Three Little Kittens Katharine Pyle, 2024-11-24 Jazbury came scampering gaily up the stairs to where his mother and Aunt Tabby were sitting on the window sill washing their faces and cleaning their fur Jazbury was a small black kitten with white markings on his face and breast and soft little white paws Soft as those little paws were there were sharp needle claws hidden in their velvet and Jazbury knew how to use them when necessary too Mother Bunch's tail hung down from the window seat waving softly It looked almost like a mouse so soft and grey Jazbury made a jump and caught it with his claws His mother growled and drew her tail up and curled it around her Jazbury jumped up after it and tried to tease his mother into playing with him Jazbury you haven't washed yourself this morning said his aunt severely Look at your paws You've been in the coal bin again you naughty kitten Well I thought I heard a mouse there mewed Jazbury
