Finding Our Selves:

Finding Ourselves Lost Robert C. Dykstra,2018-06-13 This book wrestles with quandaries of pastoral ministry in what psychotherapist Mary Pipher calls the age of overwhelm Drawing especially from the wisdom of Jesus own teaching and healing ministries as portrayed in the Gospel of Luke it offers an intimate narrative introduction to pastoral theology for guiding bewildering tasks of pastoral care and counseling These essays encourage seminarians and ministers to embrace their role as agents of healing by exploring their own debilitating shame and daring to speak what in childhood could not be spoken by revealing their discoveries to a trusted confidant so as to feel less loathsome or lonely by attending to even minute individual differences in self and others that fuel social isolation and by believing in those persons who first believed in them

Finding Ourselves at the Movies Paul W. Kahn, 2013-11-12 Academic philosophy may have lost its audience but the traditional subjects of philosophy love death justice knowledge and faith remain as compelling as ever To reach a new generation Paul W Kahn argues philosophy must be brought to bear on contemporary discourse surrounding these primal concerns and he shows how this can be achieved through a turn to popular film In such well known movies as Forrest Gump 1994 The American President 1995 The Matrix 1999 Memento 2000 The History of Violence 2005 Gran Torino 2008 The Dark Knight 2008 The Road 2009 and Avatar 2009 Kahn explores powerful archetypes and their hold on us and he treats our present day anxieties over justice love and faith as signs these traditional imaginative structures have failed His inquiry proceeds in two parts First he uses film to explore the nature of action and interpretation and narrative not abstraction emerges as the critical concept for understanding both Second he explores the narratives of politics family and faith as they appear in popular films Engaging with genres as diverse as romantic comedies slasher films and pornography Kahn gains access to the social imaginary through which we create and maintain a meaningful world Where We Find Ourselves Miriam Ben-Yoseph, Deborah Nodler Rosen, 2010-03-24 In this remarkable collection of essays stories and poems Jewish women writers from around the world offer diverse perspectives on the idea of home. The longing for home is as ancient as the exile from Eden and for the thirty nine writers showcased in this anthology the struggle to find and redefine home has been intensified by history the Holocaust and the diverse cultural political and religious contexts in which they live and write Together they explore the many natures and meanings of home home as a place one is born to and sometimes forced to leave home as a place one can journey toward or create home as an abstract composite of memories emotions and rituals Some of these writers contend with exile and anti Semitism others examine the mixed blessings of sheltered childhoods and all confront memories in which the historical and personal are intertwined Their range of perspectives and their personal approaches to a universal concern make Where We Find Ourselves a compelling read for students scholars and all who seek to understand what it means to be home We Find Ourselves Put to the Test James Crooks, 2018-05-07 Does the world we inhabit offer us hospitality or indifference This question is central to the spiritual literature of all cultures In We Find Ourselves Put to the Test James Crooks returns to the Bible s book of Job to explore the enduring relevance of that question and its philosophical dimensions Beginning with the puzzle of Job s famous stoicism and nihilism in the face of loss Crooks explores the contradictions of suffering as dramatized in the dialogue between Job and his friends How is it that the friends attempt to comfort Job with a rational explanation of his misfortune devolves seamlessly into victim blaming How is it that Job s own renunciation of life at the nadir of his pain converts into an intellectual patience that outlasts the advocates of rational explanation We Find Ourselves Put to the Test gives a portrait of the suffering protagonist looking into the heart of a creation that is by necessity both indifferent and hospitable A philosophical exploration of one of the most enigmatic books in the Bible We Find Ourselves Put to the Test goes beyond critical interpretation and suggests a way of reading the book of Job that is animated by a consideration of the reader s narratives and communities and the limits of his or her own understanding

The Story We Find Ourselves In Brian D. McLaren, 2019-03-05 Book Two in The New Kind of Christian Trilogy The Story We Find Ourselves In is the seguel to Brian D McLaren's award winning book A New Kind of Christian His witty and wise characters take on difficult faith busting themes from evolution and evangelism to death and the meaning of life and reveal that the answers to life s pressing spiritual questions often come from the most unlikely sources Dan and Neo and some new characters as well invite reflection on the story we find ourselves in that is the narrative of God's presence and meaning in Where We Find Ourselves R. Thomas Risk, 2011-07 On Christmas Day 6 year old the world now and in the future Randolph runs into the family room and cries Daddy Two men William and Cyrus answer his call In his guest to unravel the mystery of two fathers which leads to a reunion with his birth mother and the exposure of grim secrets William tried to bury half a century ago Randolph rediscovers himself Thirty three years after that ominous Christmas Day as William tries to atone from his deathbed for a lifetime of deceit Randolph realizes that he has solved a far greater question Does God exist The practical implications of his answer will astonish you Where We Find Ourselves is a true story told by one of those rare individuals in whom the old world and the new coalesce In this tale of betrayal and liberation R Thomas Risk enlists the analytical skills of a lawyer the savvy of an investigator and the eloquence of an award winning poet to forever change your perception of society's sacred institutions the three most insidious of which are Religion Celebrity and National Politics a positively unholy trinity Where We Find Ourselves Margaret Sartor, Alex Harris, 2018-11-08 Self taught photographer Hugh Mangum was born in 1877 in Durham North Carolina as its burgeoning tobacco economy put the frontier like boomtown on the map As an itinerant portraitist working primarily in North Carolina and Virginia during the rise of Jim Crow Mangum welcomed into his temporary studios a clientele that was both racially and economically diverse After his death in 1922 his glass plate negatives remained stored in his darkroom a tobacco barn for fifty years Slated for demolition in the 1970s the barn was saved at the last moment and with it this surprising and unparalleled document of life at the turn of the twentieth century a turbulent time in the history of the American South Hugh Mangum's multiple image glass plate negatives reveal the open door policy of his studio to show us lives marked both by notable affluence and hard work all imbued with a strong sense of individuality self creation and often joy Seen and experienced in the present the portraits hint at unexpected relationships and histories and also confirm how historical photographs have the power to subvert familiar narratives Mangum s photographs are not only images they are objects that have survived a history of their own and exist within the larger political and cultural history of the American South demonstrating the unpredictable alchemy that often characterizes the best art its ability over time to evolve with and absorb life and meaning beyond the intentions or expectations of the artist

Finding Ourselves in God's Story Michele Hershberger, 2025-05-20 Why is the church so important to God What s really going on in the Bible How can I make sense of my life Finding Ourselves in God's Story addresses the pressing questions and concerns that today s youth bring to their faith Introducing Christian faith from an Anabaptist perspective author Michele Hershberger puts readers in touch with two stories that Christians constantly hear and tell First there is the Bible's story of God working to restore us and all of creation to wholeness The center of this story is Jesus Christ who lived died rose and still lives for us The second story involves our own lives today asking how we can connect with God's story where God is working in our lives and what we will do with Jesus invitation to follow him Hershberger invites readers to join a conversation that covers these and other questions about faith Drawing on direct honest dialogue with Mennonite teenagers young adults and pastors this guide engages groups in the discussions that matter most as it leads readers deeper into a faith that can become their own as they consider baptism or church membership We Find Ourselves in Other People's Stories Amy E.
