Peters, Jeff Stickney, 2018-02-14 Dedicated to educators who are not philosophy specialists this book offers an overview of the connections between Wittgenstein's later philosophy and his own training and practice as an educator Arguing for the centrality of education to Wittgenstein's life and works the authors resist any reduction of Wittgenstein's philosophy to remarks on pedagogy while addressing the current controversy surrounding the role of training in the enculturation process Significant events in his education and life are examined as the background for successful interpretation without lending biographical details explanatory force The book discusses the importance of Wittgenstein's training and dismissal as an elementary teacher 1920-26 in light of his later frequent use 1930s-40s of many scenes of instruction in his Cambridge lectures and notebooks These depictions culminated in his now famous Philosophical Investigations a counter to his earlier philosophy in the Tractatus Wittgenstein came to distinguish between empirical inquiries into how education language or mathematics might ideally work from grammatical studies of how we learn on the rough ground to normatively go on as others do often without explicit rules and with considerable degrees of ambiguity for instance in implementing new guidelines during a curriculum reform or in evaluating teachers The book argues that Wittgenstein's reflections on education spanning from mathematics training to the acquisition of language and cultivation of aesthetic appreciation are of central significance to both the man and his pedagogical style of philosophy Where Am I in the Picture? Claudia Mitchell, Katarina Giritli-Nygren, Relebohile Molestone, 2023-12-18 Positionality and researcher reflexivity how to account for one's subject position remain as challenges for new researchers But they also remain as challenges for experienced researchers who are often involved in multiple research projects simultaneously Where Am I in the Picture sheds light on the idea of researcher positionality through visual methodologies particularly in the context of studying rurality in Canada Sweden and South Africa The book is intended for new and experienced researchers seeking to decolonize their own perspectives in research in the social sciences and humanities It incorporates photographs drawings and memory work to highlight the social constructedness of what counts as rural Drawing together compelling narratives from researchers about their positionality in studying rurality the book highlights a need for greater attention to where we are in the picture more broadly It suggests that when it comes to the rural researchers need to rethink the interplay of dominant images insider and outsider perspectives and what this interplay means in relation to interpretation Where Am I in the Picture presents a new vision of how to take into consideration positionality in research Histories and Dynasties Arlene Zekowski, 1982 New Essays in Religious Naturalism Creighton Peden, Larry E. Axel, 1993 The essays in this volume were selected from those presented at a Conference on American Religious Thought sponsored by the Highlands Institute for American Religious Thought at Highlands North Carolina The Highlands Institute is a community of productive scholars with diverse theological and philosophical perspectives The Institute contributes to the academic study of religion through interpretive critical and constructive reflections whose principal focus is on distinctively American religious thought It fosters broad discussion of relevant options through its sponsorship of conferences seminars workshops and publications The work of the Institute emphasizes 1 the interface between theology and philosophy especially where theological efforts have utilized the American philosophical tradition 2 the history and development of liberal religious thought in America 3 themes pertinent to the Chicago School of theology and 4 naturalism in American theology and philosophy BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Oppositional Consciousness in the Postmodern World Chela Sandoval, 1993 The New and Complete Dictionary of the English Language John Ash, 1775 Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1977 Books in Print, 1977 Small Press Record of Books in Print, 1992 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1985 The Poethical Wager Joan Retallack, 2003 Annotation The interrelated essays in this book explore the coming together of ethics and poetics in literatures that engage with their contemporary moments to become wagers on the future of meaning The central concern of The Poethical Wager is the relation of poetics to agency in a chaotic world
