End Of Theology And The Task Of Thinking About God:

The End of Theology George Pattison,1998 Seeks to address the contemporary crisis of theology exploring the possible future for an academic discipline that is rooted in the life and teaching of the Christian church in a situation of intellectual pluralism Argues for a commitment to dialogue

A Short Course in the Philosophy of Religion George Pattison,2001 Aimed at introductory students and general readers interested in thinking and God in the context of modern thought and experience Discusses work by Kant Dostoevsky and Heidegger amongst others

God's Shining Forth Andrew R. Hay,2017-04-24 God s Shining Forth offers a theological presentation of divine light in which the leading motif is the doctrine of the Trinity More precisely this study is organized around a double trinitarian theme God is light in himself and from himself God is radiant in relation to human creatures This double affirmation is expounded by considering its extensions in the work of God s grace in ecclesiology and in the nature of theological intelligence The chosen conversation partners in this study are some of the leading pro Nicene trinitarian theologians of the fourth century plus John Calvin Karl Barth and a selection of contemporary authors Andrew Hay argues that the scriptural statement God is light is best understood as a confession of the eternal fully realized life of the triune God in its wholly gratuitous electing reconciling and illuminating human creatures in the darkness of sin and death

The Work of Christ John S. Hammett,Charles L. Quarles,2024-09-01 In The Work of Christ John S Hammett and Charles L Quarles examine Christ s service for his people especially his atoning work on the cross

The Theology of Colin Gunton Lincoln Harvey,2010-06-09 In The Theology of Colin E Gunton a number of contemporary theologians from across the world critically engage with the work of this influential British theologian Gunton s handling of the gospel of Jesus Christ is celebrated key doctrines critically examined and his contribution to the ongoing theological task carefully evaluated Contributors address key issues at the centre of Gunton s understanding of the Christian gospel thereby enabling readers to appreciate how Gunton s fundamental analysis of the relation between God creation and Jesus Christ impacts the church s ongoing task of faithful theological enquiry In this volume of essays contributors explore Gunton s constructive thinking on a range of doctrinal topics as well as critically analyze Gunton s theological method and use of the Christian tradition As such this collection of essays provides the Christian theological community with its first wide ranging and carefully argued examination into the influential work of Colin E Gunton

The Theological Turn in Youth Ministry Andrew Root,Kenda Creasy Dean,2011-09-12 The questions our youth have are often the same ones that perplexed the great theologians Andrew Root and Kenda Creasy Dean invite you to envision youth ministries full of practical theologians Follow them into reflection on your own practice of theology and learn how to share that theology through rich conversation and purposeful experience

Schleiermacher on Christian Consciousness of God's Work in History Abraham Varghese Kunnuthara,2008-01-01 This work is a fresh unusually lucid approach to Christian theology and interfaith dialogue from India Its basic aim is to examine the Christian consciousness of

God's work in history redemption history within the entire history of the world It uses Christian Faith by Friedrich Schleiermacher 1768 1834 as its main text so as to view this theme in a reversed order from the way it is presented there This approach which centers on God's new creation in Christ leads to an incisive understanding of Christianity's relation to other modes of faith Throughout Dr Kunnuthara compares the thought of another Indian Christian leader steeped in Hindu thought Pandippedi Chenchiah 1886 1959 to enable renewed interfaith dialogue across a wide spectrum

Between Faith and Thought Jeffrey W. Robbins, 2003 Robbins calls for a radical rethinking of contemporary philosophical theology based upon the ethical insights of Emmanuel Levinas that effectively redraws the boundaries between philosophy and theology and suggests an alternative relationship between faith and thought

