Roberts,2015-12-30 This edited collection explores the relationship between urban space architecture and the moving image Drawing on interdisciplinary approaches to film and moving image practices the book explores the recent developments in research on film and urban landscapes pointing towards new theoretical and methodological frameworks for discussion Fodor's France 2009 Robert I. C. Fisher,Rachel Klein,2008-11-04 Provides information on French history and culture and shares advice on sightseeing shopping and entertainment Identity, Insecurity and Image D. E. Ager,1999-01-01 This text is about the relationship between language and the society that uses it It specifically aims to discover what drove and drives the French to concentrate so much on language on what it is that characterises their approach and on the explanations for the policies governments have pursued in the past and present

Routledge Library Editions: Tourism Various,2021-02-25 This set re issue 5 volumes originally published between 1985 and 1994 They focus on the impact of environmental issues on tourism management tourism demand and forecasting the key methods of operation of companies within the industry the functional areas of marketing finance organization and staffing research and innovation corporate strategy Multi disciplinary and international in its coverage with particular emphasis on Europe this collection will be of interest to students and libraries in the areas of geography tourism and marketing Mediterranean France and Corsica Pilot Rod and Lucinda Heikell, This is a comprehensive companion to the long coastline which ranges from Spain and the edge of the Pyrenees to the Alpes Maritimes and Italy It covers the flat country of Languedoc Roussillon the coast of the Golfe du Lion the Rh ne delta and the Camargue the industrial Golfe de Fos the C te d Azur and the French Riviera and Monaco The island of Corsica and the waterways that run behind the coast linking the Canal du Midi and the tangs to the Rh ne are covered in separate chapters The authors spent the summer and autumn of 2016 cruising in Corsica and then across to the Golfe du Fos where they left Skylax for the winter During their travels they visited a large number of harbours and anchorages collecting the latest information and taking new photographs There are new aerial photos for many places and in particular for ports and harbours in Languedoc Roussillon This major 2017 edition contains substantial change to the content A new Mediterranean France pilot from Rod and Lu Heikell is now available from Imray and needless to say if you have not got one and plan to cruise this coast and inevitably Corsica then rush out and buy it Royal Cruising Club The Philosophical Ethology of Roberto Marchesini Jeffrey Bussolini,Brett Buchanan,Matthew Chrulew,2018-10-19 Roberto Marchesini is an Italian philosopher and ethologist whose work is significant for the rethinking of animality and human animal relations Throughout such important books as Il dio Pan 1988 Il concetto di soglia 1996 Post human 2002 Intelligenze plurime 2008 Epifania animale 2014 and Etologia filosofica 2016 he offers a scathing critique of reductive mechanistic models of animal behaviour as well as a positive contribution to zooanthropological and phenomenological methods for understanding animal life Centred on the dynamic and performative field of interactions and relations in the world his critical and speculative approach to the cognitive life sciences offers a vision of animals as acting subjects and bearers of culture whose action and agency is also indispensable to human culture In tracing the ways in which we share our lives and histories with animals in different contexts of interaction Marchesini s cutting edge philosophical ethology also contributes to an overarching philosophical anthropology of the human as the animal that most requires the present and input of other animals This book was originally published as a special issue of Angelaki Journal of the Theoretical Humanities Marketing in the Tourism Industry (RLE Tourism) Brian

Goodall,Gregory Ashworth,2013-04-02 This book examines how different sections of the tourism industry attempt to reach their markets A wide range of distinctive forms of holiday are considered and the influence their characteristics have on how they are marketed is discussed But the approach is also comparative and the relative success each area of the industry has in reaching its market is evaluated Object-Based Image Analysis Thomas Blaschke,Stefan Lang,Geoffrey Hay,2008-08-09

