From The Orient The Desert:

From the Orient and the Desert Ghazi A. Algosaibi, Ghāzī ‘Abd al-Raḥmān Quṣaybī, 1979 From the Orient and the Desert Ghāzī ‘Abd al-Raḥmān Quṣaybī, 1994 First Published in 1994 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company From the Orient & the Desert Algosaibi, 2021-09-30 First Published in 1994 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company From The Orient & The Desert Ghazi A. Algosaibi, 2020-03-10 First Published in 1994 From the Orient and the Desert is a collection of fifteen poems from Ghazi A Algosaibi With pencil drawn illustrations by Andrew Vicari The Orient and the Young Romantics Andrew Warren, 2014-11-06 Through close readings of major poems this book examines why the second generation Romantic poets Byron Shelley and Keats stage so much of their poetry in Eastern or Orientalized settings It argues that they do so not only to interrogate their own imaginations but also as a way of criticizing Europe s growing imperialism For them the Orient is a projection of Europe s own fears and desires It is therefore a charged setting in which to explore and contest the limits of the age s aesthetics politics and culture Being nearly always self conscious and ironic the poets treatment of the Orient becomes itself a twinned criticism of Romantic egotism and the Orientalism practised by earlier generations The book goes further to claim that poems like Shelley s Revolt of Islam Byron s Eastern Tales or even Keats s Lamia anticipate key issues at stake in postcolonial studies more generally The Poetics and Politics of the Desert Catrin Gersdorf, 2009 This study explores the ways in which the desert as topographical space and cultural presence shaped and reshaped concepts and images of America Once a territory outside the geopolitical and cultural borders of the United States the deserts of the West and Southwest have since emerged as canonical American landscapes Drawing on the critical concepts of American studies and on questions and problems raised in recent debates on ecocriticism The Poetics and Politics of the Desert investigates the spatial rhetoric of America as it developed in view of arid landscapes since the mid nineteenth century Gersdorf argues that the integration of the desert into America catered to the entire spectrum of ideological and political responses to the history and culture of the US maintaining that the Americanization of this landscape was and continues to be staged within the idiomatic parameters and in reaction to the discursive authority of four spatial metaphors garden wilderness Orient and heterotopia Desert road archaeology in ancient Egypt and beyond Heiko Riemer, 2013-01-01 The Radical Faces of Godard and Bertolucci Yosefa Loshitzky, 1995 From the radical 1960s through the neo conservative 1980s and into the early 1990s the provocative cinematic careers of French director Jean Luc Godard and Italian director Bernardo Bertolucci have captured the imagination of filmgoers and critics alike Although their films differ greatly Godard produces highly cerebral and theoretical works while Bertolucci creates films with more spectacle and emotionalism their careers have sparked lively discussion and debate mostly centred around the notion of an Oedipal struggle between them Vogue, 1925 Foreign Bodies Madeleine Dobie, 2001 Building on the critical foundations established by Edward Said in Orientalism Foreign Bodies examines the relationship between the Orientalist tradition in French art and literature and France's colonial history. It focuses on a central dimension of this exchange: the prevalent figure of the oriental woman and the interplay of race and gender in both domestic and colonial history. It also offers a genealogy of contemporary French attitudes to Islamic culture in which beliefs about sexuality and gender relations continue to occupy a privileged place. The author examines the extent to which the rhetorical status and political implications of Orientalism register the changing circumstances of French colonial activity, tracing the convergence or divergence of colonial practice and the literary record. She also argues against the tendency in both historical and theoretical writing on colonialism to divide center from margins, metropolitan from colonial. Instead, she shows how colonial products and ideas permeated the domestic culture and shaped its evolution. Finally, the book proposes that the feminine figures of Orientalist texts are often interwoven with representations of language and more specifically with representations of language as an alien and resistant code, something other than the transparent medium of ideas. It suggests that in promoting awareness that language is not simply the neutral medium of thought and experience, these veiled figures of language function as foreign bodies creating disruptive effects within an economy orchestrated toward the production of knowledge of the other. However, the book also argues against the view espoused by certain critics that the self-reflexivity of Orientalist writing fully counteracts its polarizing political effects, arguing instead for a process of double reading that acknowledges both the geopolitical power encoded within Orientalist representation and the ways in which specific texts resist this power.

