Image, Text, and Religious Reform in Fifteenth-Century England Shannon Gayk, 2010-09-30 Focusing on the period between the Wycliffite critique of images and Reformation iconoclasm Shannon Gayk investigates the sometimes complementary and sometimes fraught relationship between vernacular devotional writing and the religious image She examines how a set of fifteenth century writers including Lollard authors John Lydgate Thomas Hoccleve John Capgrave and Reginald Pecock translated complex clerical debates about the pedagogical and spiritual efficacy of images and texts into vernacular settings and literary forms These authors found vernacular discourse to be a powerful medium for explaining and reforming contemporary understandings of visual experience In its survey of the function of literary images and imagination the epistemology of vision the semiotics of idols and the authority of written texts this study reveals a fifteenth century that was as much an age of religious and literary exploration experimentation and reform as it was an age of regulation

Image, Text, Exegesis Izaak J. de Hulster, Joel M. LeMon, 2015-02-26 Images from the ancient Near East are an important though generally underutilized source of data for interpreting the Hebrew Bible and the cultural context from which it emerged The essays in this volume highlight the ways that ancient Near Eastern iconography can inform exegesis This aim is accomplished through case studies in iconographic exegesis that exhibit sound methodologies for relating images and texts Since the 1970s biblical scholars have been turning increasingly to iconography as a source for understanding the religion history and literature of the ancient Near East The essays in this volume tackle two thorny issues 1 how images reflect the cultures that produce them and 2 the nature of the relationship between images and texts both within discrete cultures and among different cultures Until now there have been relatively few methodologically self conscious treatments of ancient iconography and its relationship to the biblical text So this volume addresses a clear need for demonstrating transparent and consistent methods for iconographic work among biblical scholars Visual Culture Margarita Dikovitskaya, 2005 Drawing on interviews responses to questionnaires and oral histories by U S Image and Text in Conceptual Art Eve Kalyva, 2017-06-29 This book examines the use of image and text juxtapositions in conceptual art as a strategy for challenging several ideological and institutional demands placed on art While conceptual art is generally identified by its use of language this book makes clear exactly how language was used In particular it asks How has the presence of language in a visual art context changed the ways art is talked about theorised and produced Image and Text in Conceptual Art

Image Yirong Hu,2025-06-18 This book provides a groundbreaking exploration of image semiotics Going far beyond traditional analyses of static visual texts it includes dynamic imagery literary iconography and psychological images offering a holistic view of how semiotics permeates various forms of media and cultural expression The book integrates various case studies on Chinese culture providing scholars outside China a unique lens through which to understand Chinese cultural thinking through semiotics This approach not only enriches the academic discussion but also enhances cross cultural understanding In addition the book collects and synthesizes significant achievements in semiotics incorporating traditional visual theory research from the Panofsky and Warburg schools This synthesis forms a comprehensive semiotics of images providing an interdisciplinary analytical framework for contemporary media spectacles The book employs multiple methodologies to dissect the visual image spectacles constructed by modern media signs culminating in a macro level understanding of cultural spectacles Furthermore it situates the comparison between Chinese and Western civilizations within a broad context of cultural philosophy and history enriching the discourse on cultural differences and similarities

What Do Pictures Want? W. J. T. Mitchell,2013-12-23 Why do we have such extraordinarily powerful responses toward the images and pictures we see in everyday life Why do we behave as if pictures were alive possessing the power to influence us to demand things from us to persuade us seduce us or even lead us astray According to W J T Mitchell we need to reckon with images not just as inert objects that convey meaning but as animated beings with desires needs appetites demands and drives of their own What Do Pictures Want explores this idea and highlights Mitchell s innovative and profoundly influential thinking on picture theory and the lives and loves of images Ranging across the visual arts literature and mass media Mitchell applies characteristically brilliant and wry analyses to Byzantine icons and cyberpunk films racial stereotypes and public monuments ancient idols and modern clones offensive images and found objects American photography and aboriginal painting Opening new vistas in iconology and the emergent field of visual culture he also considers the importance of Dolly the Sheep who as a clone fulfills the ancient dream of creating a living image and the destruction of the World Trade Center on 9 11 which among other things signifies a new and virulent form of iconoclasm What Do Pictures Want offers an immensely rich and suggestive account of the interplay between the visible and the readable A work by one of our leading theorists of visual representation it will be a touchstone for art historians literary critics anthropologists and philosophers alike A treasury of episodes generally overlooked by art history and visual studies that turn on images that walk by themselves and exert their own power over the living Norman Bryson Artforum Images of Power Jens

