Front Line Women Negotiating Crosscultural Issues In Ministry:

Frontline Women Marguerite G. Kraft, 2012-06-27 Frontline Women is a collection of writings on women's issues from those who have had mission field experience. Each author has special interest and expertise in the area in which he or she has written. In the past we have failed to understand the significance of gender in mission work. Though women have historically been the majority in mission service, they have not been allowed much say in policies or strategizing. This book deals with gender differences in many areas of life and how that affects service to God in mission work. Women's God-given gifting is meant to complement that of men and needs to be recognized, appreciated, and made use of in the day-by-day functioning of missions. In some mission agencies, changes are being made in regard to women's role and care. In this edition, the authors have updated and added new information from their research and experience. Frontline Women Marguerite G. Kraft, 2003 UPRT 2008: Empirical Studies in English Applied Linguistics, Grit to Stay Grace to Go Sue Eenigenburg, Eva Burkholder, 2023-05-30 Don't Leave Too Soon Don't Stay Too Long Staying isn't always good and leaving isn't always bad. Both require grit and grace. Cross-cultural ministry presents us with many difficulties like transitions, loneliness, messy relationships, and the desire to escape. The lies we believe tempt us to leave our work too soon. But nothing tests our resolve to stay like seeing others go. Grit to Stay Grace to Go normalizes the challenges of ministry through honest and humorous stories from the authors' own lives as well as testimonies from many other workers. The point is to help cross-cultural workers not just to stay but to stay well by countering lies with truth. This workbook provides thoughtful reflection questions, practical action steps, and suggested prayers. It encourages stayers to process their grief, guilt, and relief when saying goodbye to goers. In this way, they can move forward with forgiveness and humility and truly bless the departing ones. Those considering leaving will find poignant questions and spiritual practices to help them make an intentional, not reactive, decision. Are you considering leaving the field? Or do you know someone who is? Work through this book by yourself or with others. You will gain wisdom to help workers develop grit and grace to stay or go. Women in God's Mission Mary T. Lederleitner, 2018-11-06 Women have advanced God's mission throughout history but often face particular obstacles in ministry. Mission researcher Mary Lederleitner interviewed respected women in mission leadership from across the globe to gather their insights, expertise, and best practices. These real-life stories will shed light on dynamics that inhibit women, giving both women and men resources for partnering together in effective ministry and mission. I Choose to Forgive Dianne B. Collard, 2011-03-22 One person's story, Every person's struggle, God's Solution. We live in a fallen world where offenses and serious grievances occur in every person's life. These painful situations, whether merely a slight offense or as serious as a murder demand that all of us face the question: Does God expect me to forgive? The answer is clear: The choice is ours to obey. The power to do so comes from God alone. I Choose to Forgive is a heartbreaking journey from devastation to freedom and presents a strong biblical foundation undergirding the practical steps of doing forgiveness. Global Church Planting
