Pitts,2015-09-17 This work covers Bronson s entire output in film and on television and includes many film stills and photographs Alphabetical entries list film or episode complete cast and credits and year of release Accompanying each entry s plot synopsis and discussion is a survey of the critical responses to the work The great Charles Laughton once said Bronson has the strongest face in the business and he is also one of its best actors Pretty high praise for an actor who though loved by fans worldwide has been consistently underestimated by critics Bronson's career has spanned five decades from such television appearances in The Fugitive, Rawhide, Bonanza and Have Gun Will Travel as well as the telemovie A Family of Cops 1995 and its two sequels. He will long be remembered for his role as urban vigilante Paul Kersey in the Death Wish films. Bronson is one of the most enigmatic and also most recognizable of all film stars. Illustrated Sporting & Dramatic News, 1919. Australia's First Rotary Club Owen Parnaby, 2002. The Rotary Club of Melbourne was the first of its kind in Australia. Since its inaugural luncheon on 21 April 1921, the club has had an outstanding record of philanthropic endeavour and charity work as well as service to the cause of Rotary on the international scene. The list of members of the early Melbourne club reads like a Who's Who of Australian businessmen since World War I. In later years, with the increase in the number of Melbourne-based clubs, not to mention the admission of women members in the late 1980s, the range and interests of members was less concentrated, leading to a greater diversity of activities. The Melbourne club is now faced with changing social and economic conditions that are causing the breakdown of community cohesion. The first Rotary Club was born out of a response to the competitive and harsh business environment of Chicago in 1905. The Melbourne club is responding to similar conditions by seeing them as an opportunity to expand the tradition of service. The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film Alan Goble, 2011-09-08.
