From Shamrocks To Sagebrush:

Sagebrush Philosophy - by Bill Barlow ,1905 Union Oil Project/Exxon Project Shamrock and Central Santa Maria Basin Area Study ,1985 Into the Second Springtime June Marie W. Saxton,2010-10-18 Viet Nam the hippie movement Roe v Wade inflation OPEC crisis Watergate the perceived loss of America s innocence provides the national stage for Into the Second Springtime Meet Wesley Gallagher a precocious young man who is prone to making mischief and scheming shenanigans You ll laugh at Wesley s perceptions of the world and fall in love with the strong and steady influences in his life With stormy issues facing the nation you ll cheer at the bright beacons of light guiding Wesley quietly instilling values that create a healthy and substantial anchor in this tender coming of age novel Written with unpretentious messages of charity forgiveness hope humor love and respect you will cheer Hurrah for America again Beaten Down David Peterson del Mar,2011-10-01 Selected by Choice as an Outstanding Academic Title for 2003 The word violence conjures up images of terrorism bombings and lynchings Beaten Down is concerned with more prosaic acts of physical force a husband slapping his wife a parent taking a birch branch to a child a pair of drunken friends squaring off to establish who was the better man David Peterson del Mar accounts for the social relations of power that lie behind this intimate form of violence this white noise that has always been with us humming quietly between more explosive acts of violence Broad in its chronological and cultural sweep Beaten Down examines interpersonal violence in Washington Oregon and British Columbia beginning with Native American cultures before colonization and continuing into the mid twentieth century It contrasts the disparate ways of practicing and punishing interpersonal violence on each side of the U S Canadian border Del Mar concludes that we cannot comprehend the causes and moral consequences of a violent act without considering larger social relations of power whether between colonizers and original inhabitants between spouses between parents and children or between and among different ethnic groups The author has drawn on a vast array of vivid sources including newspaper accounts autobiographies novels oral histories historical and ethnographic publications and hundreds of detailed court cases to account for not only the relative frequency of different forms of violence but also the shifting definitions and perceptions of what constitutes violence This is a thoughtful and probing account of how and why people have hit each other and the manner in which opinion makers and ordinary citizens have censured defended or celebrated such acts Del Mar s conclusions have important implications for an understanding of violence and perceptions of violence in contemporary society Sage Brush Leaves Henry Rust

Carefully woven Netting the Sun offers a diversity of natural and human stories from a landscape seemingly empty and forlorn to passing casual travelers This surprising interpretation of south central Oregon s botany geology climate wildlife ethnography and history reveals what a truly special place the high desert is Born in the sagebrush community of Lakeview in 1941 the author moved on following high school graduation But as with many native sons and daughters from America s out of the way places the urge to return to his roots proved irresistible in middle age I endeavored to write this collection about the Oregon desert because of my childhood there Adams writes but also because it is a place of startling mystery subdued danger and beauty
