End Of Art:

Arthur Danto and the End of Art Raquel Cascales, 2019-08-20 To get a comprehensive understanding of the core concept of the end of art this book analyses the intellectual trajectory of Arthur Danto highlighting his successive achievements in philosophy of action philosophy of history and philosophy of art If as Danto says everything is extensively associated with everything else it is impossible to avoid putting the philosophy of art in relation with his whole philosophical system The End of Art Eva Geulen, 2006 Since Hegel the idea of an end of art has become a staple of aesthetic theory This book analyzes its role and its rhetoric in Hegel Nietzsche Benjamin Adorno and Heidegger in order to account for the topic's enduring persistence In addition to providing a general overview of the main thinkers of post Idealist German aesthetics the book explores the relationship between tradition and modernity For despite the differences that distinguish one philosopher's end of art from another's all authors treated here turn the end of art into an occasion to thematize and to reflect on the very thing that modernism cannot or should not be tradition As a discourse the end of art is one of our modern traditions Danto and His Critics David Carrier, 1998 Art and Posthistory Arthur C. Danto, Demetrio Paparoni, 2022-08-09 From the 1990s until just before his death the legendary art critic and philosopher Arthur C Danto carried out extended conversations about contemporary art with the prominent Italian critic Demetrio Paparoni Their discussions ranged widely over a vast range of topics from American pop art and minimalism to abstraction and appropriationism Yet they continually returned to the concepts at the core of Danto's thinking posthistory and the end of aesthetics provocative notions that to this day shape questions about the meaning and future of contemporary art Art and Posthistory presents these rich dialogues and correspondence testifying to the ongoing importance of Danto's ideas It offers readers the opportunity to experience the intellectual excitement of Danto in person speculating in a freewheeling yet erudite style Danto and Paparoni discuss figures such as Andy Warhol Marcel Duchamp Franz Kline Sean Scully Clement Greenberg Cindy Sherman and Wang Guangyi offering both insightful comments on individual works and sweeping observations about wider issues On occasion the artist Mimmo Paladino and the philosopher Mario Perniola join the conversation enlivening the discussion and adding their own perspectives The book also features an introductory essay by Paparoni that provides lucid analysis of Danto's thinking emphasizing where the two disagree as well as what they learned from each other Beauty and the End of Art Sonia Sedivy, 2016-04-21 Beauty and the End of Art shows how a resurgence of interest in beauty and a sense of ending in Western art are challenging us to rethink art beauty and their relationship By arguing that Wittgenstein's later work and contemporary theory of perception offer just what we need for a unified approach to art and beauty Sonia Sedivy provides new answers to these contemporary challenges These new accounts also provide support for the Wittgensteinian realism and theory of perception that make them possible Wittgenstein's subtle form of realism explains artworks in terms of norm governed practices that have their own varied constitutive norms and values Wittgensteinian realism also suggests that diverse beauties become available and compelling in different cultural eras and bring a shared higher order value into view. With this framework in place Sedivy argues that perception is a form of engagement with the world that draws on our conceptual capacities. This approach explains how perceptual experience and the perceptible presence of the world are of value helping to account for the diversity of beauties that are available in different historical contexts and why the many faces of beauty allow us to experience the value of the world's perceptible presence. Carefully examining contemporary debates about art aesthetics and perception Beauty and the End of Art presents an original approach. Insights from such diverse thinkers as Immanuel Kant, Hans Georg Gadamer and Arthur Danto, Alexander Nehamas, Elaine Scarry and Dave Hickey are woven together to reveal how they make good sense if we bring contemporary theory of perception and Wittgensteinian realism into the conversation.

The End of Art Eva Geulen, 2022. Since Hegel the idea of an end of art has become a staple of aesthetic theory. This book analyzes its role and its rhetoric in Hegel, Nietzsche, Benjamin Adorno and Heidegger in order to account for the topic's enduring persistence. In addition to providing a general overview of the main thinkers of post-Idealist German aesthetics, the book explores the relationship between tradition and modernity. For despite the differences that distinguish one philosopher's end of art from another's, all authors treated here turn the end of art into an occasion to thematize and to reflect on the very thing that modernism cannot or should not be: tradition. As a discourse, the end of art is one of our modern traditions.

End-of-Art Philosophy in Hegel, Nietzsche and Danto Stephen Snyder, 2018-11-15. This book examines the little understood end of art theses of Hegel, Nietzsche and Danto. The end of art claim is often associated with the end of a certain standard of taste or skill. However, at a deeper level, it relates to a transformation in how we philosophically understand our relation to the world. Hegel, Nietzsche and Danto each strive philosophically to overcome Cartesian dualism, redrawing the traditional lines between mind and matter. Hegel sees the overcoming of the material in the ideal; Nietzsche levels the two worlds into one; and Danto divides the world into representing and non-representing material. These attempts to overcome dualism necessitate notions of the self that differ significantly from traditional accounts; the redrawn boundaries show that art and philosophy grasp essential but different aspects of human existence. Neither perspective, however, fully grasps the duality. The appearance of art's end occurs when one aspect is given priority. For Hegel and Danto, it is the essentialist lens of philosophy; and in Nietzsche's case, the transformative power of artistic creativity. Thus, the book makes the case that the end of art claim is avoided if a theory of art links the internal practice of artistic creation to all of art's historical forms.

