The Partner Track Helen Wan, 2013-09-17 An engaging and suspenseful novel of a first generation Chinese American having second thoughts about her elite Manhattan law firm The Wall Street Journal Ingrid Yung's life is full of firsts A first generation Chinese American the first lawyer in her family she's about to collect the holy grail of firsts and become the first minority woman to make partner at the venerable old Wall Street law firm Parsons Valentine Hunt Ingrid has perfected the art of passing and seamlessly blends into the old boy corporate culture She gamely banter in the cafeteria plays in the firm softball league and earnestly racks up her billable hours But when an offensive incident at the summer outing threatens the firm's reputation Ingrid's outsider status is suddenly thrown into sharp relief Scrambling to do damage control Parsons Valentine announces a new diversity and inclusion initiative commanding Ingrid to spearhead the effort just as she's about to close an enormous transaction that was to be her final step in securing partnership For the first time Ingrid begins to question her place in the firm Pitted against her colleagues including her golden boy boyfriend Ingrid wonders whether the prestige of partnership is worth breaching her ethics But can she risk throwing away the American dream that's finally within her reach Thought provoking a compelling tale Booklist Funny fragile sometimes bold often unsure Ingrid Yung is one of those unforgettable heroines that you actually miss like a dear friend when the story's over Ann Leary New York Times bestselling author of The Foundling Intriguing and entertaining Library Journal Rethinking School-University

Partnerships Prentice T. Chandler, Lisa Barron, 2021-05-01 Rethinking School University Partnerships A New Way Forward provides educational leaders in K 12 schools and colleges of education with insight advice and direction into the task of creating partnerships In current times colleges of education and local school districts need each other like never before School districts struggle with pipeline recruitment and retention issues Colleges of education face declining enrollment and a shifting educational landscape that fundamentally changes the way that teachers are trained and what local school districts expect their teachers to be able to do It is with these overlapping constraints and converging interests that partnerships emerge as a foundational strategy for strengthening the education of our teachers With nearly 80 contributors from 16 states and Jamaica representing 39 educational institutions the partnerships described in this book are different from the ways in which colleges of education and school districts have traditionally worked with one another In the past these loose relationships centered primarily on student teaching and or field experience placements In this arrangement the relationship was directed towards ensuring that the local schools were amenable to hosting students from the college of education so that the student candidate could complete the requirements to earn a teaching license In our view this paradigm needs to be enlarged and shifted Parson's Complete Annotated Pocket Code New York (State), 1900 Handbook of Research on Field-Based Teacher Education Hodges, Thomas E., Baum, Angela C., 2018-10-26 Teacher education is an evolving field with multiple pathways towards teacher certification Due to an increasing emphasis on the benefits of field based learning teachers can now take alternative certification pathways to become teachers The Handbook of Research on Field Based Teacher Education is a pivotal reference source that combines field based components with traditional programs creating clinical experiences and on the job learning opportunities to further enrich teacher education While highlighting topics such as certification design preparation programs and residency models this publication explores theories of teaching and learning through collaborative efforts in pre Kindergarten through grade 12 settings This book is ideally designed for teacher education practitioners and researchers invested in the policies and practices of educational design Clinical Experiences in Teacher Education Kristien Zenkov, Kristine Pytash, 2018-08-06 Responding to multiple scholarly policy and practical calls for a greater focus on clinical teacher preparation this volume operates on the assumption that few experiences in future teachers training are more important than their field experiences This text introduces the model of critical project based CPB clinical experiences which provides teacher candidates with exemplary on the ground training honors veteran teachers as school based teacher educators and offers university based teacher educators new roles that ensure their practices and scholarship are explicitly relevant to all of schools constituents Answering the call for relevant high quality clinically based teacher education this volume will offer scholarly and narrative examinations of examples of CPB clinical experiences that will be of interest to all involved in and impacted by educator preparation programs Sitting

Pretty Clifton Webb, 2011-05-17 More than any other male movie star the refined Clifton Webb 1889 1966 caused the moviegoing public to change its image of a leading man In a day when leading men were supposed to be strong virile and brave Clifton Webb projected an image of flip acerbic arrogance He was able to play everything from a decadent columnist Laura to a fertile father Cheaper by the Dozen and The Remarkable Mr Pennypacker delivering lines in an urbanely clipped acidly dry manner with impeccable timing Long before his film career began Webb was a child actor and later a suavely effete song and dance man in numerous Broadway musicals and revues The turning point in his career came in 1941 when his good friend No l Coward cast him in Blithe Spirit Director Otto Preminger saw Webb s performance and cast him in Laura in 1944 Webb began to write his autobiography but he said that he eventually had gotten bogged down in the process However he did complete six chapters and left a hefty collection of notes that he intended to use in the proposed book His writing is as witty and sophisticated as his onscreen persona Those six chapters information and voluminous notes and personal research by coauthor David L Smith provide an intimate view of an amazingly talented man s life and times The American Lawyer Guide to Leading Law Firms , 1983 Expanding Opportunities to Link Research and Clinical

Practice JoAnne Ferrara, Janice L. Nath, Irma N. Guadarrama, Ronald Beebe, 2017-03-01 This volume in the Research in Professional Development Schools book series considers the role professional development schools PDSs play in expanding opportunities for linking research and clinical practice As in past volumes of this series PDS practitioners and researchers make a compelling case for the power of micro level initiatives to change practice Contributors share ideas to expand PDS work beyond site specific contexts to include a broader macro level agenda for clinical practice Authors hope to inspire large scale PDS reform through replication of successful initiatives featured in this volume Evoking change is not easy Nonetheless series editors and contributors conclude that PDSs generate a critical mass of PK 16 educators willing to form partnerships to address enduring educational dilemmas This volume represents a cross section of PDS stakeholders engaged in research along with innovative projects that uncover the richness of clinical practice Higher education faculty school practitioners and preservice teachers featured in these chapters explore the ways PDSs deepen clinical practice while enriching teaching and learning We begin with the discussion by Beebe Stunkard and Nath on the National Association for Professional Development School s NAPDS s role to support teacher candidates clinical practice through the cooperative efforts of university and school based personnel The authors explain NAPDS history and advocacy over the years to promote a context for schooluniversity partnerships to thrive and expand As the premier association guiding the work of collaborative P 12 higher education partnerships we welcome the insightful perspectives provided
