Sarnecka, 2025-02-25 This edited volume discusses images that bleed speak cry move and behave in ways we usually attribute to living creatures Living images have been the object of devotion as well as targets of destruction and they have been marginalised in both culture and cultural studies for their ambivalence as well as their transgressive nature But what is it that makes images the loci of such powerful properties The present volume is an attempt to recuperate the living image draw it from the margins and re illuminate its importance for cultural history The title of this book reflects the ambition of the contributions to navigate between the Middle Ages of the past and the Middle Ages of the present Our aim is to provide new theoretical reflections and methodologies concerning the study of material agency and living images both historically and today The chapters include close examination of surviving objects and archival research as well as theoretical reflections and span chronologically and geographically across Europe from North to South medieval to modern The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history medieval studies material culture theatre studies and religious history The Buddhist Viṣṇu John Clifford Holt, 2008 John Holt's groundbreaking study examines the assimilation transformation and subordination of the Hindu deity Visnu within the contexts of Sri Lankan history and Sinhala Buddhist religious culture Holt argues that political agendas and social forces as much as doctrinal concerns have shaped the shifting patterns of the veneration of Visnu in Sri Lanka Holt begins with a comparative look at the assimilation of the Buddha in Hinduism He then explores the role and rationale of medieval Sinhala kings in assimilating Visnu into Sinhala Buddhism Offering analyses of texts many of which have never before been translated into English Holt considers the development of Visnu in Buddhist literature and the changing practices of deity veneration Shifting to the present Holt describes the efforts of contemporary Buddhist monks in Sri Lanka to discourage the veneration of Visnu suggesting that many are motivated by a reactionary fear that their culture and society will soon be overrun by the influences and practices of Hindus Muslims and Christians