The End Carel Blotkamp, 2019. When is a work of art finished? Can it be complete in a mental sense? And who decides? In this highly original and wide-ranging study, Carel Blotkamp explores the concept and manifestations of the end in art. From the idea of a mortal end to the notion of completeness, Blotkamp describes a fascinating array of historical facts and myths, as well as novels on art and artists. He examines the value of the last works of artists, considering how a particular end came about and how that might affect our perception of the work the difference in the styles of artists in old age unfinished last works and those completed by another's hand and the mythology inherent in the reception of last works taking the last works of Raphael and Mondrian as prime examples For students artists and art enthusiasts looking for a new perspective on modern art The End is the perfect place to start First published in Dutch in 1996 ISBN 9789090100586 Stichting Vrienden van het Kunsthistorisch Instituut Utrecht

Ancient Art and Ritual Jane Ellen Harrison, 2019-11-20 In her profound work Ancient Art and Ritual Jane Ellen Harrison explores the intricate relationship between artistic expression and ritual practices in ancient cultures Through an innovative examination of Greek art mythology and religious ceremonies Harrison employs a rich analytical literary style that seamlessly weaves historical context with detailed illustrations Her scholarship delves into how art functioned not merely as decoration but as an essential component of societal rituals embedding insights into the spiritual lives of ancient peoples Harrison challenges conventional narratives urging readers to appreciate the socio cultural dynamics that govern artistic creation Jane Ellen Harrison a pioneering classical scholar and member of the Cambridge School made significant contributions to the study of Greek culture and religion Her dedication to understanding the intersection of art and ritual is informed by her extensive research in anthropology and myth disciplines that shaped her perspective on ancient civilizations Harrison's feminist critique of classical scholarship marked her as a trailblazer in her field resonating throughout her oeuvre including this seminal work Ancient Art and Ritual is an essential read for anyone seeking to deepen their understanding of the role of art in shaping cultural identity and community rituals Harrison's eloquent prose and meticulous research encourage readers to look beyond mere aesthetics revealing the profound significance that art once held in the collective consciousness of ancient societies

Hegel After Derrida Stuart Barnett, 2002-01-04 Hegel After Derrida provides a much needed insight not only into the importance of Hegel and the importance of Derrida's work on Hegel but also the very foundations of postmodern and deconstructionist thought It will be essential reading for all those engaging with the work of Derrida and Hegel today and anyone seeking insight into some of the basic but neglected themes of deconstruction

Selves and Other Texts Joseph Margolis, 2010-11-01 Extending his well known investigations into the nature and logic of art and history in the cultural world Joseph Margolis here offers a sustained account of how selves and the cultural phenomena they generate language history action art can be viewed as just as real as the physical nature from which they are emergent while not being reducible to it The book starts off with a review of prominent philosophies of art over the past half century focusing especially on Beardsley Goodman and Danto so as to highlight the need for carefully distinguishing between the metaphysical and epistemological features of physical nature and human culture The second part of the book builds on the first part's analyses of artworks to propose a theory of selves as self interpreting texts Selves and Other Texts aims to develop new ways of understanding the conceptual inseparability of our analysis of physical nature and our analysis of ourselves

The End of Literature, Hegel, and the Contemporary Novel Francesco Campana,2020-12-23 This book explores the concept of the end of literature through the lens of Hegel s philosophy of art In his version of Hegel s end of art thesis Arthur Danto claimed that contemporary art has abandoned its distinctive sensitive and emotive features to become increasingly reflective Contemporary art has become a question of philosophical reflection on itself and on the world thus producing an epochal change in art history The core idea of this book is that this thesis applies quite well to all forms of art except one namely literature literature resists its end Unlike other arts which have experienced significant fractures in the contemporary world Campana proposes that literature has always known how to renew itself in order to retain its distinguishing features so much so that in a way it has always come to terms with its own end Analysing the distinct character of literature this book proposes a new and original interpretation of the end of art thesis showing how it can be used as a key conceptual framework to understand the contemporary novel

Art, Research, Philosophy Clive Cazeaux,2017-04-11 Art Research Philosophy explores the emergent field of artistic research art produced as a contribution to knowledge As a new subject it raises several questions What is art as research Don t the requirements of research amount to an imposition on the artistic process that dilutes the power of art How can something subjective become objective What is the relationship between art and writing Doesn t description always miss the particularity of the artwork This is the first book length study to show how ideas in philosophy can be applied to artistic research to answer its questions and to make proposals for its future Clive Cazeaux argues that artistic research is an exciting development in the historical debate between aesthetics and the theory of knowledge The book draws upon Kant phenomenology and critical theory to show how the immediacies of art and experience are enmeshed in the structures that create knowledge The power of art to act on these structures is illustrated through a series of studies that look closely at a number of contemporary artworks This book will be ideal for postgraduate students and scholars of the visual and creative arts aesthetics and art theory The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorandfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial No Derivatives 4.0 license <https://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/9781315764610> Forum, 1915

Theater of Man J. A. FernandezSantamaria, 1998 Born in Spain and long time resident of Bruges Juan Luis Vives is one of the keenest and most neglected minds of the northern Renaissance A many sided intellect and critical observer of the contemporary scene Vives contribution includes treatises on metaphysics psychology education rhetoric logic religion and social reform And it is precisely the central premise of this monograph that what links these diverse works together and turns Vives literary production into a whole larger than the sum of its parts is the author s single minded commitment to the Socratic dictum that an unexamined life is not worth living But because man s Fall caused him to lose his pristine ability to accomplish that task as an individual he must now do it in the context of a God mandated man created institution society whose origins and evolution Vives explains in Stoic terms Building on a foundation of Socratic Aristotelian optimism and Augustinian pessimism he concludes that social man can indeed reach the bonitas which alone makes beatitude possible But at a price for Vives the Skeptic insists that man must forego the use of that ratio speculativa which seduces him into thinking that he can probe into nature s being and understand his own divine nature The Connoisseur, 1910
