Jasmine And Arnica:

Jasmine and Arnica Nicola Naylor, 2003 Nicola Naylor was determined that her blindness would not stop her from realising her dream of travelling around India researching Indian massage techniques and holistic therapy This is the story of how a journey rebuilt her shattered confidence Originally published 2001 Jasmine and Arnica Nicola Naylor, Kate Adie, 2010-12-01 Many would balk at the idea of a white woman traveling India alone and in particular a blind woman Throughout her childhood Nicola Naylor had been fascinated by images of the subcontinent and was determined both to realize her dream of visiting and to push back the stifling constraints imposed by perceptions of her disability While depending on her third eye or sixth sense she explores India from the inside Her account is both sensuous and enormously visual as she gradually rebuilds her shattered self confidence regains her desire to live life and rediscovers her almost forgotten love of writing Riding with Ghosts Gwen Maka, 2010-12-01 Frank and often outrageous this is an account of a 40 something Englishwoman s epic 4 000 mile cycle ride from Seattle to Mexico via the snow covered Rockies mostly alone and camping in the wild She runs appalling risks and copes in a gutsy hilarious way with exhaustion climatic extremes dangerous animals eccentrics lechers and a permanently saddle sore backside We share her deep involvement with the West s pioneering past and with the tragic traces that history has left lingering on the land When she rides the faded trails of the vanished American Indian nations she displays a strong sensitivity to the atmosphere of the spectacular landscape as if the moments of its vibrant past are hanging in the air only waiting for her to conjure them up vividly sometimes with humor and frequently with passion As she travels the ghosts of Lewis and Clark Chief Joseph and Geronimo Custer and Crazy Horse all the legendary figures of the Old West ride with her Prickly Pears of Palestine Hilda Reilly, 2012-11-01 An account providing a human face to the realities of life in Palestine The Palestinian Israeli conflict is one of the most widely reported and long standing struggles in the world yet for many misunderstanding is rife about its most basic issues Hilda Reilly volunteered to work at An Najah University in Nablus in order to spend time among many ordinary people living under extraordinary circumstances She lives among students and relates the many conversations she has with a wide range of Palestinians about their thoughts on Hamas and Fatah Yasser Arafat bin Laden and Hussein Blair and Bush bringing readers an insight to the people behind the politics Aftershock Jules Mountain, 2017-05-08 Jules Mountain is a survivor The odds of surviving his type of cancer were one in five The odds of dying on Everest are one in 60 but these are severely shortened when factoring in an avalanche triggered by the 2015 Nepal earthquake Jules lived to tell both tales which he does in a way that conveys the agony and euphoria that extreme adventurers face even when things go according to plan And yet this is not merely an account of what happened in the aftermath of the most deadly disaster ever on the world s most iconic mountain It is an exploration internal as well as physical of how logic compassion and risk assessment are affected by altitude vested interests and the stress of extreme circumstances Cold Hands, Warm Heart Tess Burrows, Sir Ranulph

Fiennes,2010-07-09 STRONGSTRONGA 60 year old woman s incredible attempt to race to the South Pole carrying a call for compassion A grandmother of two Tess Burrows came to climbing late in life when she found her true calling in campaigning for the Tibetan cause Here she races to the South Pole to promote world peace She not only learns to push the limits of the human body but also to push out the reaches of the human spirit She and her partner Pete join the historic South Pole race to compete with Olympic champion James Cracknell and Ben Fogle To complete this mission they have to battle severe medical problems lack of money hardship and deprivation For Tess it is more than combating cold hands with a warm heart it is also a journey to push past the influences of the human mind Triumph Around the World Robbie Marshall,2011-04-13

STRONGA humorous soul searching account of an aging hippie who gives up his hard won career family and home life to bike around the world in search of new experiences At age 45 Robbie Marshall had it all or so it seemed He had been married had two children and built up a successful advertising agency So what on earth made him trade his suit for leathers his office for the saddle of a great motorcycle and his bulging appointment book for an out of date world atlas The prospect of a new challenge held such overwhelming appeal that he was prepared to risk it all his hard won career the trappings of wealth and the love of a good woman for life on the road and a lifestyle completely removed from anything he had known before And so he shook hands with his business partner kissed his girlfriend goodbye and rode off into the unknown Over the course of this double or nothing adventure he came face to face with his own ignorance enormous danger and wracking loneliness as well as some of the best that human nature has to offer News of the World? Peter Burden,Julia Dillon,2009-06-01 Do the great British public get the press the Red Tops think they deserve Or are the tabloids pious protestations of public interest really just a self serving attempt to halt declining circulation Peter Burden examines the News of the World s performance with its Fake Sheikh and the illegal mobile phone tapping which lead to a jail sentence for royal reporter Clive Goodman and the resignation of the editor Burden also highlights the papers hypocrisy when Mazher Mahmood the Fake Sheikh was himself unmasked This is a book for everyone concerned about standards in British tabloid journalism and people who care about privacy rights and the debate over serving the Public Interest versus the interest of the public The Pika and the Pink Mountain E M Inkpen ,2019-05-21 Pikas are small animals with big round ears long whiskers and very loud whistles
