Living More With Less Study Action Guide:

Smith-Christopher, 2008-12-30 Is there a controversial issue in the contemporary world that does not involve religion? Whether it is a debate over the beginning of life or on sexuality and family life or on the stewardship of humans over the environment almost all of the most contentious matters that impact today's society involve people's deeply held religious beliefs. Battleground Religion helps clarify these complex topics by examining how various religious beliefs and practices impact current political, social, and cultural debates. Each of the approximately 100 entries examines a hot button issue from war and peace to the culture wars and discusses in a balanced and objective way the points of view on these topics from all parts of the religious spectrum. Students will come away from Battleground Religion with a better understanding of the issues that they will be encountering for years to come. Each entry includes a bibliography or resources for further information.

Healing for Hurting Hearts Phyllis Kilbourn, 2013-11-01 In this handbook various Christian authors offer practical advice and guidance to those who counsel troubled youth. This text will help counselors understand how the gospel of Christ can inform and impact their interactions with youth in crisis. The Activist Impulse Jared S. Burkholder, David Cramer, 2012-04-04 Anabaptists have often felt suspicious of American evangelicalism and in turn evangelicals have found various reasons to dismiss the Anabaptist witness. Yet at various points in the past as well as the present evangelicals and Anabaptists have found ample reason for conversation and much to appreciate about each other. The Activist Impulse represents the first book-length examination of the complex relationship between evangelicalism and Anabaptism in the past thirty years. It brings established experts and new voices together in an effort to explore the historical and theological intersection of these two rich traditions. Each of the essays provides fresh insight on at least one characteristic that both evangelicals and Anabaptists share: an impulse to engage society through the pursuit of active Christian witness. Creation and the Environment Calvin Redekop, 2003-04-01 Recent years have seen a shift in the belief that a religious world view specifically a Christian one precludes a commitment to environmentalism. Whether as stewards of God's creation or champions of environmental justice, church members have increasingly found that a strong pro ecology stand on environmental issues is an integral component of their faith. But not all Christian denominations are latecomers to the issue of environmentalism. In Creation and the Environment Calvin W. Redekop and his co-authors explain the unique environmental position of the Anabaptists in particular the Mennonites. After a brief survey of the major forces contributing to the world's present ecological crisis, Creation and the Environment explores the uniquely Anabaptist view of our relationship to what they see as the created order. In rural Amish and Mennonite communities they explain the environment, especially the land, is considered part of the Kingdom God plans to establish on earth. In this view the creation is part of the divine order with the redemption of humankind inextricably linked to the redemption and restoration of the material world. The well being a purpose of creation and human history are thus seen as completely interdependent Contributors Donovan Ackley III Claremont Graduate School Kenton Brubaker Eastern Mennonite University Thomas Finger Claremont Graduate School Karen Klassen Harder Bethel College Kansas James Harder Bethel College Kansas Lawrence Hart Cheyenne Cultural Center Clinton Oklahoma Theodore Hiebert McCormick Theological Seminary Karl Keener Pennsylvania State University Walter Klaassen Conrad Grebel College David Kline Holmes County Ohio Calvin W Redekop Conrad Grebel College Mel Schmidt Dorothy Jean Weaver Eastern Mennonite University Michael Yoder Northwestern College Iowa Christian Herald ,1981
