Thompson,2000-01-01 In contrast with the widely popular interest in narrative styles Professor Thompson believes Paul s letters offer a different and valid model for preaching today He clearly demonstrates how the manner of preaching used in the pre Christian culture of Paul is both appropriate and effective in our contemporary post Christian culture Unlike most books on preaching this book does not focus on homiletic technique but on the goal of preaching a needed missing component in contemporary homiletic discussion

Christian Wisdom Meets Modernity ,2016-05-05 The Illuminating Modernity series examines the great but lesser known thinkers in the Romantic Thomist tradition such as Erich Przywara and Fernand Ulrich and shows how outstanding 20th century theologians like Ratzinger and von Balthasar have depended on classical Thomist thought and how they radically reinterpreted this thought The chapters in this volume are dedicated to the encounter between the presuppositions and claims of modern intellectual culture and the Christian confession that the crucified and resurrected Jesus is the power and wisdom of God and is the lord of history and of his church The scholars contributing to this discussion do not assume that Christianity and modernity are two discrete entities which can be readily defined nor do they presume that Christian wisdom and modernity meet each other only in conflict or by coincidence They engage with a variety of great figures Kierkegaard Heidegger Rahner Przywara Guardini Karl Barth and Karol Wojtyla to illustrate the connection between modernism and Christian wisdom The volume concludes with a programmatic statement for the renewal of Christian philosophy that has been able to retain the cosmo theological vision as outlined by Mezei in the final chapter
