From The Congo To Soweto:

From the Congo to Soweto Henry F. Jackson, 1982 The Diplomacy of the Crucial Decade Diane B. Kunz, 1994 Although the foreign policy decisions made by Kennedy and Johnson determined the final form of postwar diplomacy and laid the foundation for the tumultuous worldwide political changes of the last five years until now no book has examined American diplomacy during 1960s as a whole During his presidency Kennedy concentrated on foreign policy The president and his staff feared that communism had taken the offensive internationally and that the U S was in danger of losing the confrontation particularly in the developing world While Johnson attempted to focus on domestic issues foreign issues nevertheless loomed large Consequently the contributors to this volume argue all aspects of American foreign policy during that decade must be viewed through the prism of the fight against communism The chapters which were commissioned for this book by the editor examine the major subjects and themes of this period in a way that provides new insight to students and general readers alike Each chapter also contains brief notes and a bibliographic sketch

THE CONSPIRACY AGAINST AFRICA Charles Akujeze, 2023-09-23 The Conspiracy Against Africa unveils a resonating truth that echoes across borders With insightful precision the book navigates the intricate reasons behind Africa s ongoing economic challenges and subjugation Tracing the pages of history the narrative illuminates the complex interplay between the West and Africa Here Africa s path to prosperity is shackled by the West s unquenchable appetite for its resources This chokehold on Africa s raw materials keeps the global equilibrium but at what expense Unraveling layers of inefficiency ethical cracks and integrity gaps the book dissects Africa s relationship with the Western world It exposes vested interests that hold back progress with unyielding tenacity Yet within this stark analysis a call to arms resounds a rallying cry brimming with urgency and optimism inviting every African to reclaim their essence and dreams This stands as a pivotal turning point urging Africans to cast aside shadows that bind them seizing the reins of fate and forging a destiny that defies exploitation The Conspiracy Against Africa is more than a book it s an awakening an assertion of empowerment amidst suppression It lays bare truths long obscured inviting you on this narrative journey to reclaim Africa s story and usher in an era of empowerment justice and self determination

The African Foreign Policy of Secretary of State Henry Kissinger Hanes Walton Jr., Robert Louis Stevenson, James Bernard Rosser Sr., 2007-02-23 The African Foreign Policy of Secretary of State Henry Kissinger outlines in clear comprehensive terms the details of Secretary of State Henry Kissinger s foreign policy toward Africa and how that policy related to other aspects of his global viewpoint For the first time editors Hanes Walton Jr Robert Louis Stevenson and James Bernard Rosser bring together a diverse collection of public documents speeches and congressional presentations for critical analysis and in depth discussion This book presents an intellectual evaluation of governmental sources to determine the kinds of foreign policy proposals and programs that Kissinger developed for the various crises and problems which were under way in Africa The essays demonstrate how Kissinger used his brand of shuttle diplomacy to set up delicate negotiations to ease the new international tensions and the power rivalry The African Foreign Policy of Secretary of State Henry Kissinger offers important insight that will stimulate debate and be a lively read for those interested in international politics and political science

Long March Ahead R. Drew Smith, 2004-12-16 Ten essayists discuss the black church's public activism on national policy issues in the post Civil Rights period focusing on issues such as health care affirmative action welfare reform and public education

African International Relations Mark W. DeLancey, 2019-03-13 African International Relations is a thoroughly revised and updated bibliography that contains annotated entries for international books and journal articles in the field of African international relations

Rising Wind Brenda Gayle Plummer, 2000-11-09 African Americans have a long history of active involvement and interest in international affairs but their efforts have been largely ignored by scholars of American foreign policy Gayle Plummer brings a new perspective to the study of twentieth century American history with her analysis of black Americans engagement with international issues from the Italian invasion of Ethiopia in 1935 through the wave of African independence movements of the early 1960s Plummer first examines how collective definitions of ethnic identity race and racism have influenced African American views on foreign affairs She then probes specific developments in the international arena that galvanized the black community including the rise of fascism World War II the emergence of human rights as a factor in international law the Cold War and the American civil rights movement which had important foreign policy implications However she demonstrates that not all African Americans held the same views on particular issues and that a variety of considerations helped shape foreign affairs agendas within the black community just as in American society at large

Public History and Culture in South Africa Ali Khangela Hlongwane, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, 2019-04-11 The post apartheid era in South Africa has in the space of nearly two decades experienced a massive memory boom manifest in a plethora of new memorials and museums and in the renaming of streets buildings cities and more across the country This memorialisation is intricately linked to questions of power liberation and public history in the making and remaking of the South African nation Ali Khangela Hlongwane and Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu analyse an array of these liberation heritage sites including the Hector Pieterse Memorial and Museum the June 16 1976 Interpretation Centre the Apartheid Museum and the Mandela House Museum foregrounding the work of migrant workers architects visual artists and activists in the practice of memorialisation As they argue memorialisation has been integral to the process of state and nation formation from the pre colonial era through the present day

The United States and West Africa Alusine Jalloh, Toyin Falola, 2008 The first volume devoted to interrogating the complex relationship both historic and contemporary between the United States and West Africa Over the last several decades historians have conducted extensive research into contact between the United States and West Africa during the era of the transatlantic trade Yet we still understand relatively little about more recent relations between the two areas This multidisciplinary volume presents the most comprehensive analysis of the U S West African relationship to date filling a significant gap in the literature by examining the social cultural political and economic bonds that have in recent years drawn these two world regions into increasingly closer contact Beginning with examinations of factors that linked the nations during European colonial rule of Africa and spanning to discussions of U S foreign policy with regard to West Africa from the Cold War through the end of the twentieth century and beyond these essays constitute the first volume devoted to interrogating the complex relationship both historic and contemporary between the United States and West Africa Contributors Abdul Karim Bangura Karen B Bell Peter A Dumbuya Kwame Essien Andrew I E Ewoh Toyin Falola Osman Gbla John Wess Grant Stephen A Harmon Harold R Harris Olawale Ismail Alusine Jalloh Fred L Johnson III Stephen Kandeh Ibrahim Kargbo Bayo Lawal Ayodeji Olukoju Adebayo Oyebade Christopher Ruane Anita Spring Ibrahim Sundiata Hakeem Ibikunle Tijani Ken Vincent and Amanda Warnock Alusine Jalloh is associate professor of history and founding director of The Africa Program at the University of Texas at Arlington Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin Africa, Latin America, and the Caribbean Sabella Ogbobode Abidde, 2018-03-01 As important as state to state and multi state cooperation have long proven to be many countries in the Global South have yet to fully explore its potentials Despite their shared history of slavery colonialism and underdevelopment Africa Latin America and the Caribbean currently show a lack of significant cooperation Africa Latin America and the Caribbean The Case for Bilateral and Multilateral Cooperation therefore makes the case for an increased and renewed effort at bilateral and multilateral cooperation between the three regions In this multidisciplinary work scholars make the case for renewing continuing and deepening relationships between the people the state and the non governmental organizations in the three spheres taking not only an economic and political point of view but also considering sociological geographical and historical perspectives as well Reform, Conflict, and Security in Zaire , AF Press Clips ,1991 Modernization, Democracy, and Islam Shireen T.
