James Welling Abstract:

James Welling , James Welling Rosalyn Deutsche,2002 James Welling ,1997 James Welling James Welling,2007 Edited by Denise Bratton Text by Lynne Tillman James Welling : abstract : exposition Brussels, Palais des Beaux-Arts, 1.3-26.5.2002 ; Toronto, The Art Gallery of York University, 13.11.2002-2.2.2003 Rosalyn Deutsche,2002 Not-Forgetting Rosalyn Deutsche,2022-12-30 Explores contemporary art that challenges deadly desires for mastery and dominion Amid times of emboldened cruelty and perpetual war Rosalyn Deutsche links contemporary art to three practices that counter the prevailing destructiveness psychoanalytic feminism radical democracy and war resistance Deutsche considers how art joins these radical practices to challenge desires for mastery and dominion which are encapsulated in the Eurocentric conception of the human that goes under the name Man and is driven by deadly inclinations that Deutsche calls masculinist The masculinist subject as an individual or a group universalizes itself claims to speak on behalf of humanity and meets differences with conquest Analyzing artworks by Christopher D Arcangelo Robert Filliou Hans Haacke Mary Kelly Silvia Kolbowski Barbara Kruger Louise Lawler Martha Rosler James Welling and Krzysztof Wodiczko Deutsche illuminates the diverse ways in which they expose question and trouble the visual fantasies that express masculinist desire Undermining the mastering subject these artworks invite viewers to question the positions they assume in relation to others Together the essays in Not Forgetting written between 1999 and 2020 argue that this art offers a unique contribution to building a less cruel and violent society The Iconology of Abstraction Krešimir Purgar,2020-06-15 This book uncovers how we make meaning of abstraction both historically and in present times and examines abstract images as a visual language The contributors demonstrate that abstraction is not primarily an artistic phenomenon but rather arises from human beings desire to imagine understand and communicate complex ineffable concepts in fields ranging from fine art and philosophy to technologies of data visualization from cartography and medicine to astronomy The book will be of interest to scholars working in image studies visual studies art history philosophy and aesthetics The Pictures Generation, 1974-1984 Douglas Eklund,2009 Image art after Conceptualism CalArts Hallwalls and Artists Space The jump appropriation and its discontents His gesture moved us to tears pictures art in a reinvigorated market James Welling James Welling,La Roche-sur-Yon (France). Musée municipal,1992 James Welling James Welling,Kunstnerens hus (Oslo, Norway),David Deitcher,1992 James Welling James Welling,1993 Global Photography Erina Duganne,Heather Diack,Terri Weissman,2020-06-08 This innovative text recounts the history of photography through a series of thematically structured chapters Designed and written for students studying photography and its history each chapter approaches its subject by introducing a range of international contemporary photographers and then contextualizing their work in historical terms The book offers students an accessible route to gain an understanding of the key genres theories and debates that are fundamental to the study of this rich and complex medium Individual chapters cover major topics including Description and

