The range of authors brought together here offers a cross section of post Yugoslav theory comprising both young scholars in the early stages of their academic careers and more senior established thinkers educated both in the region and abroad and coming from a variety of academic backgrounds including art theory gender theory cultural studies and theory sociology anthropology theatre studies musicology political theory and literary theory among others The schools of thought they address elaborate on critique and apply in their texts are similarly varied from French post structuralist theory and philosophy via German critical and postmodern theory to a number of other topics and authors in contemporary European theory and philosophy The book will be of interest to students and scholars of art and media theory philosophy sociology and cultural studies and their reception interpretation application and elaboration in the region of former Yugoslavia ENGLISH LITERATURE ADVANCING THROUGH HISTORY 1 - Old English (Anglo-Saxon) and Medieval Periods Petru Golban, 2020-11-24 It appears that literary work possesses eternal temporal validity due to its autonomous aesthetic value whereas criticism provides points of view having temporary and transitory significance Despite such claims the vector of methodology in our series of books dealing with the history of English literature relies on Viktor Shklovsky T S Eliot Mikhail Bakhtin and especially Yuri Tynyanov whose main reasoning would be that literature is a system of dominant central and peripheral marginalized elements to us tradition centre versus innovation margin engaged in a battle for supremacy demarginalization and the right to form a new literary system and the development or historical advancement of literature is the substitution of systems Roman Jakobson and French structuralism on the whole later Linda Hutcheon with her system and constant and Bran Nicol with the dominant to say nothing about Itamar Even Zohar and his theory of polysystem to a certain extent Julia Kristeva and even Homi Bhabha as well as our humble contribution by means of the books in the present series we would like to believe maintain Tynyanov s line of thinking and concepts alive which have developed and emerged nowadays more like a kind of neo formalism Scholars Rosie Wyles, Edith Hall, 2016-10-27 Women Classical Scholars Unsealing the Fountain from the Renaissance to Jacqueline de Romilly is the first written history of the pioneering women born between the Renaissance and 1913 who played significant roles in the history of classical scholarship Facing seemingly insurmountable obstacles from patriarchal social systems and educational institutions from learning Latin and Greek as a marginalized minority to being excluded from institutional support denigrated for being lightweight or over ambitious and working in the shadows of husbands fathers and brothers they nevertheless continued to teach edit translate analyse and elucidate the texts left to us by the ancient Greeks and Romans In this volume twenty essays by international leaders in the field chronicle the lives of women from around the globe who have shaped the discipline over more than five hundred years Arranged in broadly chronological order from the Italian Iberian and Portuguese Renaissance through to the Stalinist Soviet Union and occupied France they synthesize illuminating overviews of the evolution of classical scholarship with incisive case studies into often overlooked key figures some like Madame Anne Dacier were already famous in their home countries but have been neglected in previous male centred accounts while others have been almost completely lost to the mainstream cultural memory This book identifies and celebrates them their frustrations achievements and lasting records in so doing it provides the classical scholars of today regardless of gender with the female intellectual ancestors they did not know they had Theater as Metaphor Elena Penskaya, Joachim Küpper, 2019-05-20 The papers of the present volume investigate the potential of the metaphor of life as theater for literary philosophical juridical and epistemological discourses from the Middle Ages through modernity and focusing on traditions as manifold as French Spanish Italian German Russian and Latin American The Bounds of Myth Gustavo Esparza, Nassim Bravo, 2021-03-22 The articles in The Bounds of Myth edited by Gustavo Esparza and Nassim Bravo shed light on the internal shapes of the mythological discourse showing the way in which myth borders religion science literature theology i e other forms of rationality The contributing authors of the volume claim that myth is a valid form of thought and that the former evolves within other forms of discourse even though its composition is independent and even precedes the latter The articles collected here demonstrate the importance of myth as a form of thought that is in constant development a feature that shows in turn that in spite of its remote and archaic origin myth remains a valuable and relevant tool to interpret our own culture Contributors are Nassim Bravo Claudio Calabrese Teresa Enr quez Gustavo Esparza Ethel Junco Enrique Mart nez Cecilia Sabido and Jon Stewart The Fallacy Of The Silver Age Omry Ronen, 2013-10-31 First Published in 2004 In this original study Omry Ronen critically examines the term Silver Age which over the years has gained such wide currency among historians and connoisseurs of twentieth century Russian culture His latest research deals with metahistorical and metaliterary value of influential poetic locutions such as the image of Russia as the sphinx or the concept of the Silver Age in Russian cultural history Victorian Fiction as a Bildungsroman Petru Golban, 2019-09-30 Metaphorically speaking the nineteenth century English Bildungsroman dealing with the principle of identity formation parallels Victorian fiction as a whole revealing the completion of its own formation which began in the eighteenth century Significantly the most important and popular Victorian novels are Bildungsromane in which authors construct or rather reconstruct their own life experiences as formative processes. This book shows that the Bildungsroman has a development history is a specific literary system and consists of a thematic and narrative pattern It details the entrance of this newly established fictional tradition into Victorian culture and literature through Carlyle's threefold literary reception of the novel of formation and its subsequent flourishing and complexity In this respect a number of novelistic works are scrutinized and each faces the question as to whether its thematic and narrative perspectives fit the pattern and shape of the Bildungsroman Schelling Now Jason M. Wirth, 2005 Previously considered a way station on the road to Hegel F W J von Schelling is today enjoying a renaissance among Continental philosophers and others These 14 essays bring Schelling in tune with such luminaries as Heidegger Derrida Bataille Foucault Deleuze Levinas and Irigaray and situate him squarely in the centre of current themes A History of the Bildungsroman Petru Golban, 2018-09-30 This book establishes a vector of methodology in the approach to a particular type of fictional discourse namely the English Bildungsroman the novel of identity formation Its wide ranging critical perspectives are also useful to anyone concerned with first of all European and English novelistic genres but also to those interested in theoretical perspectives of modern fiction studies in general as well as in certain aspects of Western literature as a developing tradition Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin, Irina Livezeanu, Christine D.
