Decolonizing Preaching Sarah

Travis,2014-11-13 Colonialism and imperialism continue to impact the personal and social identities of North American preachers and listeners In Decolonizing Preaching Sarah Travis argues that sermons have a role in shaping the identity and ethics of listeners by helping them formulate responses to empire and colonization Travis employs postcolonial theories to provide important insights for the practice of preaching today She also turns to the social doctrine of the Trinity to offer a vision of the divine human community that effectively deconstructs colonizing discourse This book offers preachers and other practical theologians a gentle introduction to colonial history postcolonial theories and Social Trinitarian theology while equipping them with tools to decolonize preaching and strategies for preventing resisting and responding to colonizing discourse Travis effectively casts a vision of a perichoretic space in which preacher and listener encounter the living God in Trinity and are transformed reconciled and sent out to others in the church and beyond The Witness of Preaching,

Long,2005-10-20 This thorough and detailed revision of The Witness of Preaching is even clearer and more helpful than the first edition Long has updated the language expanded the key chapter on biblical exegesis and included more examples of sermon forms illustrations and conclusions He continues to critically engage the best thinkers in the field of homiletics bringing into the conversation both important new voices and the latest works of those who appeared in the first edition In addition he addresses some of the new forces at work such as the use of video clips and PowerPoint presentations in sermons Worship in the Shape of Scripture Russell F Mitman,2009-01-01 Worship in the Shape of Scripture first published in 2001 is a practical resource for worship planners and leaders that provides guidelines for applying homiletic concepts to all areas of worship planning Due to its success it has been revised and updated Mitman demonstrates how the structure of worship is or can be rooted in Scripture itself He raises essential questions and reflects on broad themes for worshipping congregations to consider for the sake of faithful praise Foreword by Marva J Dawn and provocative as ever Preaching Christ from Ecclesiastes Sidney Greidanus, 2010-05-03 As Sidney Greidanus points out here Ecclesiastes is especially relevant for our culture the Teacher confronts enticements like materialism secularism hedonism human autonomy and self sufficiency But how can preachers convey these important teachings to their congregations in a helpful way Sidney Greidanus here does preachers a great service by providing the foundations for one or more series of expository sermons on Ecclesiastes He breaks the book down in several ways including the boundaries of each preaching text the text's theme and goal various ways to move to Christ in the New Testament detailed exposition of the fifteen literary units and application for today Preaching that Matters Stephen Farris, 1998-01-01 Preaching is the art of building a bridge in the hearer's mind from the ancient world of the biblical text to the realities of our daily lives Throughout this book Stephen Farris offers splendid insights into ways that the Bible can connect with modern life and gives specific guidance to preachers on how to make these connections happen This is a highly practical book for ministers and for classroom use Text to Praxis Abraham Kuruvilla, 2009-03-26 A fundamental issue for preachers of the Bible has always been achieving an approach that is both faithful to the textual intention as well as fitting for the listening audience What is historical and distant the text is in preaching made contemporary and near praxis Particularly pertinent is how this transaction may be conducted with respect to the self contained and well defined quantum of the scriptural text that is regularly employed in liturgical contexts the pericope This book answers the question In a sermon intending to proclaim application from a pericope what is the hermeneutical basis for moving validly from text to praxis i.e. with authority and relevance The concept of theology as a bridge between text and praxis has not been specifically researched or rigorously substantiated Kuruvilla seeks to do both utilizing as entries language philosophy literary criticism and a thorough understanding of ordinary language Drawing from a variety of hermeneutical resources he establishes pericopal theology as the intermediary between text and praxis How this theology is discerned from the text and how application may be determined therefrom form the crux of this book This novel approach lends validity to the movement from text to praxis and promises to be useful for any approach to the biblical text intended to culminate in application Kuruvilla's approach provides a substantial technical basis for such an operation Thus the preacher must be a theologian homiletician It is the working out of this nomenclature especially the theologian half of the appellation that is the essence of this work uniting as it does in one portfolio the responsibility of negotiating the demands of both hermeneutics and homiletics Text Messages John Tucker, 2017-12-06 Facebook Twitter Snapchat We live in a rapidly changing world a world that seems to be increasingly inhospitable toward preaching In the face of digital technology social media cultural pluralism and pastoral burnout how can Christian preachers proclaim the gospel faithfully and effectively This book answers that question by bringing together a selection of important voices from across North America Asia and the Pacific It argues that Spirit empowered preaching is characterized by five attributes it opens the Scriptures engages the culture addresses the listener dissects the preacher and elevates the Savior With contributions from authors like William Willimon Darrell Johnson Lynne Baab Robert Smith Jr and Paul Windsor this is an excellent resource for ordained ministers lay preachers theological students and anyone wrestling with the challenge of preaching God's word in a smartphone world Preaching Christ from Daniel Sydney

