Strozier,Konstantine Pinteris,Kathleen Kelley,Deborah Cher,2022-10-07 There are two foundational thinkers in the history of psychoanalysis Sigmund Freud and Heinz Kohut Though Kohut is much less well known he revolutionized psychoanalytic theory and the practice of psychotherapy In a burst of creativity from the mid 1960s until his death in 1981 he reimagined the field in a way that made it open mutual relational and inclusive His conceptualization of a holistic self that is in an ongoing relationship with others represented a paradigm shift from the purely intrapsychic Freudian model of id ego superego In The New World of Self Charles B Strozier Konstantine Pinteris Kathleen Kelley and Deborah Cher draw upon their deep knowledge of Kohut s extensive and diverse writing to understand the full significance of his thinking His self psychology released psychoanalysis from the inherent limits created by its theoretical dependence on drive theory Kohut instead focused on immediate experience He also embraced historical themes leadership and culture literature from Kafka to O Neill the psychology of music much about art and a theory of religion and spirituality for modern sensibilities Acquainting the work of this eminent psychoanalytic theorist to a new generation of clinicians and scholars The New World of Self unpacks the transformative research of Heinz Kohut and highlights his significance in the history of psychoanalysis Mind ,1916 A journal of philosophy covering epistemology metaphysics philosophy of language philosophy of logic and philosophy of mind Absolute Freedom Stefano Carpani,2024-07-30 Within this book the fields of analytical psychology and sociology combine to examine and explore current social theory and the concept that the author has termed absolute freedom This work serves as a vital contribution to contemporary social and psychoanalytic research unveiling the intricacies of psychological and social dynamics in our current epoch Stefano Carpani explores the intersection of psychology and sociology providing a fresh perspective beyond conventional boundaries It conducts a comparative analysis of C G Jung s individuation process and Ulrich Beck s individualization theory presenting the groundbreaking I I synthesis This latter concept acts as a linchpin in deciphering self identity narratives in the 21st century s dynamic landscape before the author introduces the concept of absolute freedom contextualizing it within the multifaceted complexities of contemporary second

Godfrey,2003 Dreaming is a universal phenomenon Nearly everybody dreams and is anxious to know what it means Perhaps no other human experience has aroused so much interest and curiosity as this alien visitation that forces itself upon us without warning during the dead of sleep Since antiquity thousands of books and articles have been written to shed some light on this mysterious and often unwelcome nightly visitor Despite tremendous work in this field the riddle remains unsolved Still no satisfactory answers have been provided to these basic questions Why do we dream What are dreams about Where do they come from How can we understand them This book is significantly different from those of others in this area as the answers presented are not the author's own views they are largely his dreams answers to the questions just posed. Instead of speculation this author a psychologist by profession has put forward what his own dreams have consistently and persistently revealed to him over the past thirty years. Since 1973 he has recorded over 100 000 dreams filling some 230 journals of 200 pages each. The length of the dreams varies greatly some consist of a single word or phrase others fill a page or more. This book is written to share with others what the author has gained from his journey into the dreamworld and from his long and patient analysis of this vast number of dreams. Three conclusions have been drawn from this investigation: 1 Dreams are not caused by repressed sexual wishes somatic sources impressions of the preceding days or other mundane instigators as claimed by Freud and his followers. 2 Dreams do have a supernatural source as pronounced by many writers through the ages and 3 Through dreams this supernatural source reveals to us who we really are brings to light who He is and invites us to lead our own lives sensibly and purposefully. Using his own dreams as illustrations the author addresses a wide variety of topics relating to the domain of dreams including: Are dreams a source of creativity? Why do some of us have frequent nightmares? Can we control the content of our dreams? Why are dreams so cryptic? How can we decipher our dream symbols to understand their meanings? Do characters in our dreams refer to persons we know of or do they stand for components of our own identity? How should we understand the verbal contents of our dreams? Can dreams guide us as to how we should conduct our lives? Is the reality we experience during our dreams more dependable or the one we experience in waking life? The main purpose of the book is to elucidate that dreams are trustworthy teachers. In the realm of growth and self discovery we must regard as suspect whatever we learn from others however wise and well meaning. But whatever is conveyed to us directly through dreams is credible since it emanates from within us and is free from inconsistencies and adulterations. Our major challenge is to understand the symbolic language used by the wise guide we have within.

Studies in Dreams Mary Lucy Story-Maskelyne Arnold-Forster, 1921 Irish Women's Prison Writing Red Washburn, 2022-11-16 This book explores 50 years of Irish women's prison writing 1960s 2010s connecting the work of women leaders and writers in Northern Ireland during the Troubles. This volume analyzes political communiques petitions news coverage prison files personal letters poetry and short prose and memoirs highlighting the personal correspondence autobiographical narratives and poetry of the following key women: Bernadette McAliskey Eileen Hickey Mairead Farrell Seol Darragh Ella O'Dwyer Martina Anderson Dolours Price Marian McGlinchey formerly Marian Price and Eibhlín Ní Giolla Easpaig Ann and Eileen Gillespie Roseleen Walsh and Margaretta D'Arcy. This text builds on different fields and discourses to reimagine gender and genre as central to an interdisciplinary and intersectional prison archive. Centering Irish women's prison writings in order to challenge canonization in history and literature this volume argues that women's lives and words offer a different view of gender and nation as well as offer a fuller and more inclusive archive of Irish history and literature.

Additionally this book will point to the ways in which their politics of everyday life and their cultural work is a form of anti colonial civil rights feminism for it speaks truth to power in a world in which compliance and silence are valued Overall this text focuses on rethinking and recasting women s voices and words in order to document and promote the ongoing Irish freedom struggle from an abolitionist feminist perspective