Andermann, William Rowe, 2006-09-01 In Latin America where even today writing has remained a restricted form of expression the task of generating consent and imposing the emergent nation state as the exclusive form of the political was largely conferred to the image Furthermore at the moment of its historical demise the new postmodern forms of sovereignty appear to rely even more heavily on visual discourses of power However a critique of the iconography of the modern state form has been missing This volume is the first concerted attempt by cultural historical and visual scholars to address the political dimension of visual culture in Latin America in a comparative perspective spanning various regions and historical stages The case studies are divided into four sections analysing the formation of a public sphere the visual politics of avant garde art the impact of mass society on political iconography and the consolidation and crisis of territory as a key icon of the state Handbook of Comics and Graphic Narratives Sebastian Domsch, Dan Hassler-Forest, Dirk Vanderbeke, 2021-07-05

Whether one describes them as sequential art graphic narratives or graphic novels comics have become a vital part of contemporary culture Their range of expression contains a tremendous variety of forms genres and modes from high to low from serial entertainment for children to complex works of art This has led to a growing interest in comics as a field of scholarly analysis as comics studies has established itself as a major branch of criticism This handbook combines a systematic survey of theories and concepts developed in the field alongside an overview of the most important contexts and themes and a wealth of close readings of seminal works and authors It will prove to be an indispensable handbook for a large readership ranging from researchers and instructors to students and anyone else with a general interest in this fascinating medium Anais Nin Suzanne Nalbantian, 1997-07-13 This book of essays is the first to probe Anais Nin's achievements as a literary artist With an introduction by the editor Suzanne Nalbantian the collection examines the literary strategies of Nin in their psychoanalytical and stylistic dimensions Various contributors scrutinize Nin's artistry identifying her unique modernist techniques and her poetic vision Others observe the transfer of her psychoanalytical positions to narrative The volume also contains fresh views of Nin by her brother Joaquin Nin Culmell as well as innovative analyses of the reception of her works

The Future of Text and Image Ofra Amihay, Lauren Walsh, 2012-01-17 The question of the relation between the visual and the textual in literature is at the heart of an increasing number of scholarly projects and in turn the investigation of evolving visual verbal dynamics is becoming an independent discipline This volume explores these profound literary shifts through the work of twelve talented and in some cases emerging scholars who study text and image relations in diverse forms and contexts The inter medial conjunctures investigated in this book play with and against the traditional roles of the visual and the verbal The Future of Text and Image presents explorations of the incorporation of visual elements into works of literature of visual writing modes and of the textuality and literariness of images It focuses on the special potential literature offers for the combination of these two functions Alongside examinations of major forms and genres such as memoirs novels and poetry this volume expands the discussion of text and image relations into more marginal forms for instance collage books the PostSecret collections of anonymous postcards and digital poetry In other words while exploring the destiny of text and image as an independent discipline this volume simultaneously looks at the very literal future of text and image forms in an ever changing technological reality The essays in this book will help to define the emergent practices and politics of this growing field of study and at the same time reflect the tremendous significance of the visual in today s image culture

Farewell to Visual Studies James Elkins, Gustav Frank, Sunil Manghani, 2015-10-28 Each of the five volumes in the Stone Art Theory Institutes series brings together a range of scholars who are not always directly familiar with one another s work The outcome of each of these convergences is an extensive and unpredictable conversation on knotty and provocative issues about art This fifth and final volume in the series focuses on the identity nature and future of visual studies discussing critical questions about its history objects and methods The contributors question the canon of literature of visual studies and the place of visual studies with relation to theories of vision visuality epistemology politics and art history giving voice to a variety of inter and transdisciplinary perspectives Rather than dismissing visual studies as its provocative title might suggest this volume aims to engage a critical discussion of the state of visual studies today how it might move forward and what it might leave behind to evolve in productive ways The contributors are Emmanuel Alloa Nell Andrew Linda B ez Rub Martin A Berger Hans Dam Christensen Isabelle Decobecq Bernhard J Dotzler Johanna Drucker James Elkins Michele Emmer Yolaine Escande Gustav Frank Theodore Gracyk Ashj rn Gr nstad Stephan G nzel Charles W Haxthausen Miguel Hern ndez Navarro Tom Holert K van K l n Charlotte Klonk Tirza True Latimer Mark Linder Sunil Manghani Anna Notaro Julia Orell Mark Reinhardt Vanessa R Schwartz Bernd Stiegler yvind V gnes Sjoukje van der Meulen Terri Weissman Lisa Zaher and Marta Zarzycka