Cultural Encounters Elizabeth Hallam, Brian Street, 2013-11-05. Cultural Encounters examines how otherness has been constituted, communicated, and transformed in cultural representation. Covering a diverse range of media including film, TV, advertisements, video, photographs, painting, novels, poetry, newspapers, and material objects, the contributors, who include Ludmilla Jordanova and Ivan Karp, explore the cultural politics of Europe's encounters with Brazil, India, Israel, Australia, and Africa, examining the ways in which visual and textual art forms operate in their treatment of cultural difference. Taboo Memories, Diasporic Voices Ella Shohat, 2006-07-17. Essays by a leading postcolonial theorist on topics including gender, diaspora, film, and Israel. Transnational Landscapes and Postmodern Poetics Asma Hichri, Samira Mechri, 2017-11-06. This book moves beyond conventional conceptions of space and place to explore how the spatial imagination has informed our postmodern mapping of literature, culture, history, geography, and politics. In this volume, scholars from different academic fields contest new territories for critical expression, venturing into a geocritical discussion of notions of identity, borders, territory, cognitive geographies, global cultural mobility, gendered spaces, postcolonial cartographies, and spaces of resistance. These brilliant discussions of the postmodern dialectics of space and place invite a reappraisal of the value of space in our social, political, and historical realities, thus extending the geographical imagination beyond its physical and territorial manifestations and investigating its hitherto uncharted spiritual, psychic, emotional, literary, and symbolic terrains. Bringing together theoretical and critical contributions in the fields of culture, history, politics, and literature, this engaging work invites readers to think geocritically about the significance of space and place in the postmodern age It represents essential reading for students critics and scholars from various academic fields and disciplines including history geography cultural studies anthropology political science literature and critical theory Visions of the East Matthew Bernstein,Gaylyn Studlar,1997 Essays on orientalism in American and European cinema Oriental Institute Communications ,1922 Discourses and Practices of Othering Banu Baybars,Sarphan Uzunoğlu,Mine Bertan Yilmaz,2022-12-21 This book undertakes the theme of othering as a broad set of practices and discourses It includes as many perspectives as possible while simultaneously providing a focused environment for discussions on how otherization is built across media genres and policy making through cultural and political articulations The book includes a set of chapters that investigate how and to what end others are manufactured and how they are anchored in the collective memory Through an analysis of various media such as film news media and social media it sheds light on the institutional political social and economic forces that form and transform the discourses and practices of othering Screening Strangers Yosefa Loshitzky,2010-03-08 Yosefa Loshitzky challenges the utopian notion of a post national New Europe by focusing on the waves of migrants and refugees that some view as a potential threat to European identity a concern heightened by the rhetoric of the war on terror the London Underground bombings and the riots in Paris s banlieues Opening a cinematic window onto this struggle Loshitzky determines patterns in the representation and negotiation of European identity in several European films from the late 20th and early 21st centuries including Bernardo Bertolucci s Besieged Stephen Frears s Dirty Pretty Things Mathieu Kassovitz s La Haine and Michael Winterbottom s In This World Code 46 and The Road to Guantanamo The Oriental Institute of the University of Chicago James Henry Breasted,1922 The Correspondence of Ezra Pound and the Frobenius Institute, 1930-1959 Ezra Pound,2024-02-22 Collecting in full for the first time the correspondence between Ezra Pound and members of Leo Frobenius Forschungsinstitut f r Kulturmorphologie in Frankfurt across a 30 year period this book sheds new light on an important but previously unexplored influence on Pound s controversial intellectual development in the Fascist era Ezra Pound s long term interest in anthropology and ethnography exerted a profound influence on early 20th century literary Modernism These letters reveal the extent of the influence of Frobenius concept of Paideuma on Pound s poetic and political writings during this period and his growing engagement with the culture of Nazi Germany Annotated throughout the letters are supported by contextualising essays by leading Modernist scholars as well as relevant contemporary published articles by Pound himself and his leading correspondent at the Institute the American Douglas C Fox Otherness and the Media Hamid Naficy,Teshome H. Gabriel,2016-10-04 This anthology on otherness and the media first published in 1993 was prompted by the proliferation of writings centring on issues of difference diversity multiculturalism representation and postcolonial discourses Such issues and discourses question existing canons of criticism theory and cultural practice but also because they suggest a new sense of direction in theorisation of difference and representation

Adopting the Melody of Term: An Psychological Symphony within From The Orient The Desert

In some sort of consumed by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instantaneous interaction, the melodic elegance and psychological symphony developed by the prepared word frequently disappear into the backdrop, eclipsed by the constant sound and distractions that permeate our lives. However, nestled within the pages of From The Orient The Desert a charming literary prize overflowing with natural feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a masterful composer of language, this charming masterpiece conducts readers on a mental journey, skillfully unraveling the hidden tunes and profound impact resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of this touching assessment, we shall explore the book is main harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing type, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