This book brings together a collection of invited interdisciplinary perspectives on the recent topic of Object based Image Analysis OBIA Its content is based on select papers from the 1 OBIA International Conference held in Salzburg in July 2006 and is enriched by several invited chapters All submissions have passed through a blind peer review process resulting in what we believe is a timely volume of the highest scientific theoretical and technical standards The concept of OBIA first gained widespread interest within the GIScience Geographic Information Science community circa 2000 with the advent of the first commercial software for what was then termed object oriented image analysis However it is widely agreed that OBIA builds on older segmentation edge detection and classification concepts that have been used in remote sensing image analysis for several decades Nevertheless its emergence has provided a new critical bridge to spatial concepts applied in multiscale landscape analysis Geographic Information Systems GIS and the synergy between image objects and their radiometric characteristics and analyses in Earth Observation data EO Rethinking the French City Monique

Yaari,2008-01-01 This book considers the post 68 French city as a prism through which to understand the contemporary world and France s specificity within it The reader is invited to join in a series of exploratory strolls through texts buildings and neighborhoods and thereby share in a process of discovery Zeroing in on international architectural debates a range of key Parisian exhibitions and major urban design decisions in Paris Montpellier and Lille Yaari unravels an often acerbic French critique of both modern and postmodern positions on culture technology and the city This critique stemming from the competing claims of national identity the ethics of architecture and display and an anthropologically informed revision of prevailing views on the city has sparked in France a passionate search for a third path which the author proposes to term après moderne Breaking new ground in the field of French Studies through cultural analysis of the contemporary city this study brings new insight to scholars and professionals in architecture and urbanism and will interest all others for whom France and cities in general hold special appeal Drink Iain Gately,2008-07-03 A spirited look at the history of alcohol from the dawn of civilization to the modern day Alcohol is a fundamental part of Western culture We have been drinking as long as we have been human and for better or worse alcohol has shaped our civilization Drink investigates the history of this Jekyll and Hyde of fluids tracing mankind's love-hate relationship with alcohol from ancient Egypt to the present day Drink further documents the contribution of alcohol to the birth and growth of the United States taking in the War of Independence the Pennsylvania Whiskey revolt the slave trade and the failed experiment of national Prohibition Finally it provides a history of the world's most famous drinks and the world's most famous drinkers Packed with trivia and colorful characters Drink amounts to an intoxicating history of the world Elgar Encyclopedia of City and Place Branding Eduardo Oliveira,Efe Sevin,Emma Björner,2025-06-09 This Encyclopedia presents a comprehensive overview of the dynamic field of city and place branding Authored by nearly 150 experts from across the globe it covers a wide variety of disciplines methodologies and perspectives highlighting cutting edge developments and exploring avenues for future research Visual Arts and the Auld Alliance Bryony Coombs,2024-09-30 Explores the links between patronage identity and Franco-Scottish relations in the late medieval and early modern periods This monograph is the first book-length study of Franco-Scottish relations and the visual arts in the late medieval and early modern periods Offers new interdisciplinary approaches to Franco-Scottish history that challenge traditional accounts where there has been a failure to investigate visual material Based on extensive archival research and making use of unknown and little-known visual and archival evidence this work examines material from collections held in Scotland France the Netherlands and Italy Applies innovative interdisciplinary approaches combining patronage studies and a consideration of artistic agency It develops new methodologies combining art historical methods with insights drawn from political military and architectural histories and manuscript studies Forms a significant contribution to our understanding of the history of Scotland's place in Europe and the significance of its historic ties to France in particular This monograph provides the first substantial analysis of the visual arts commissioned by Scots in France prior to Mary Queen of Scots It examines how Scottish identity was represented and promoted through patronage of the visual arts Tying together previously unpublished archival documents with under-researched visual and material culture this monograph examines how Scots used patronage to establish their place in French society thus furthering the reputation of the royal house of Scotland and progressing their own social political and diplomatic aims Incorporating analysis of grand architectural projects such as the foundation of the Sainte Chapelle at Vincennes and studies of extraordinary manuscripts such as the Monypenny Breviary and the military manuals of Bonaparte Stuart this work highlights recurring themes within architectural history art history and material culture studies By addressing broader questions of Scotland's historic relations with Europe it makes a necessary contribution to modern-day concerns The Roman Remains of Southern France James Bromwich,2013-06-17 The Roman Remains of Southern France is the only specialist guidebook to this region available It is
