From The Fairway:

Slices I. J. Schecter, 2010-02-18 Millions of words are written in this field every year but few better than those that come from I J Schecter Jane Carter Editor Golf Monthly In golf there are the elite and then there are the rest of us We others lumped together in the Duffer Zone you know us from the formal announcements we send out whenever we break 100 are like the thousands who finish mid pack in a big city marathon happily unremarkable content just to enjoy the sunshine with some like minded others unconcerned about the guy who crossed the tape forty minutes earlier We are competent but not brilliant We are enthusiastic though a far cry from intense Our fairway woods are mostly reliable but put a 3 iron in our hands and we might as well be swinging a screwdriver To the low and high handicapper alike golf represents an ongoing quest and an exhilarating challenge In this brilliant collection award winning author I J Schecter embarks on a dogged pursuit of golf s elusive Holy Grail breaking 100 with hilarious results Clinging to boundless and often groundless optimism Schecter attempts to untangle the secret to good golf in increasingly desperate ways like playing five different courses in five days accompanying a greenskeeping team on their pre dawn rounds trying to replicate one of Tiger Woods legendary shots and turning to a three year old for guidance Like any golfer he comes to realize that the journey though demanding proves its own reward A unique book from a gifted writer Slices is an eloquent witty celebration of both the game of golf and the unwavering efforts of those who try again and again to tame it
