Promise and Dilemma Eugene Y. Lowe, Jr.,2021-02-09 Issues of diversity and affirmative action have turned elite higher education in the United States into contested terrain Rights revolutions in the country have raised hopes that have proved difficult to fulfill Most particularly expectations about access and opportunity redressing the unfairness of the past have collided with widely held beliefs that educational institutions should treat each person fairly as an individual and should promote high academic standards Promise and Dilemma gathers the reflections of a group of leading educators on whether and how objectives of diversity equity and excellence can be simultaneously pursued Empirical in orientation these essays focus on constructive proposals and on the role of social and political consensus Furthermore they contrast what we believe we know with what empirical data and institutional experience can teach us Eugene Lowe s substantive introduction reviews the history of the practice of affirmative action in colleges and universities The other essays are by L Scott Miller of The College Board Mamphela Ramphele vice chancellor of the University of Cape Town Neil J Smelser of the Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences Stanford and Claude M Steele of Stanford University Also included are commentaries by Randall Kennedy Harvard Law School Richard J Light John F Kennedy School of Government Harvard University Chang Lin Tien the University of California Berkeley and Philip Uri Treisman the University of Texas

Education As My Agenda J. Robinson,2017-03-06 When Gertrude Williams retired in 1998 after forty nine years in the Baltimore public schools The Baltimore Sun called her the most powerful of principals who tangled with two superintendents and beat them both In this oral memoir Williams identifies the essential elements of sound education and describes the battles she waged to secure those elements first as teacher then a counselor and for twenty five years as principal She also described her own education growing up black in largely white Germantown Pennsylvania studying black history and culture for the first time at Cheyney State Teachers College and meeting the rigorous demands of the program which she graduated from in 1949 In retracing her career Williams examines the highs and lows of urban public education since World War II She is at once an outspoken critic and spirited advocate of the system to which she devoted her life Brigham Young University Education and Law Journal ,1993

Engaging Minds David A. Goslin,2003 American sociologist social psychologist and author David Goslin examines factors affecting student engagement in learning and explores implications of his findings for educational policy and practice in elementary and secondary level schooling in the U S In the process he asks why the American school system is so impervious to improvement and identifies ways to increase the frequency and duration of situations in which young learners actively participate in the acquisition of significant intellectual skills Written for the full range of educational professionals government officials and parents concerned with school reform Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com