Palace and Temple Clifford Mark McCormick, 2012-10-24 This book is a critical study of the role played by architecture and texts in promoting political and religious ideologies in the ancient world It explains a palace as an element in royal propaganda seeking to influence social concepts about kingship and a text about a temple as influencing social concepts about the relationship between God and human beings Applying the methods of analysis developed in built environment studies the author interprets the palace and temple building programs of Sennacherib King of Assyria and Solomon King of Israel The physical evidence for the palace and the verbal evidence for the temple are explained as presenting communicative icons intended to influence contemporary political and religious concepts The volume concludes with innovative interpretations of the contributions of architectural and verbal icons to religious and political reform

Representing Kink Sara K. Howe, Susan E. Cook, 2019-09-06 Representing Kink raises awareness about non normative texts and non normative erotic practices and desires It defines kink broadly encompassing a range of inappropriate texts and understanding it in frequent reference to non normative erotic fantasies and experiences Kink is treated as both a set of practices as well as a category of texts at the nexus of subject and form In addition to canonical texts that take up erotic and marginalized themes the collection also studies forms that are themselves fringe and feature kink taboo literature self published erotica SM narratives fan fiction role playing games and other disavowed texts The purpose of this study is to focus attention on the margins of an already marginalized subject in order to highlight the extent to which non normative textuality and eroticism both shape and are shaped by culture and context It sheds light on a category of subjects that is at once mainstream in the form of texts such as Fifty Shades of Grey and yet nevertheless repeatedly disparaged and undertheorized This book advocates for conversations about kinky texts that transcend dichotomous frameworks of good and bad and normal and deviant thinking instead in new theoretically rigorous and flexible directions

Black Post-Blackness Margo Natalie Crawford, 2017-05-12 A 2008 cover of The New Yorker featured a much discussed Black Power parody of Michelle and Barack Obama The image put a spotlight on how easy it is to flatten the Black Power movement as we imagine new types of blackness Margo Natalie Crawford argues that we have misread the Black Arts Movement's call for blackness We have failed to see the movement's anticipation of the new black and post black Black Post Blackness compares the black avant garde of the 1960s and 1970s Black Arts Movement with the most innovative spins of twenty first century black aesthetics Crawford zooms in on the 1970s second wave of the Black Arts Movement and shows the connections between this final wave of the Black Arts movement and the early years of twenty first century black aesthetics She uncovers the circle of black post blackness that pivots on the power of anticipation abstraction mixed media the global South satire public interiority and the fantastic

The Visual and Verbal Sketch in British Romanticism Richard C. Sha, 2016-11-11 With their broken lines and hasty brushwork sketches acquired enormous ideological and aesthetic power during the Romantic period in England Whether publicly displayed or serving as the basis of a written genre these rough drawings played a central role in the cultural ferment of the age by persuading audiences that less is more The Visual and Verbal Sketch in British Romanticism investigates the varied implications of sketching in late eighteenth and early nineteenth century culture Calling on a wide range of literary and visual genres Richard C Sha examines the shifting economic and aesthetic value of the sketch in sources ranging from auction catalogs and sketching manuals to novels that employed scenes of sketching and courtship He especially shows how sketching became a double edged accomplishment for women when used to define proper femininity Sha s work offers fresh readings of Austen Gilpin Wordsworth and Byron as well as less familiar writers and provides sophisticated interpretations of visual sketches As the first full length work about sketching during the Romantic era this volume is a rich interdisciplinary study of both representation and gender Reading Images and Seeing Words ,2021-11-01

The simultaneously tautological and oxymoronic nature of word image relations has become a subject of massive debate in the post modern period This is not only because of the increasing predominance of word image messages within our modern media saturated culture but also because intellectual disciplines are becoming increasingly sensitized to the essentially hybrid nature of the way we construct meaning in the world The essays in this volume offer an exemplary insight into both aspects of this phenomenon Focussing on both traditional and modern media theatre fiction poetry graphic art cinema the essays of Reading Images and Seeing Words are deeply concerned to show how it is according to signifying codes rhetoric poetics metaphor that meaning and knowledge are produced Not the least value of this collection is the insight it gives into the multiple models of word image interaction and the rich ambiguity of the tautological and oxymoronic relations they embody
