Jane Alexander:

Command Performance Jane Alexander, 2007-10-10 Jane Alexander had never been involved in mainstream politics and was happily engaged in her acting career when she was asked to consider becoming head of the embattled National Endowment for the Arts in the early 1990s. When during her first visit to the Hill Senator Strom Thurmond barked at her "You gonna fund pornography she knew it would be a rough ride. Nothing had quite prepared her for the role of madame chairman. Her tenure coincided with the ascent of the infamous 104th Congress presided over by Speaker Newt Gingrich and its campaign to eliminate the Endowment completely. In Command Performance Alexander brings a Washington outsider's perspective and an actor's eye for the telling human detail to an anecdote-filled story of the art of politics and the politics of art. And at the start of a new administration in Washington she reminds us why we need art and why government should be in the business of supporting it. Texas Women and Ranching Deborah M. Liles, Cecilia Gutierrez Venable, 2019-01-24 Winner 2020 Liz Carpenter Award For Best Book on the History of Women. The realm of ranching history has long been dominated by men from tales tall or true of cowboys and cattlemen to a century's worth of male writers and historians who have been the primary chroniclers of Texas history. As women's history has increasingly gained a foothold not only as a field worthy of study but as a bold and innovative way of understanding the past, new generations of scholars are rethinking the once familiar settings of the past. In doing so they reveal that women not only exercised agency in otherwise constrained environments but were also integral to the ranching heritage that so many Texans hold dear. Texas Women and Ranching: On the Range at the Rodeo and in Their Communities explores a variety of roles women played on the western ranch. The essays here cover a range of topics from early Tejana businesswomen and Anglo philanthropists to rodeos and fence cutting range wars. The names of some of the women featured may be familiar to those who know Texas ranching history: Alice East and Frances Kallison, for example. Others came from less well-known or wealthy families. In every case they proved themselves to be resourceful women and unique individuals who survived by their own wits in cattle country. This book is a major contribution to several fields: Texas history, western history, and women's history, that are at last beginning to converge. Becoming Animal Nato Thompson, 2005-06-17 Contemporary artists investigate the boundaries between animal and human in a world of transgenics and dissolving distinctions with 65 color images of new works. In an age when scientists say they can no longer specify the exact difference between human and animal, living and dead, many contemporary artists have chosen to use animals in their work as the ultimate other, as metaphor, as reflection. The attempt to discover what is animal not surprisingly leads to a greater understanding of what it means to be human. In Becoming Animal, 12 internationally known artists investigate the shifting boundaries between animal and human. Their explorations may be a barometer of things to come. The works included in Becoming Animal, which accompanies an exhibit at MASS MoCA, range from the aviary and cabinet of curiosities of Mark Dion to the gun-toting bird collages of Michael Oatman, Nicolas Lampert's machine animal collages, and

Jane Alexander's corpse-like humanoids suggest a new landscape of alienation Rachel Berwick's investigation of the last Galapagos tortoise from the island of Pinto and Brian Conley's humanized mating call of the Tungara frog question the divide between human and animal communication Patricia Piccinini imagines a bodyguard for a bird on the edge of extinction and Ann Sofi Siden recreates the bedroom and paranoia of psychologist Alice Fabian Natalie Jeremijenko presents another installment in her ongoing Ooz reverse engineering the zoo and Kathy High's installation of trans animals remembers lab rats who have given their lives for science Sam Easterson's videos allow us to see from the viewpoint of an armadillo a tarantula a tumbleweed Motohiko Odani's films show a surrealistic genetically modified bestiary Becoming Animal documents these works with eye popping full color images taking us on a visual journey through an unknown world

Women of the Western Frontier in Fact, Fiction, and Film Ronald W. Lackmann, 1997-01-01 This work provides factual accounts of women of the Old West in contrast to their depictions on film and in fiction The lives of Martha Calamity Jane Canary and Belle The Bandit Queen Starr are first detailed one discovers that Starr was indeed friends with notorious bank robbers of the time including Jesse James and Cole Younger but was herself primarily a cattle and horse thief Wives and lovers of some of the West's most famous outlaws are covered in the second section along with real life female entertainers prostitutes and gamblers Native Americans entrepreneurs doctors reformers artists writers schoolteachers and other such respectable women are covered in the third section

Dancing the Tao Sandra J. Lindow, 2012-11-15 Dancing the Tao Le Guin and Moral Development takes an original approach to Ursula K Le Guin's work speculative fiction poetry and children's literature by considering her Taoist upbringing and then looking through the lens of moral development theorists such as Carol Gilligan and Mary Field Belenky and psychologists such as Lenore Terr and Jennifer J Freyd It is the most comprehensive approach to Le Guin's moral thinking to date A particular emphasis is put on Le Guin's depiction of physical and sexual child abuse and its long term aftereffects such as post traumatic stress disorder. The focus throughout the book is on how morality develops through self awareness and voice how moral decisions are made and how Le Guin challenges readers to reconsider their own moral thinking. This book covers all of Le Guin's major works such as The Left Hand of Darkness, The Dispossessed, the Earthsea Series, Always Coming Home, The Telling and Lavinia and it also looks in depth at work that is rarely discussed such as Le Guin's early work, her poetry and her picture books.

Anderson County, Tennessee: History Revealed Through Biographical and Genealogical Sketches of its Ancestors M. Secrist, 2012-10-08 This features a brief but fascinating history of the county as well as numerous biographical and genealogical sketches of many Anderson County ancestors. Included are nearly forty Revolutionary War veterans that made their home here. Among the personal sketches you will also find many fully transcribed wills. Through these sketches an interesting history of Anderson County Tennessee is revealed.

Art and the End of Apartheid John Pepper, 2009 Black South African artists have typically had their work labeled African art or township art, qualifiers that when contrasted with simply modernist art have been used to marginalize their work both in South Africa and internationally. This is the first book to fully explore cosmopolitan modern art by black South Africans under apartheid.

Gateway to the West Mrs. Dale Bowers, 2001 This edition of Gateway to the West has been excerpted from the original numbers consolidated and reprinted in two volumes with added Publisher's Note, Tables of Contents and indexes by Genealogical Publishing Co. S Inc Baltimore MD.

Alexandria George K. Combs, Leslie Anderson, Julia M. Downie, 2012 Understanding the history of Alexandria Virginia is key to the early history of the United States. This thorough overview examines its long and storied history from former colonial tobacco port to vibrant modern community. Alexandria has a long and storied past. Founded as a colonial tobacco port by English and Scottish merchants in 1749, the city prospered. It became the social and economic center of Northern Virginia and the upper Potomac region. When the nation's capital was established in 1791, Alexandria became a part of the District of Columbia. In 1833 a canal intended to increase trade and revenue nearly bankrupted the city. By the time Alexandria retroceded to Virginia in 1847 it had lost its standing among maritime cities on the Eastern Seaboard. Notable residents have included politicians and military heroes such as George Washington, Robert E. Lee and Gerald R. Ford as well as cultural icons Willard Scott and Jim Morrison. Today's Alexandria includes descendants of free and enslaved African Americans and the progeny of 18th and 19th century European immigrants who have joined with new Americans to create vibrant 21st century communities.
