Critical Encounters in Secondary English continues to help teachers integrate the lenses of contemporary literary theory into practices that have always defined good pedagogy. The most significant change for this edition is the addition of Critical Race Theory (CRT) as an analytical lens. CRT offers teachers fresh opportunities for interdisciplinary planning and teaching as it lends itself to lessons that encompass a variety of disciplines such as history, sociology, psychology, and science. As with the previous edition, each chapter concludes with a list of suggested nonfiction pieces that work well for the particular lens under discussion. This popular text provides a comprehensive approach to incorporating nonfiction and informational texts into the literature classroom with new and revised classroom activities appropriate for today's students.

Book Features:

- Helps both pre and inservice ELA teachers introduce contemporary literary theory into their classrooms.
- Offers lucid and accessible explications of contemporary literary theory.
- Provides dozens of innovative and field-tested classroom activities.
- Tackles the thorny issue of Critical Race Theory in helpful and practical ways.

Praise for the Third Edition:

What a smart and useful book! It provides teachers with a wealth of knowledge and material to help their students develop critical perspective and suppleness of thought. Mike Rose, University of California, Los Angeles

This Third Edition proves that Appleman still has her hand on the pulse of the rapidly changing landscape of education. Ernest Morrell, Teachers College, Columbia University

This new edition of Deborah Appleman's now classic book demonstrates even more dramatically than previously how the critical theories she so skillfully teaches serve not only as lenses for the reading of literature but as tools for discovering, interrogating, and challenging injustice, hypocrisy, and the hidden power relations that students are likely to encounter. Sheridan Blau, Teachers College, Columbia University