Greidanus, 2012-12-19 In Preaching Christ from Daniel Sidney Greidanus shows preachers and teachers how to prepare expository messages from the six narratives and four visions in the book of Daniel Using the most up to date biblical scholarship Greidanus addresses foundational issues such as the date of composition the author's and original audience of the book its overall message and goal and various ways of preaching Christ from Daniel Throughout his book Greidanus puts front and center God's sovereignty providence and coming kingdom Each chapter contains building blocks for constructing expository sermons and lessons including useful information on the context themes and goals of each literary unit links between Daniel and the New Testament how to formulate the sermon theme and goal contemporary application and much more The Witness of Preaching Thomas G. Long, 2005-01-01 This thorough revision of this classic text is even clearer and more helpful than the first edition Long has updated the language expanded the key chapter on biblical exegesis and has included more examples of sermon forms illustrations and conclusions Text Message Ian Stackhouse, Oliver D.

Crisp, 2014-03-10 Preaching has fallen on hard times with many questioning its relevance and even its validity as a New Testament practice This symposium of specially commissioned essays draws together an international team of thirteen scholars and pastors to address the importance of textual preaching in the history and life of the early church the historic church and the contemporary church Contributions include essays on Old Testament preaching preaching in Hebrews gender sensitive preaching preaching in the theology of Jonathan Edwards Charles Spurgeon Dietrich Bonhoeffer and in Eastern Orthodoxy It also includes essays on a range of homiletical challenges that textual preaching raises for the contemporary preacher including genre preaching without notes inhabiting the text and preaching without platitudes A final reflection by Dave Hansen on the state of textual preaching rounds out the collection The preaching of the gospel stands at the heart of Christian praxis These essays make a vital contribution to the recovery of the importance of preaching focused on the text of Scripture Written with an eye to the pastor and practitioner as well as those in the pews and in the classroom this is a book that should appeal to a wide range of readers Preaching Christ from Psalms Sidney Greidanus, 2016-11-10 In this penultimate volume of his series on preaching Christ from the Old Testament Sidney Greidanus offers expert guidance for busy pastors on preaching Christ from Psalms Beginning with a general introduction on how pastors can interpret and preach from the biblical psalms and why they should Greidanus proceeds by discussing twenty two psalms in the Revised Common Lectionary Year A supplying the building blocks necessary to preach from Psalms at Christmas Easter Pentecost and other major days and seasons of the church year In addition to laying out basic homiletical theological approaches suitable for each selected psalm these chapters also provide verse by verse exposition bridges to Christ in the New Testament and ideas for placing the psalmist's words into contemporary context The Company of Preachers Richard Lischer, 2002-08-30 This unique volume draws on the wisdom of Christian thinkers and preachers from across the ages to present a warm and informative collection of insights on the art of preaching. Gathering the writing of figures as diverse as Augustine, John Chrysostom, Jonathan Edwards, Gardner C. Taylor, and Barbara Brown Taylor, The Company of Preachers provides experienced advice on effective preaching direct from the pens of those who have known it best. The book is arranged in seven divisions, each covering a central component of the preaching task. Editor Richard Lischer, himself a distinguished preacher and teacher, gives a brief introduction to each selection. Aptly presenting a theological and historical cross-section of the church's homiletics, this volume will be invaluable to preachers, students preparing for ministry, and others seeking models of powerful Christian speech. Features insights on preaching from Augustine, Karl Barth, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Walter Brueggemann, Rudolf Bultmann, Horace Bushnell, David Buttrick, John Calvin, John Cassian, John Chrysostom, Fred B. Craddock, C. H. Dodd, Jarena Lee, Jonathan Edwards, Charles Grandison Finney, P. T. Forsyth, Harry Emerson Fosdick, Gregory the Great, George Herbert, Martin Luther, Henry H. Mitchell, John Henry Newman, Phoebe Palmer, Paul Ricoeur, Oscar Romero, Friedrich Schleiermacher, Charles Haddon Spurgeon, Barbara Brown Taylor, Gardner C. Taylor, John Wesley, and many more.