The Task of Dogmatics Zondervan, 2017-11-21 Defining the Nature Process and Mission of Dogmatic Discourse Theologians often discuss method in a remote and preliminary way that suggests they are not yet speaking theologically when speaking methodologically But it is also possible to reflect on the work of Christian dogmatics in a way that is self consciously nourished by biblical reasoning resourced by tradition joined up with ecclesial practice and alert to spiritual dynamics Bringing together theologians who are actively engaged in the writing and editing of extended dogmatics projects The Task of Dogmatics represents the proceedings of the 2017 Los Angeles Theology Conference and seeks to provide constructive accounts of the nature of the dogmatic task The eleven diverse essays in this collection include discussions on Identifying theology's pattern and norm The validity and relativity of doctrinal statements The Apostle Paul and the task of dogmatics The retrieval of patristic and medieval theology Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future

Jonathan Edwards's Theology: A Reinterpretation Kyle C. Strobel, 2012-11-29 This volume provides an interpretative key to Jonathan Edwards's theology developed from within his own doctrinal constructs Strobel offers a dogmatic exposition of Edwards's theology by unveiling the trinitarian architecture of his thought Building upon this analysis Strobel applies his construct to reinterpret three key areas of redemption debated widely in the secondary literature spiritual knowledge regeneration and religious affection In order to achieve this purpose Strobel's approach is theological rather than philosophical employing Edwards's self confession as a Reformed theologian to guide his analysis In advancing a theological reading of Edwards Strobel focuses on the systematic nature of Edwards's theology ordering it according to his doctrinal affirmations This necessitates as many Edwards scholars now affirm a primary focus on Edwards's trinitarian theology where the Trinity serves as the key ontological principle which orders the whole of his doctrinal construction By grounding the interpretive key in Edwards's understanding of the Trinity Strobel's idiosyncratic exposition of his doctrine of the Trinity serves to recast Edwards's theology in a new light

Deconstruction, Feminist Theology, and the Problem of Difference Ellen T. Armour, 1999-06-15 The term feminism conjures up the promise of resistance to the various forms of oppression women face But feminism's ability to fulfill this promise has been undermined by its failure to deal adequately with the difference that race makes for gender In this book Ellen T Armour forges an alliance between deconstruction and feminist theology and theory by demonstrating deconstruction's usefulness in addressing feminism's trouble with race Armour shows how the writings of Jacques Derrida and Luce Irigaray can be used to uncover feminism's white presumptions so that race and gender can be thought of differently In clear concise terms she explores the possibilities and limitations for feminist theology of Derrida's conception of woman and Irigaray's multiple woman as well as Derrida's thinking on race and Irigaray's work on religion Armour then points a way beyond the race gender divide with the help of African American theorists such as bell hooks Hortense Spillers and Patricia Hill Collins Between Philosophy and Theology Christophe Brabant, 2017-03-02 Long past the time when philosophers from different perspectives had joined the funeral procession that declared the death of God a renewed interest has arisen in regard to the questions of God and religion in philosophy The turn to secularization has produced its own opposing force Although they declared themselves from the start as not being religious thinkers such as Derrida Vattimo Zizek and Badiou have nonetheless maintained an interest in religion This book brings some of these philosophical views together to present an overview of the philosophical scene in its dealings with religion but also to move beyond the outsider's perspective Reflecting on these philosophical interpretations from a fundamental theological perspective the authors discover in what way these interpretations can challenge an understanding of today's faith Bringing together thinkers with an established reputation Kearney Caputo Ward Desmond Hart Armour along with young scholars this book challenges a range of perspectives by putting them in a new context The Indelible Image: The Theological and Ethical Thought World of the New Testament Ben Witherington III, 2009-08-24 Having completed commentaries on all of the New Testament books a remarkable feat in itself Witherington now offers a two volume set on the theological and ethical thought world of the New Testament The first volume looks at the individual witnesses while the second examines the collective witness Radical Theology Jeffrey W. Robbins, 2016-08-08 Radical theology and political theology are terms that have gained a lot of currency among philosophers of religion today In this visionary new book Jeffrey W Robbins explores the contemporary direction of these movements as he charts a course for their future Robbins claims that radical theology is no longer bound by earlier thinking about God and that it must be conceived of as postsecular and postliberal As he engages with themes of liberation gender and race Robbins moves beyond the usual canon of death of God thinkers thinking against them as much as with them He presents revolutionary thinking in the face of changing theological concepts from reformation to transformation transcendence to immanence messianism to metamorphosis and from the proclamation of the death of God to the notion of God's plasticity Knowledge of the Self-Revealing God in the Thought of Thomas Forsyth Torrance John Douglas Morrison, 2005-02-07 This work examines Thomas Forsyth Torrance's concern for the modern re-entrenchment of dualism as it has negatively affected the Christian faith and the realist knowledge of God in Christ Additionally an analysis is made of Torrance's program to faithfully restore theological thinking theological science and true objectivity out of the Christocentric Trinitarian self disclosure of God via the modern return to critical realist epistemology in the physical sciences e.g. Einstein Polanyi The study concludes with a critical examination of the adequacy and completeness of Torrance's endeavor the problem of residual dualism in the light of his own theological and redemptive concerns

