From Research Policy to Social Intelligence Jan Annerstedt, 1988 From Research Policy to Social Intelligence

Jan Annerstedt, Andrew Jamieson, 1988-09-23 A collection of essays on the politics of science and technology including discussions on the relations between scientific and technical development the role of social movements in this development the challenge of modern technology to democracy and the emergence of social intelligence Stevan Dedijer Stevan Dedijer, 2010-01-01 Stevan Dedijer 1911-2004 was born as a Serb in Bosnia Hercegovina by politically active parents After a childhood marked by the assassination of Arch duke Franz Ferdinand in June 1914 and the catastrophe of the First World War Stevan entered a life long strange odyssey through the ideas and institutions of a turbulent century As an immigrant in the U S during the Great Depression Stevan joined the Communist Party With party consent he was recruited by the secret U S intelligence service OSS and was trained for sabotage mission in the Nazi occupied Yugoslavia Purged from the OSS he volunteered for the Army and was assigned to the 101st airborne as a bodyguard for the divisional commander general Maxwell Taylor Arriving too late for the Normandy landing he parachuted over Arnhem in the failed Operation Market Garden Still under party orders he bailed out yelling Long live Stalin After seeing extensive combat around Bastogne in the Battle of the Bulge Stevan was transferred from the US Army to the Tito Partisan movement that he had wanted to join since the beginning of the war Together with his elder brother Vladimir Stevan made a lightning career in post war Yugoslavia including posts as editor in chief of the party newspaper Borba and the directorship of the Yugoslav Atomic Energy Institute the latter assignment given to him he had studied physics at Princeton in the mid 1930s After Tito's break with Moscow and the violent crackdown on dissidents in the 1950s Stevan as several others in the new communist elite became increasingly critical of Tito's dictatorship and the lack of freedom Purged and put in internal exile Stevan finally managed to escape Yugoslavia through an invitation to the Niels Bohr Institute in Copenhagen arranged by the Swedish professor of nuclear physics Torsten Gustafson in Lund With his assistance and contacts Stevan was granted political asylum in Sweden and was able to establish himself at Lund University where he founded what was to become the Research Policy Institute Leaving nuclear physics behind Stevan now moved into the field of information and knowledge production formulating the concept of a coming information explosion decades before it became common knowledge Formulating a theory of Social Intelligence Stevan foresaw the coming of an age where individuals and organisations alike would become dependent on their ability to collect process and use information Stevan Dedijer's work in the field of social intelligence made him one of the pioneers and inspirers of the development of business intelligence relying on the increased information from open sources His life span made a full circle as he after the fall of communism returned to Yugoslavia and the city of Dubrovnik not far from where his father had been born more than a century earlier As a twist of fate Stevan was to experience the third war of his life My most horrible war as he writes in this breathtaking humorous and self reflecting account of a human life shaped by the horrors and promises of twentieth century history and a personality characterised by determination curiosity and an astonishing absence of self pity The Blackwell Dictionary of Modern Social Thought William Outhwaite,2008-04-15 Modern social thought ranges widely from the social sciences to philosophy political theories and doctrines cultural ideas and movements and the influence of the natural sciences Provides an authoritative overview of the main themes of social thought Long essays and entries give full coverage to each topic Covers major currents of thought philosophical and cultural trends and the individual social sciences from anthropology to welfare economics New edition updates about 200 entries and includes new entries suggestions for further reading and a bibliography of all sources cited within the text Achieving Nuclear Ambitions

Jacques E. C. Hymans,2012-02-16 Despite the global spread of nuclear hardware and knowledge at least half of the nuclear weapons projects launched since 1970 have definitively failed and even the successful projects have generally needed far more time than expected To explain this puzzling slowdown in proliferation Jacques E C Hymans focuses on the relations between politicians and scientific and technical workers in developing countries By undermining the workers spirit of professionalism developing country rulers unintentionally thwart their own nuclear ambitions Combining rich theoretical analysis in depth historical case studies of Iraq China Yugoslavia and Argentina and insightful analyses of current day proliferant states Achieving Nuclear Ambitions develops a powerful new perspective that effectively counters the widespread fears of a coming cascade of new nuclear powers Information Management for the Intelligent Organization Chun

Wei Choo,2002 Information is the organisation s strategic resource yet much of the information that an organisation receives is nuance and innuendo more of a potential than a prescription for action This book will help you gain an understanding of how an organisation may manage its information processes more effectively in order to increase its capacity to learn and adapt Social Intelligence ,1991 Alternative Globalizations S. A. Hamed Hosseini,2009-12-04 Are the growing oppositions to neoliberal market globalism especially in the aftermath of global economic meltdown able to develop meaningful alternative ideologies Is there any substantial alternative to the world capitalist system on the horizon How would the ideologies and ideas address the dire dilemmas of economy vs ecology redistribution vs recognition global vs local reform vs revolution etc This book answers such important questions by examining the intellectual structure of the so called anti globalization or global justice movement It explores the formation and transformation of ideas identities and solidarities in the movement The book also develops an analytical model to explain the movement s ideational novelties and continuities in terms of both activist social experiences and global social changes Hosseini develops new sociological concepts integrates opposing theoretical perspectives into one approach and addresses the gap between critical theories and activist practices Through this endeavor he discovers an emerging mode of consciousness which is characterized by its cross identity and cross ideological nature This is a live but quiet global revolution Drawing on a variety of disciplines this ground breaking volume will be of interest to students and scholars of global studies political sciences sociology and social movement studies

Measuring the Impact of Information on Development M. J. Menou, International Development Research Centre (Canada), 1993

Measuring the Impact of Information on Development Jan Fagerberg, 2018-04-27 This authoritative and enlightening book focuses on fundamental questions such as what is innovation who is it relevant for what are the effects and what is the role of innovation policy in supporting innovation diffusion The first two sections present a comprehensive overview of our current knowledge on the phenomenon and analyse how this knowledge and the scholarly community underpinning it has evolved towards its present state The third part explores the role of innovation for growth and development while section four is concerned with the national innovation system and the role of innovation policy in influencing its dynamics and responding to the important challenges facing contemporary societies
