Grand Designs Aneta Podkalicka,Esther Milne,Jenny Kennedy,2018-11-28 This is the first academic book to examine the long running hit series Grand Designs which occupies a significant place in the popular imagination internationally The authors apply an empirically grounded critical perspective to the study of television to reveal how people use the program in their everyday lives The emphasis on everyday uses and meanings combines creatively with understanding the program theoretically textually and in terms of its production structures This position challenges framings of the popular lifestyle and factual television genre that has been dominated by a neoliberal or governmentality perspective for many years Presented by British designer and writer Kevin McCloud Grand Designs follows the progress of home owners as they embark on design renovation and building projects at almost always dizzying scales of endeavour Understanding the program as both a text to analyse and a site of material impact the book draws on interviews with production members home renovators building practitioners and audiences as well as references to associated media formats to provide contextual depth to the analysis The authors argue that as a cultural object the program is both shaped by and enacts social discourses of home making design value and taste Navigating public commercial and promotional logics Grand Designs sparks new forms of cultural production and consumer markets      Step-By-Step Paint Techniques and Faux Finishes Louise Hennigs,Marina Niven,2003      Design at Home Grace Lees Maffei,2013-12-17 Domestic advice literature is rich in information about design ideals of domesticity consumption and issues of identity yet this literature remains a relatively neglected resource in comparison with magazines and film Design at Home brings together etiquette homemaking and home decoration advice as sources in the first systematic demonstration of the historical value of domestic advice literature as a genre of word and image and a discourse of dominance This book traces a transatlantic domestic dialogue between the UK and the US as the chapters explore issues of design domesticity consumption social interaction and identity markers including class gender and age Areas covered include the use of domestic advice by historians relationships between advice housing and the middle class links between advice and gender advice and the teenage consumer Design at Home is essential reading for students and scholars of cultural and social history design history and cultural studies The Complete Book of Paint Techniques Penny Swift,1994 Written and designed as a comprehensive reference book for home decorators who seek both visual inspiration and sound practical guidance Old House Interiors ,2005-12 National architectural magazine now in its fifteenth year covering period inspired design 1700 1950 Commissioned photographs show real homes inspired by the past but livable Historical and interpretive rooms are included new construction additions and new kitchens and baths take their place along with restoration work A feature on furniture appears in every issue Product coverage is extensive Experts offer advice for homeowners and designers on finishing decorating and furnishing period homes of every era A garden feature essays archival material events and exhibitions and book reviews round out the editorial Many readers claim the beautiful advertising all of it design related no lifestyle ads is as important to them as the articles Outdoor Paint Techniques and Faux Finishes Marina Niven,Louise Hennigs,2002 A practical guide to weatherproof paint effects including stucco treatment faux tiles limewashing verdigris and moss effects The effects are arranged by project for walls floors windows planters and are in step by step format with photographic instructions for ease of reference Both challenging techniques and basic skills are covered but the reader is left to create the required result or take the inspiration into their own direction Homemade Carol Endler Sterbenz,2011-10-18 Outlines key techniques for everything from scrapbooking and beading to flower arrangements and children s crafts providing step by step illustrated instructions and lists of required tools and materials Old House Interiors ,2005-12 National architectural magazine now in its fifteenth year covering period inspired design 1700 1950 Commissioned photographs show real homes inspired by the past but livable Historical and interpretive rooms are included new construction additions and new kitchens and baths take their place along with restoration work A feature on furniture appears in every issue Product coverage is extensive Experts offer advice for homeowners and designers on finishing decorating and furnishing period homes of every era A garden feature essays archival material events and exhibitions and book reviews round out the editorial Many readers claim the beautiful advertising all of it design related no lifestyle ads is as important to them as the articles Faux Chic Carol Endler Sterbenz,2004 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1998 Ultimate Bicycle Book Richard Ballantine,Richard Grant,1998 Outlines the