Theology of Work Gregorio Guitián, 2024-11-25 Theology of Work New Perspectives emerges from the necessity to continue theological reflection on work in light of the challenges posed by our contemporary world The contributions offer a global perspective of the meaning of work drawing from Trinitarian theology theology of creation eschatology theological anthropology and Christology They shed light from the perspective of faith on the integration of different work dimensions and consider how the theology of work is called to challenge social structures in light of revelation The volume mostly develops the theology of work from a Catholic perspective but Protestant and Orthodox approaches are also explicitly explored The chapters cover different theological areas such as biblical dogmatic patristic and moral theology to provide enriching and complementary perspectives Offering fresh and valuable theological insights on work this book will be of particular interest to scholars of theology and religious studies

Karl Barth and the Future of Evangelical Theology Christian T. Collins Winn, John L. Drury, 2014-11-17 The theology of Karl Barth has been a productive dialogue partner for evangelical theology For too long however the dialogue has been dominated by questions of orthodoxy The present volume seeks to contribute to the conversation through a creative reconfiguration of both partners in the conversation neither of whom can be rightly understood as preservers of Protestant Orthodoxy Rather American evangelicalism is identified with the revivalist forms of Protestantism that arose in the post Reformation era while Barth is revisited as a theologian attuned both to divine and human agency In the ensuing conversation questions of orthodoxy are not eliminated but subordinated to a concern for the life of God and God's people This volume brings together seasoned Barth scholars evangelical theologians and some younger voices united by a common desire to rethink both Karl Barth and evangelical theology By offering an alternative to the dominant constraints the book opens up new avenues for fruitful conversation on Barth and the future of evangelical theology

Theology and the Quest for Truth Mathijs Lamberigts, Lieven Boeve, Terrence Merrigan, 2006 In 2001 three research groups from the field of systematic theology and church history at the Faculty of Theology K U Leuven decided to join forces in an interdisciplinary project entitled Orthodoxy Process and Product The main aim of this project consists of a church historical and systematic theological study of the determination of truth in church and theology Senior and junior scholars from the three groups agreed to take this theme as the starting point and leading question from which the many research projects they are engaged in could be brought into relationship and as far as possible integrated Although the question for theological truth already structured the research being conducted in the three groups to a significant degree joining forces promised the realisation of a surplus value and this both through the gathering of a considerable critical mass in total more than thirty junior and senior researchers and the interdisciplinary design of the project In this volume a first collection of contributions to this project from a diversity of angles and research subjects is presented In these contributions scholars from the participating research groups investigate the implications of the overall research question for their particular line of research and research methodologies and suggest how from this specific research the overall question may be refined and elements of answering it can be provided Desiring Theology Charles E. Winquist,1995 Publisher Description Evangelical Dictionary of Theology (Baker Reference Library) Walter A. Elwell,2001-05-01 Fifteen years after its original publication comes a thoroughly revised edition of the Evangelical Dictionary of Theology Every article from the original edition has been revisited With some articles being removed others revised and many new articles added the result is a completely new dictionary covering systematic historical and philosophical theology as well as theological ethics
