Excerpt: CHAPTER XIV Jean turned white with deadly sickening fear but kept her head courageously up. She whipped up her pony and tried to get away but the strong hand held the bridle and the little beast could only rear almost throwing her. Moreover a gleaming pistol shone into Jean's terrified eyes and Scathlin in gloating voice spoke low. "Oh no my pretty you don't come any of your little tricks on me. You've stole a paper I give you to give to your brother and I mean to have it without any further nonsense. Hand it over and he grasped her roughly by the arm. Help Mr Holt Jasper she screamed. Something was stuffed into her mouth and the barrel of the pistol gleamed between her eyes. She could feel the cold steel against her flesh. The earth seemed reeling beneath her and her senses were going from her. Was there no hope of help from anywhere? Now my pretty I'll just help myself to that paper. Scathlin's voice was malevolent, his eyes gleaming. Like the cold slimy length of a serpent coiling around her soul the meaning of his words slid about her consciousness. She felt she was sinking out of the world of knowledge into a blackness where she could not protect herself. Then quickly sharply a voice brought her back to consciousness. Drop that pistol. Let go of that lady. Now march. It was Holt's voice low merciless commanding and a revolver was in his hand. Scathlin fell away like water turning deadly white and cringing. The day of his judgment had come swiftly and there was no escape. He knew that look in Holt's eye. He had sinned away his last probation. Holt would never trust him again. There was not even time to destroy the letter which he had wanted to keep and give to Harrington as evidence against the The Finding of Jasper Holt Grace Lutz (formerly Hill, formerly Livingston.), 1916 FINDING OF JASPER HOLT GRACE LIVINGSTON HILL. LUTZ, 2018 The Finding of Jasper Holt (Classic Reprint) Grace Livingston Hill Lutz, 2017-09-17 Excerpt from The Finding of Jasper Holt Nevertheless as he looked again at the pure profile turned now toward her window and studied the sweet outline of the firm little chin pleasant lips the gentle contour of cheek and lash and brow the luminous eyes that were glowing for the moment at the stain of sunset beginning to trickle through the gloomy gray of the sky he could not but feel that here was something different. It was something for which he had been hoping all his life searching for but never finding. Something it was good just to know existed something whose existence would make even a stranger better and braver and purer.
