At the Crossroads Masiwa Ragies Gunda, 2018-10-15 A Baptist at the Crossroads Obbie Tyler Todd, 2021-08-23 South Carolina Baptist Richard Furman 1755-1825 personified a host of seeming contradictions As a Regular Baptist baptized by a Separate Baptist an ardent patriot with puritan sensibilities a Federalist who zealously defended religious liberty and a slave owning aristocrat who associated with backwoods revivalists Furman is a complex figure in American history His doctrine of atonement exhibited this same complexity as he uniquely held to both a penal substitutionary theory of the atonement as well as to a moral governmental view models of the atonement that were often conceived as mutually exclusive in the nineteenth century Furman was the first of his American Baptist kind to attempt to integrate these two models As a Baptist standing at the political cultural and theological crossroads of America Furman blended Edwardsean and confessional Calvinism Regular and Separate Baptist traditions and a host of other elements into his theology laying the groundwork for an entire generation of Southern Baptists who followed in his theological footsteps

God at the Crossroads of Worldviews Paul Seungoh Chung, 2016-10-22 Debates about the existence of God persist but remain at an impasse between opposing answers God at the Crossroads of Worldviews reframes the debate from a new perspective characterizing the way these positions have been defined and defended not as wrong per se but rather as odd or awkward Paul Chung begins with a general survey of the philosophical debate regarding the existence of God particularly as the first cause and how this involves a bewildering array of often incommensurable positions that differ on the meaning of key concepts criteria of justification and even on where to start the discussion According to Chung these positions are in fact arguments both for and against larger more comprehensive intellectual positions which in turn comprise a set of rival worldviews Moreover there is no neutral rationality completely independent of these worldviews and capable of resolving complex intellectual questions such as that of the existence of God Building from Alasdair MacIntyre's writings on rival intellectual traditions Chung proposes that to argue about God we must first stand at the crossroads of the different intellectual journeys of the particular rival worldviews in the debate and that the discovery of such a crossroad itself constitutes an argument about the existence of God Chung argues that this is what Thomas Aquinas accomplished in his Five Ways which are often misunderstood as simple proofs From such crossroads the debate may proceed toward a more fruitful exploration of the question of God's existence Chung sketches out one such crossroad by suggesting ways in which Christianity and scientific naturalism can begin a mutual dialogue from a different direction God at the Crossroads of Worldviews will be read by philosophers of religion advanced undergraduate and graduate students and theologians and general readers interested in the new atheism debates Jews at the Crossroads Yitshak Kohn, 1983 Cinema at the Crossroads Hyon Joo Yoo, 2012-04-25 In Cinema at the Crossroads Nation and the Subject in East Asian Cinema Hyon Joo Yoo argues that East Asian experiences of colonialism and postcolonialism call for a different conceptualization of postcoloniality subjectivity and the nation Through its analyses of Japanese Korean and Taiwanese cinemas this engaging study of cinema and culture charts the ways in which national cinemas visualize colonial and postcolonial conditions that derive from the history of Japanese colonialism and the post war alliance between Japan and the United States What does it mean to rethink postcolonial studies through East Asian cinema and experience Yoo pursues this question by bringing an East Asian postcolonial framework the notion of film as a manifestation of national culture and the methodology of psychoanalysis to bear on a failed hegemonic subject Cinema at the Crossroads is a profound look into how cinema and national culture intertwine with hegemony and power From the Cross Roads of Hell Hole Michael J. Howard, 2008-02 Guyana at the Crossroads Dennis Watson, 2021-09-30 This is a collection of discussions and presentations collected from the seminar Guyana at the Crossroads held on November 1 1991 was sponsored and organized by the Caribbean Resources Development Foundation CARDEV in association with the North South Center University of Miami and Florida International University The main objective of the seminar was to provide an open nonpartisan forum for discussion of ideas policies and directions of change in political and economic arenas To this end CARDEV invited government spokesmen and leaders of the major opposition parties to participate in presentations and panel discussions Theology at the Crossroads of University, Church and Society Lieven Boeve, 2016-08-25 Lieven Boeve examines the place of theology in the university the church and society He emphasizes that theology certainly belongs to all of these three domains as it belongs to the nature of theology to involve itself in all three spheres especially at the crossroads where they overlap Boeve discusses the recent document Theology Today from the International Theological Commission which circumscribes theology's place and task in the Catholic Church Boeve discusses how the difficult relation between theology and philosophy is typical for a Church which has difficulty with the dialogue in today's world as well as examines the relation between theology and religious studies Going further Boeve offers a reflection on Catholic identity today focusing more specifically on education He presents four models for considering the identity of Catholic schools in the light of the changed society and argues that dialogue in a context of plurality and difference can lead to new fruitful ways to shape even the Catholic identity Boeve concludes his discussion with a short assessment of Pope Benedict's papacy and emphasizes the need for the Catholic Church to convert itself before it can call the world to do the same