Abstraction Truth and Fiction The Body Landscape War Politics of Representation Form Appropriation Museums The Archive
 The Cinematic Fashion Photography Boxed focus studies throughout the text offer short interviews curatorial statements and reflections by photographers critics and leading scholars that link photography's history with its practice Short chapter summaries research questions and further reading lists help to reinforce learning and promote discussion Whether coming to the subject from an applied photography or art history background students will benefit from this book's engaging example led approach to the subject gaining a sophisticated understanding of international photography in historical terms James Welling James Welling, 1990 Emergent Poetics Travis W. Matteson, 2024-11-12 This book proposes the term emergent poetics to synthesize two divergent strands in contemporary literary media theory the media archaeology of material inscriptions and the systems view of media ecology which considers media as complex nodes of exchange Emergent poetics emphasizes the speculative non prosthetic quality of media the anthrodecentric perspective that media do not simply extend human senses but instead consist of properties that exceed human apprehension This study builds on Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick's theory of reparative reading contemporary media theory and Bruno Latour's Actor Network Theory which are united in their skepticism regarding the paranoid unveiling gesture of institutional critique their emphasis on methodology rather than theoretical ideology and their insistence on assembling rather than deconstructing In response to these three trends this project begins by attending to what Jerome McGann calls the bibliographic code material forms while simultaneously expanding this medium specific perspective by situating written works within their broader media ecosystems tracing interactions among media humans and nonhumans The Shape of the Signifier Walter Benn Michaels, 2006-10-29 The Shape of the Signifier is a critique of recent theory primarily literary but also cultural and political Bringing together previously unconnected strands of Michaels's thought from Against Theory to Our America it anatomizes what's fundamentally at stake when we think of literature in terms of the experience of the reader rather than the intention of the author and when we substitute the question of who people are for the question of what they believe With signature virtuosity Michaels shows how the replacement of ideological difference we believe different things with identitarian difference we speak different languages we have different bodies and different histories organizes the thinking of writers from Richard Rorty to Octavia Butler to Samuel Huntington to Kathy Acker He then examines how this shift produces the narrative logic of texts ranging from Toni Morrison's Beloved to Michael Hardt and Toni Negri's Empire As with everything Michaels writes
 The Shape of the Signifier is sure to leave controversy and debate in its wake Abstraction in Science and Art Chiara Ambrosio, Julia Sánchez-Dorado, 2024-09-30 This volume explores the roles and uses of abstraction in scientific and artistic practice Conceived as an interdisciplinary dialogue between experts across histories and philosophies of art and science this collection of essays draws on the shared premise that abstraction is a rich and generative process not reducible to the mere omission of details in a representation When scientists attempt to make sense of complex natural phenomena they often produce highly abstract models of them In the history and philosophy of art there is a long tradition of debate on the function of abstraction and more recently its relation with theories of depiction Adopting a process oriented perspective the chapters in this volume explore the epistemic potential of a diversity of practices of abstracting The systematic analysis of a wide range of historical cases from early twentieth century abstractionist painting to contemporary abstract photography and from nineteenth century physics to recent research in biology and neurosciences invites the reader to reflect on the material lives of abstraction through concrete artefacts experimental practices and theoretical and aesthetic achievements Abstraction in Science and Art Philosophical Perspectives will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in aesthetics philosophy of science and epistemology as well as to historians of science and art and to practicing artists and scientists interested in exploring foundational questions at the heart of the creative practice of abstracting The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non

Art in America, 2001-05 Light, Paper, Process Virginia Heckert, 2015-04-14 From its beginnings photography has been shaped by the desire to understand and explore the essence of the medium Light Paper Process features the work of seven artists Alison Rossiter Marco Breuer James Welling Lisa Oppenheim Chris McCaw John Chiara and Matthew Brandt who investigate the possibilities of analog photography by finding innovative surprising and sometimes controversial ways to push light sensitive photographic papers and chemical processing beyond their limits A panoply of practices emerges in the work of these artists Some customize cameras with special lenses or produce images on paper without a camera or film Others load paper rather than film in the camera or create contact printing with sources of light other than the enlarger while still others use expired photographic papers and extraneous materials such as dust and sweat selected to match the particular subject of the photograph All of the artists share a willingness to embrace accident and chance Trial and error contribute to an understanding of the materials and their potential as do the attitudes of underlying curiosity and inventive interrogation The act of making each image is like a performance with only the photographer present The results are stunning This lavish publication accompanies an eponymous exhibition on view at the J Paul Getty Museum from April 14 to September 6 2015

Things Beyond Resemblance James Welling, 2015 As a conceptual artist who is deeply interested in the genesis of representation Welling began this series of photographs as an examination of Andrew Wyeth's influence on his own work from Welling's earliest watercolors in the 1960s through his recent photographs Shot on location in Pennsylvania and Maine in the same areas where Wyeth painted throughout his life this major series includes photographs from 2010 through 2014 In addition to including never before seen works from the completed Wyeth series the book explores the mechanisms of influence of one artist upon another even across media ranging from subconscious borrowings to more direct appropriations
