issues the nature of the Burkean system Burke and feminism Burke and postmodernism and multiculturalism and the nature of symbolic action It demonstrates that Kenneth Burke anticipated many of the issues rhetorical theorists and critics face as they enter the 21st century The Future of Invention John Muckelbauer, 2009-01-01 The Future of Invention links classical rhetorical practices of invention with the philosophical work of Gilles Deleuze and Jacques Derrida and proposes that some of the most crucial implications of postmodern theory have gone largely unattended Drawing on such classical rhetorical concepts as doxa imitation kairos and topos and engaging key works by Aristotle Plato the Sophists and others John Muckelbauer demonstrates how rhetorical invention can offer a nondialectical affirmative sense of change that invites us to rethink the ways in which we read write and respond to others
